OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty. Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffing, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like a giant. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable. Relief is sure.—Adv.

MT. LAKE LOCALS

Messrs. West and Lester have gone to Portland with three carloads of cattle.

The Mt. Lake school has formed a Junior Red Cross Society. Members plan to spend a part of every other Friday doing Red Cross work under the direction of Mrs. Eastwood and Mrs. Hannon. At a meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association Friday it was decided that the money made at the Red Cross entertainment be equally divided between the Junior Red Cross and the Mt. Lake Women's Red Cross.

The Red Cross meeting last Wednesday was held at the home of Mrs. Austin White. Those attending were Mrs. Dow, Miss West, Mrs. Case, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Lester, Mrs. Koonitz, Mrs. Brookfield, Mrs. Grizzle, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. White, Mrs. Hedgepeth, Mrs. Latta and Mrs. Patterson. Next Wednesday the ladies are invited for an all day session with Mrs. Warren Patterson.

A cooked sale is planned for the benefit of the Red Cross by the Mt. Lake Society. It will be held in Klamath Falls Saturday, February 23d. All sorts of good country cooking will be on sale.

A meeting was held at the church here Monday evening by the potato growers of this section to form a Potato Growers' Association.

Mrs. Dow is spending a few days with Mrs. Lester.

Mrs. West, Mrs. Clyde Griffith, Miss Paye West, Miss Mary West and Mrs. Case spent Monday with Mrs. McComb and Miss Hatch of Tule Lake.

Several from this neighborhood attended the dance at Malin Saturday evening.

Gerald West, Aubra Bradbury and Kenneth Case of the Henley high school have received achievement pins and certificates of membership in the Rainbow Junior Regiment from State School Superintendent Churchill. They are among the first school children in the state to sell $50 worth of the war saving stamps.

PORT KLAMATH FACTS

Great interest has been taken in the Red Cross work at Port Klamath. Over 10 pairs of pajamas and convalescent suits have been completed at the sewing room, in addition to a large number of knitted articles.

Much credit is given Mrs. A. Page, who has charge of the work, for her excellent management and splendid results.

A series of dances and suppers have been given by members of the Red Cross, which have netted the sum of $207.52.

A "General War Relief Fund" has also been started by a contribution of $20 from James Pelton.

A colonial dance at Melrose hall, followed by a supper at the Red Cross room, is planned for February 22.

Those who attended the sewing room last week were Mrs. A. Page, Mrs. J. Smart, Mrs. C. Noah, Mrs. L. Lauritsen, Mrs. R. Moon, Mrs. J. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. W. Dixon, Mrs. E. McKeever, Mrs. R. Hickman.

Fine Pictures Shown

With both Robert Warwick and Gail Kane as the stars, and with a brilliant supporting company, "The False Friend" will be the attraction at the Orpheus tonight.

The story told in this drama deals with the remarkable villainy by which a wealthy young man wins a beautiful young girl for himself and wrecks the life of his rival, a rising young attorney. The method by which the villain achieves his end is absolutely startling. It is something new in films, and it will make a deep impression on all who see this picture. Needless to say, Robert Warwick handles his part with skill and assurance. Gail Kane is not only beautiful, but is seen in a role in which she shines. "The False Friend" is truly a notable production that should not be missed.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

DARKENS BEAUTIFULLY AND RESTORES ITS NATURAL COLOR AND LUSTRE AT ONCE

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the

The Food Administration does not ask you to stop frying foods—only to use vegetable oils in the place of butter, lard and suet.

IF the housewife had been asked to reduce the use of these products a few years ago we would have been forced to give up many of the delicious sautéed and fried dishes for which America is famous.

Today high prices of animal fats and the necessity for conservation do not worry the housewife—because she knows that she has Mazola, the pure oil from American corn, to depend on—in deep frying, sautéing and shortening.

In Mazola she has found the ideal cooking medium—it reaches cooking heat long before it smokes.

Mazola can be used over and over again as it does not transmit taste or odor from one food to another, even in the case of fish or onions—a great force for economy.

Also it makes exceptionally delicious salad dressings—there is no need to fear the rising prices or uncertain supply of olive oil.

Mazola is sold in pint, quart, half-gallon and gallon tins (the large sizes are most economical). Get a can from your grocer and ask him for a copy of the free Mazola Book of Recipes—or write us direct.

Write money refunded if Mazola does not give entire satisfaction.

ready to use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it is done so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes dark, glossy, soft, and luxuriant, and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.
