MERRILL MENTION

Frank Slabek has passed the examination at Grants Pass for army entrance, and has gone to Portland. He is one of the Bohemian boys, and has volunteered, as he is only 18. The Bohemians here are loyal almost to a unit to Uncle Sam, and many of them have volunteered.

There were no services at the Presbyterian church yesterday, as the Rev. Mr. Bevan has not returned from Los Angeles.

The many friends of Miss Dorris Ady are pleased to hear that she is a little better.

The public school here is preparing for an entertainment to be given on Washington's birthday. One half of the proceeds are to go to the Red Cross.

Some of the girls here are taking a great interest in saving cancelled stamps for the benefit of the Belgian children, and are arousing interest among their school mates.

Mrs. Dimmett is suffering from the effects of a bad fall, but is improving.

MT. LAKE LACONICS

The annual meeting of the Mt. Lake Lacconics association was held last Monday afternoon at which the following officers were elected: President, Mr. Eastwood; vice president, Mr. McClellan; secretary and treasurer, Mr. Nylander; directors, Mr. West, Mr. Schreiner and Mr. Dehlinger.

John Koons and Will Cheyne of this section are serving on the jury.

Mr. and Mrs. George Grizzle entertained the officers and older members of the Sunday school at their home Friday evening. A large number were present, and all agreed that Mr. and Mrs. Grizzle were royal entertainers.

Miss Fay West has been visiting friends in town, and while there attended the high school party.

A meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association of the Mt. Lake school was held Friday afternoon. Plans were made for a social evening next Friday evening, January 25th, when the school wishes to entertain its patrons and friends, and give them an opportunity to make the acquaintance of the new grammophone, recently purchased. Later an entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Red Cross.

A great deal of interest is being shown in the Red Cross work by the ladies of this community, who have met every Wednesday at the church. Those who were present last week were Mrs. Latta, Mrs. White, Mrs. Koons, Mrs. Steeman, Mrs. Grizzle, Mrs. Brinkfield, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Lester, Mrs. Case, Mrs. Booth and the Misses Hatch and West.

Mrs. Eastwood has invited all interested in this great work to spend the day next Wednesday at her home. As there are several garments to be finished this month it is hoped that a large number can be there to enjoy the hospitality of the hostess.

Miss Louise Hatch of the Tule Lake district has been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity for the past few days.

More Lumbermen Wanted In France

PORTLAND, Jan. 21.—Word has been received here from Major H. L. Rowley of the engineers section of the war department at Washington, that recruits can now be received for the road and bridge battalion, with promise of early service overseas. The Twentieth Engineers, known as the lumbermen's regiment, needs quickly for immediate service in France, 3,000 experienced woodmen and lumbermen for woods work, logging railroads and sawmills, local recruiting officers point out.

All commissioned officers of the regiment have been selected from the various lumbering districts of the United States, with special regard for their practical experience as woodmen, logging railroad builders and operators and sawmill operators. Able-bodied white men not subject to draft or men subject to draft but not needed for the next call in their districts, can join this battalion.

Oregonians May Well Be Proud of Governor

The state of Oregon enjoys an enviable standing among the states of the Union on account of its splendid record in every movement of patriotic duty that has been inaugurated for the support of our government in the successful prosecution and conduct of those who have placed their lives upon the altar of sacrifice for their country's defense, for the conservation of resources and for such unselfish denials as the ruling forces of the nation have deemed necessary to the ends and purposes of the national participation in the international conflict. Every citizen of this state must feel proud of what Oregon has done in answer to every call—to the Red Cross, to the voluntary enlistment of its fighting forces, to the Liberty Bond subscriptions, to the Y. M. C. A., and to every form of appeal that calls for generous response and sacrifice, and in that pride let us not forget to place a large share of the credit where it belongs for the condition of the public mind and conscience which made such achievements possible. It is but justice to say that the fine precept and example of our patriotic governor, James Withycombe, exhibited and expressed earnestly and vigorously on all occasions, have been most powerful agencies in spurring and encouraging our people to do the very best that is in them, and it is also safe to say that no person in the state is prouder of the record made than he is.—Oregon Statesman.

Ludendorff Respects French Marksmanship

FRENCH FRONT, December 18.—(Correspondence)—General Ludendorff regarded by the entente allies as the master mind of the German army, pays an unintentional compliment to the accuracy of the French artillerymen in a memorandum issued to the troops on October 4th, which has just been made available to the correspondent of the Associated Press.

In this document he admits that the French gunners by their counter-battery fire destroyed in one German army alone in the course of a month eighty-three German field guns and seventy-two heavy cannon, while they seriously damaged and put out of action also 323 field guns and 213 heavy cannon, as well as ninety-one field guns and fifty-nine heavy cannon slightly injured, but capable of being repaired and used again in a short time.

To these imposing figures of artillery losses caused by the French gunners the same German army, in the same period of time had the mortification of adding an almost equally large number of losses brought about by the wearing out or bursting of guns. In this way seventy-three field guns and twenty-one heavy cannon were destroyed; 164 field guns and 129 heavy cannon seriously damaged, and 177 field guns and ninety-one heavy cannons slightly disabled.

Moving Pictures

"The Devil Dodger," a new Triangle play to be shown at the Star tonight, is unusually full of genuine heart interest. The West leads itself peculiarly to the play of emotion. Broad lines must be drawn on questions of right and wrong, where even in the dress surroundings of a gambler's saloon the light of a great love is not obscured. After a life of shallow pleasure, Finley was naturally attracted to a new comer who spoke of spiritual things wonderfully strange to her. The minister pointed out the path of righteousness, and then, in the greatness of his love, sacrificed all for the little girl. His work was finished, for by saving Silent Scott he had saved Snowstorm.

Chas. Chaplin arrived late last night, so don't fail to see him tonight in "The Fireman" at the Star. It

SOLDIERS WANTING MUSIC

LETTER FROM PARIS SAYS POPULAR MUSIC IS IN GREATEST DEMAND BY SOLDIERS NOW AT THE FRONT

EUGENE, Jan. 21.—Send catchy music to the soldiers. If you have nothing popular send them something classical, but send them music. Such is the appeal included in a letter from France by Miss Elizabeth Stewart, a librarian in Paris at the Y. M. C. A. headquarters with the American Expeditionary Force. The letter has just been received on the campus at the University of Oregon.

"If anyone wants to send anything to the soldiers I think music would be as much appreciated as anything," wrote Miss Stewart. "This morning there was a secretary in from the field who said that for about 1,500 men they had only one old volume of hymns which they had swiped from another hut; that one soldier had brought eight songs with him, and this was all they had for months. They played and sang them until they were worn out and all were tired of them."

Surety bonds promptly executed. See Chillicothe.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

TAKE A GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR BACK HURTS OR BLADDER TROUBLES YOU

No man or woman who eats meat regular can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys they become over worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

DRUGGIST SAYS LADIES ARE USING RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, but beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe. Nowadays we get this famous mixture, improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so gently, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

Some of the Boy Food Scouts Eating Experimental Noon Lunches

In an attempt to learn if small boys of New York City need hot and balanced meals at public schools, the People's Institute, the Post Graduate hospital and the New York school lunch committee have undertaken experiments in feeding the pupils. The boys are examined and weighed by physicians, and after three months they will be examined and weighed again. The menus for them have been arranged by dietitians of important educational institutions.
