

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS TO CONTINUE

RUSSIAN DELEGATES' MOVES ARE ENDORSED

GERMANY IS ACCUSED AT WASHINGTON OF VIOLATING TERMS OF THE RUSSIAN TRUCE BY TRANSFERRING SOLDIERS TO THE WEST FRONT

INDICATION OF CONTINUED UNREST AMONG THE GERMANS IS SHOWN IN MESSAGE FROM THE KAISER TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE REICHTAG

PETROGRAD, Jan. 29.—Foreign Minister Trotsky has left for Brast-Litovsk to resume the peace negotiations. The congress of workmen and soldiers delegates, while deploring the imperialistic tenor of the German peace terms, has approved of all the actions of the Russian delegation, and has charged the government to continue the negotiations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.—Charges that Germany is violating the terms of the Russian truce by withdrawing her troops from the eastern front and transferring them to the western lines were made here today by the war department.

By Associated Press
DATELESS—There is every evidence that the great unrest among the German people has not quieted down. The emperor in a birthday message to the president of the reichstag expressed the ardent wish that the people might preserve their union until a final victory was completed.

CAR OF BUICKS ARRIVE

That there is still some money left jingling in the pockets of local citizens, despite the high war prices, is indicated by the fact that the carload of Buicks unloaded yesterday by the Southern Oregon Auto company have all been contracted for in Klamath and Lake counties.

A sale of a full carload at this season is said to be unprecedented here. Elmer Haldwin of Lakeview is expected within a day or two to look after the transferring of the Lake County portion.

New Loggers Quarters Are Well Patronized

There is every indication that the new lumbermen's and loggers' headquarters which has recently been installed in the old Upp Jewelry stand on Main street, was a successful move as it seems to be well patronized by those for whom it was intended. The room, which is under the management of James Ryan, a well

ACTIVITY STARTS IN NORTHERN ITALY

BOWLERS TIED IN CONTEST

THE MOOSE WOLVES AND PALM TIGERS HAVE EXCITING MATCH LAST NIGHT—HIGH SCORE OF EVENING IS 222

	Won	Lost	Tie	Pct.
Palm Tigers	1	1	1	.500
Moose Wolves	1	1	1	.500

In a buster of a contest the Palm Tigers and Moose Wolves emerged with honors even, each team winning and losing one game, with one game a tie. The Wolves won the first, were tied in the second, and lost the third by almost 200 pins. Bill Lorenz rolled a 232 score for high mark of the evening, and averaged 177 for the three games.

Numerous good scores were made by the others, and some scores that would look well in a game of duck-pins, but nowhere else. Friday night the same teams battle again, and another bear-fight is assured by each team.

Tonight the Elks and Palms meet on the Elks' alleys for the second match of their tournament.

TIGERS
	1st	2nd	3rd	Av.
Callen	135	119	192	149
Beck	113	159	132	135
Carter	127	137	115	130
Lorenz	157	141	232	177
Nelson	120	146	161	142
Totals	662	702	832	147

WOLVES
	1st	2nd	3rd	Av.
Boyd	118	130	152	133
Hendrickson	132	119	110	120
Hurn	201	126	137	155
Markwardt	125	124	107	119
Lee	127	193	143	154
Totals	703	702	649	137

KLAMATH BOY ARRIVES IN FRANCE

That Walter D. Mann formerly of Klamath Falls, and now in the Third company of the Twentieth Engineers, has safely arrived in France, is the welcome news received today by his mother, Mrs. M. A. Mann. The young soldier is only 17 years of age. He writes that he will send more details of his trip soon.

CANDIDATE FOR U. S. SENATOR

United States Senator Charles L. McNary, who will be a candidate for re-nomination on the republican ticket.

McNary was appointed to fill his present position in the senate following the death of the late Senator Harry Lane. He is making a good record for himself in that legislative body.

DANCE FOR THE FRENCH CHILDREN

LOCAL WOMEN PLAN FUNCTION FOR LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY AT WHITE PELICAN HOTEL—OPEN TO PUBLIC—NO INVITATIONS

On February 12th, Lincoln's birthday, a patriotic dancing party will be given at the White Pelican hotel. The proceeds from the dance will go to the aid of the French children.

The committee in charge is composed of Miss Maud Baldwin and Mesdames W. U. Foster, G. B. Cosad, S. E. Martin, A. D. Miller and E. B. Hall. Several young ladies will assist at the dance. Misses Gray Hunt, Walve Jacobs, Elizabeth Houston, Verda Cosad, Mildred Burke, Mabel Leavitt and Pearl Leavitt. No invitations will be sent out, as the dance is a public affair. The hall will be beautifully decorated, and any who care to are asked to wear fancy costumes. Tickets will be on sale tomorrow by the ladies, and will be $1 each, which price includes one gentleman and ladies.

ALIENS MUST REGISTER WITH LOCAL POSTMASTER

All German male aliens within the delivery district of Klamath Falls over the age of 14 years, are expected to register with Postmaster W. A. Daisell between 6 a. m. February 4th, during the hours from 6 a. m. to 8 p. m. up until the evening of February 6th, according to an order just issued. Failure to make such registration lays the party liable to severe penalties.

German Planes Raid England

LONDON, Jan. 29.—A score or more airplanes again raided England last night. Five of them succeeded in reaching London, where one fell in flames from a height of 10,000 feet. All three of the crew were burned to death. The British pilots returned safely after their engagement in the air. Forty-seven persons were killed and 169 injured in the air raid, according to an official announcement.

Bolsheviki Split On Terms of Peace

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The bolsheviks are now reported to be split on terms of peace, the majority being against a conclusion on the present terms offered by the Germans, and to favor a holy war, according to a Petrograd dispatch. As the present government is unable to wage war, the formation of a coalition of all the socialist factions is proposed.

Finland In Throes Of a Revolution

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 29.—The Red Guard has won complete control of Helsinki, the capital of Finland, according to a report from Stockholm. It is not known whether the Finnish government officials have escaped from the revolutionists.

BAKER IN FOR MORE GRILLING

MILITARY COMMITTEE WILL CALL SECRETARY FOR FURTHER EXAMINATION THIS WEEK

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.—The military committee has decided to recall Secretary Baker for cross-examination before the end of the present week. It is understood that this committee will pursue its demands for a war cabinet and a munition director bill.

BIG WAR COUNCIL ON

VERSAILLES, Jan. 29.—General Tasker Bliss is representing the United States at the Supreme War Council now in progress here. England, France and Italy are also represented.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Chas. Masrow and Miss Mary Bedal of Klamath Falls, by County Clerk C. R. DeLap.

NEW MAIL SERVICE TO START SOON

WORD RECEIVED BY POSTMASTER THAT NEW RURAL MAIL DELIVERY WILL COMMENCE NEXT FRIDAY

The new rural route No. 1 has finally been established, and will be started on February 1st, according to a wire just received by Postmaster W. A. Daisell.

Mr. Daisell left this morning for a trip over the new route to obtain a complete list of the patrons, and to make a final inspection of the mail boxes. A temporary carrier is to be installed until a certified man is named for that district.

The new route, which takes in Mills Addition to this city, includes all the territory west of the main road to Merrill, and has been badly needed by residents of the Spring Lake and Midland sections for many years. A great deal of effort has been expended by the local postmaster and by citizens in the territory to be served in getting the route established.

ITALIANS START BIG OFFENSIVE ON ENEMY

ENEMY'S LINES ARE BROKEN IN NUMEROUS PLACES—REINFORCEMENTS OF HUNGARS DISPERSED BY THE ITALIAN ARTILLERY.

TWELVE ENEMY AIRPLANES BROUGHT DOWN DURING ENGAGEMENT—ITALIANS HAVE MASTERY OF THE AIR—1,500 PRISONERS TAKEN

ROME, Jan. 29.—The Italians made a heavy attack yesterday on the northern mountain front and broke into the lines of the enemy with great force. The reinforcements which the enemy was pouring down the Noe and Campomulo valleys was dispersed by the artillery of the Italians and their allies. Twelve Teuton airplanes were brought down during the engagement and the Italians are reported to have held the mastery of the air every where. More than 1,500 prisoners were taken from the opposing forces. Positions of the enemy were stormed on the heights east of Asiago, and at several points the lines succeeded in breaking thru. Violent counter-offensives were repulsed.

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—The Italians launched a violent attack Sunday on the northern mountain front between the Asiago plateau and the Brenta River. The Austrians are reported to have thrown back the Italians in the Col del Rosso region and between the Frensela ravine and the Brenta River.

BIG FIRE RAGES IN MICHIGAN

EXPLOSION BELIEVED INCENDIARY STARTS DEVASTATING FIRE IN BIG IRON WORKS. HALF A MILLION LOST

MARQUETTE, Mich., Jan. 29.—A big explosion followed by fire is today wiping out the plant of the Pioneer Iron company. Owing to the low water pressure and freezing weather, there is a grave question as to whether the blast can be controlled. It is believed that the fire is of an incendiary origin. The loss at this time is at least $500,000.

NEW DRAFT REGULATIONS CONSIDERED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.—The senate military committee is considering new provisions for the draft law to bring in young men as fast as they reach the age of 21, and discharging them as fast as they reach the age of 21, unless they should be in military service. General Crowder said that in the future, operations for the new drafting would be held under new classifications.

WOULD RELINQUISH RAILROAD CONTROL

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.—The senate commerce committee has voted to amend the railroad bill to provide that the government shall relinquish control within a year after the close of the war.

New Electrical Firm To Start

Sloan & Callen is the name of the new electrical firm which will be opened for business in this city next Friday morning, February 1st. This new enterprise is to be located at 120 South Sixth street. The proprietors will handle all kinds of electrical supplies, lamp globes, fixtures, etc. The firm will be prepared to furnish estimates on all wiring for buildings, and to do contract work. Robert Sloan is a practical electrician, well known in Klamath Falls.

He has had twelve years experience as an employe of the California-Oregon Power company, and is believed to thoroughly understand the local field. Glenn Callen, now chief clerk of the local exemption board here, is also an experienced electrician, having been identified with the Bell Electrical company in Placer County, California, for a number of years. He will remain with the exemption board in his present capacity until the rush of work is over.