

Ice Sailing a Wonderful Sport

Ice sailing, which has been extensively enjoyed thruout the Eastern and Northern states this winter, because of the continued cold weather in those sections, is said by its devotees to be one of the most fascinating and interesting of the many outdoor winter sports.

Society Events of the Week

Aloha Chapter of Eastern Star was given a surprise party at its regular meeting on Tuesday night after the business session, the hostesses being Miss Maud Baldwin and Mrs. Florence Brandenburg. A Gypsy circus which happened into town at this opportune time provided the entertainment. The hostesses were the advertisers of the circus, which first paraded around the hall in true circus style, the leader being the clown, who bore a remarkable resemblance to W. A. Leonard. Following is the program:

An Indian Club Drill
Little Mary Jane (Lillian Stills) made her initial appearance, and recited a piece.
The Pickaninny Kids (Gertrude Moore and Lynn Martin) did a wonderful song and dance.

The Sunbonnet Kids (Rose Bratton and Clara Elmer) did some stunts.
Pa Davis told a remarkable yarn. He was accompanied by Ma and the Kid. (These were Minnie Henry, Ethel Davis and Kate Peyton.)

Stock was then sold in the Gypsy Rubber Co. Dividends were declared and a big drawing took place. Lucky No. 49, which was held by Mrs. Harold Bell, won the grand prize of a large amount of wool to knit for the Red Cross. After this a kangaroo court was held, with the following officers: Judge, Clyde Brandenburg; Prosecuting Attorney, George Walton; Attorney for Defendant, W. A. Dettell; Bailiff, Oscar Peyton; Sheriff, Pa Davis; Prisoners, Lynn Martin, Gertrude Moore and Frank Armstrong; Star Witness, Rose Bratton. After an exciting trial the prisoners were convicted and sentenced. After the entertainment refreshments were served.

The Federated Missionary Society of Klamath Falls announces its first general meeting in the form of an all-day gathering at the Grace M. E. church, Thursday, January 31st, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Dinner will be served during the noon hour, to which the families of the workers are invited, and an attractive program has been arranged for both morning and afternoon. The Federated Missionary Society is composed of the members of five different churches of this city. It is planned to make the general meeting of January an annual affair, to be held in the different church buildings in turn. A most cordial invitation to this gathering is extended to all members and friends of the society.

The silver knitting party given by the Episcopal Guild at the home of Mrs. George Baldwin was a great success, and the many ladies who attended enjoyed a very delightful afternoon. Mrs. Foster was chairman of the committee in charge, the members of which were Mesdames S. H. Martin, Cosad and A. D. Miller. Mrs. Koberlein played several piano solos, and punch was served. The silver offering amounted to $12.15, which will be devoted to charitable purposes.

The Woman's Relief Corps has received twenty-five of the six-inch wool squares from Merrill, to be used in making a sixty-four inch afghan for the Red Cross. Klamath Falls has many proficient women knitters, but Merrill leads with knitters of the opposite sex. These blocks were made by Mr. Ross Finley for the Red Cross, and it is understood that many more energetic Merrill men are learning to knit. The corps hopes to finish this afghan during the coming week. The following chairmen of Red Cross committees helped to fill the workrooms the past week: Mesdames A. J. Lyle, James Grimes, Paul Bogardus, Roy Moore, E. C. Kimball, Helen Truner and Carey Ramsey.

A jolly party was given at the home of Mrs. J. B. Noud on Wednesday evening. Cards and music formed the evening's entertainment, and dainty refreshments were served. The guests were Mesdames Katherine Holloway, Ada and Ina Gould, Viola Santamau, Susie Noud and Mrs. Lilah Henderson, and Messrs. Guy Satterlee, Wm. Holloway, Leslie Plymel, Earl Hamaker, A. Cheriman and James Foster.

The Pythian Club met at the home of Mrs. R. R. Brubaker on Tuesday afternoon, the time being spent in sewing for the Red Cross Society. Those present were Mesdames Coter, Verle Brewbaker, Hurn, Kimball, McDonald, Momyer and McMillan.

The Happy Hour Club met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. C. Shipley. The afternoon was spent in sewing. Those present were Mesdames Hector, Steinmetz, Geo. Blehn, Weedon, J. M. Johnson, W. P. Johnson, Richardson, Emmitt, North, Turner, Pettigo and Hanks.

Dancing class starts Monday, January 28th. Parties wishing to join phone 187. 23-4t

At the Churches

First Presbyterian Church, corner Third and Pine streets. Rev. E. P. Lawrence, pastor.

The call of the day is for the best type of manhood and womanhood possible to offset the demoralizing influences of war. With that in mind, the pastor will discuss the subject "The Uncommon Christian" at his morning service.

In the evening stereopticon slides on "South America" will be shown. There will be seventy slides, picturing in a vivid manner the people, the mountains, valleys, rivers, products, mines; missions and missionaries at their work. It is a fascinating story in word picture of the great developing continent lying south of us, and one with which we will be on far more intimate terms at the close of this war.

There will be special music at both services. Hours, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Sunday school at 10 a. m.
