Bids for Wood

Sealed bids, accompanied by a certified check for 5 per cent of the bid, will be received by the school board of District No. 1, up to Monday, March 4, 1919, for the following: Fifty to one hundred cords of body wood, delivered to Riverside school, Klamath Falls.

Fifty to one hundred and fifteen cords of body wood, delivered part to Central and part to Mills schools. All body wood to be four-foot, cut from live trees, to be tiered and measured on grounds. All wood to be delivered by September 1, 1919.

Address all bids to Ida B. Momyer, clerk, writing across the face of the envelope. "Bids for Wood." The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. 25-24.

American Starting Out to Photograph Enemy Lines

The man in the back of the aeroplane body is an American photographer with his camera, starting on a trip over the German lines to photograph them for use of American soldiers holding down a sector of the western front. Americans are regularly flying over the enemy lines.

Bly Women Are Busy At Red Cross Work

BLY, Feb. 25.—Fifteen suits of pajamas and two afghans have just been completed by the ladies of the Red Cross Society here, and are being sent to headquarters at Klamath Falls. Much of the work is being done at the sewing rooms, and those who are unable to attend here are working in their homes.

MILLER HILL RALLY PROVES BIG OCCASION

MANY TURN OUT TO RURAL MEETING IN SPITE OF BAD STORM—PROGRAM BY CHILDREN GETS MUCH FAVORABLE COMMENT

In spite of the big storm Saturday night a good crowd gathered at the Miller Hill school house to hear the fine program and talks at the patriotic rally there.

Those who attended from Klamath Falls declare that there was one of the greatest demonstrations of real patriotism so far evidenced in this vicinity, and that the pupils and instructor, F. W. Sexton, deserve a great deal of credit for the unusually fine program that was rendered.

After the program by the school was concluded, talks were made on the various patriotic moves by Chas. Ferguson, R. H. Dunbar, W. A. Deisell and Miss Edna Wells. Appetizing refreshments were served before the gathering dispersed.

Hose of Luxite

The Man-Spun Silk

If it pleases you to pay a double price for your hose, continue to buy the product of the silk worm. But if practically all of natural silk's luxury at half its cost will satisfy you, buy Hose of Luxite. Luxite is spun by man in a large way, about as the worm spins silk in a small way, cutting the cost of the worm's work in two. It has the lustrous sheen of worm-spun silk, clinging softness and delightful daintiness.

We sell Hose of Luxite because it is our policy always to offer our trade the best values obtainable. Hose of Luxite comes in every fashionable shade.

A Good Buy Right Now...

An Upp diamond is a good buy at this time, because it is a stone of fine color and quality which will increase in value. Why? Because the London Syndicate periodically advances prices; cost of mining increases yearly. Fine stones become scarcer and demand greater; there is no likelihood of rich new mines ever being discovered, and marketable diamonds cannot be manufactured. Fine selection at $10 to $300.
