ING STAY OF NEARLY TRREE WEEKS-50 REPORTS FILED

Three hundred and fifty calls fro the Klamath residents were made at the office of Income Inspector J. S. Hogg during his stay of eighteen days in this city. Mr. Hogg left this morning for Lakeview, and will go from there to Hend.

Of the 350 who visited the office only fifty made out their reports, but many secured the blanks and will make them out later. There were es timates of about 350 that would come under the income tax law by government officials, altho there is nothing accurate about such estimates.

Those who should pay this tax and fall to do so are liable to a heavy genalty later.
