ALMOST LOSER ARM

Has anybody noticed J. V. Houston's right arm recently. It looks limp and tired. We tackled him this morning, and found out all about it. It seems that in making new service arrangements for the spring and summer seasons he has had to sign several hundred contracts with the film companies. The Paramount-Arcraft star contracts required exactly 136 signatures, and they wouldn't let him use his rubber stamp, either. Altho J. V. is carrying that right arm around rather gingerly, it hasn't had any effect upon his chief topic of conversation—Paramount-Arcraft star attractions, which he is going to show at the Star theater soon.

THE LIMIT

(By Bertom Braley)

It was when the war was over and the nations in accord, That Great Lucifer petitioned for a hearing from the Lord. When his poignant plea was granted, and he came to heaven's bar He arose and spoke as follows: "Lord, I've never kicked so far At the people that you sent me, I have welcomed one and all, I have made a place for sinners and transgressors great and small, I have given each his brimstone and his home-like private spit, I've been mighty democratic, and I'm rather proud of it. But I understand you're planning to send Wilhelm down to hell, And I wish to give you notice, here and now, that I rebel. Oh, I stood for Mr. Nero and Caligula and such, Tho the other spirits muttered and protested pretty much, But I have some pride in Hades, and I've got to draw the line When you want to send this kaiser to that fiery realm of mine. There'd be hell to pay for certain, and my people down below— If I let him even enter—would effect my overthrow." Then the Lord spake unto Satan: "Monarch of the deepest hell, It were much too light a torture were that emperor to dwell In the depths of thy inferno; I should never be content With mere seething fire and brimstone for the kaiser's punishment. Nay I've planned a juster sentence, he shall wander to and fro Over all the earth he ravished, he shall see and he shall know All the monstrous things accomplished, by his order in MY name. He shall taste his victims' anguish, searing like a living flame; Spirits of the babes he murdered, souls of women and of men Shall be called to haunt and mock him; he shall never rest again. He shall feel the hell created by his vanity and hate, And this agony and torture never, never shall abate." Satan bowed in true submission. "Lord," he answered, "Thou art just. It were far too light a penance were 'the kaiser to be thrust Into any part of Hades, for my deepest, hottest sheaf Would be like a bit of Heaven to the Hell he made himself."

Stockmen Respond To Nations Call

WASHINGTON D. C., Feb. 4.—America's horse and livestock raisers have responded to the war call for increased production, according to reports of the agricultural department. Hundreds of thousands more horses and mules, cattle, sheep and swine have been produced during 1917 than in the year previous, and in the face of this increased production values of these animals have risen tremendously, the increase in the value of all animals being $1,527,912,000, or 22.7 per cent over that of 1916. Numerically, horses have increased since January 1, 1917, 353,000; mules, 101,000; milch cows, 390,000; other cattle, 1,857,000; sheep, 1,284,000; swine, 3,871,000. Aggregate values have increased during the year as follows: Horses, $66,319,000; mules, $63,058,000; milch cows, $278,388,000; other cattle, $382,431,000; sheep, $328,328,000; swine, $599,378,000. Value increases per head were: Horses, $10.20; mules, $10.59; milch cows, $10.96; other cattle, $4.36; sheep, $4.68; swine $7.76. Total value of all animals on January 1 was $8,363,524,000, against $7,735,612,000, showing an increase of $1,527,912,000, or 22.7 per cent.

Germans Have Begun Cry For Republic

(Summary by Associated Press) Agitation for a republic in Germany has begun. One of the leaflets distributed there among the strikers calls upon them to rise en masse and form a republic.

A separate peace is denounced, and the government is declared to be insincere in its protestations that it wants peace. Efforts of the military to suppress the strike have not been wholly successful.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—One of the leaflets which were circulated in Berlin and helped to cause the strike in Germany has been obtained by the Amsterdam correspondent of the Daily Express.

The leaflet calls the government's expressed desire for peace only a mask, and declares that the only way to end the misery and the wholesale massacre is to overthrow the present government and establish a republic. The leaflet says further:

BOAT HAUNTED WITH "SPIRITS FRUMENTI" steamer Brooklyn, when he pleaded guilty to bootlegging.

MARSHFIELD, Feb. 4.—A raid on the steamer Lindauer, from San Francisco, soon after her arrival here, disclosed six sacks of whiskey hidden in the sacks of bunker coal. The steward was arrested and other members of the crew subpoenaed. The bottles had been sewed in burlap casings and the casings then placed in gunny sacks.

A fine of $500 and a jail sentence of five months were imposed on M. T. Barker, second engineer on the

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins, and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember, inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.—Adv.
