German Press Endorses Attitude of Wilson

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 1.—The committee on public information makes public as follows cabled translations of editorial comment on the president's latest message to congress from two of the largest newspapers in South Germany.

(Muenchner Neuste Nachrichten) The president's speech shows a clear desire to continue the public discussion between Washington and the central powers. The tone is even milder than the January speech, which shows great progress over his former messages.

The message justified the recent articles in this newspaper written by Germans familiar with the American situation, who painted a picture of Wilson other than that of our shallow daily newspapers and comics—not a bribed agent of Wall street and champion of trust imperialism, grasping rapaciously for world supremacy, but a pacifist of extreme puritanic fanaticism determined to use every effort to win the victory for his ideals of right and justice.

In this doctrinarism lies, perhaps, Wilson's moral greatness and suggestive strength for Americans. German statesmen will do well to realize that if Germany comes to no modus vivendi with the Wilson mentality it will find in America its most tenacious and wealthy opponent with inexhaustible resources.

It is important to observe how greatly Wilson differs in tone and substance from the declarations of other entente statesmen. Today it is easily understood why America is not politically represented at Versailles. It is because Wilson's present policy is not the policy of Lloyd George and Clemenceau.

Wilson is mistaken in assuming existing differences between the military party and the German people, but his mistake is conceivable in consideration of the recent unprincipled machinations of a certain German party which hysterically cried for a military coup d'etat. It is hoped that the reichstag, in close cooperation with the government, will immediately convince Wilson of error.

It should not be difficult for Hertling and Czernin, by defining more closely their former declarations, to come to an agreement in principle with Wilson. But the latter should also see the justice of applying this beautiful principle to the allies.

Altogether, Wilson shows himself as the only opponent with whom discussion is possible. Therefore it is the duty of German statesmen to secure the greatest possible benefit from this discussion.

If agreement with America can succeed before its war machine assumes irresistible momentum, the whole entente will be unhinged.

(Muenchner Post) Wilson's reply to Hertling and Czernin shows the strong desire for a general peace. It is even more emphatic in this regard than the January message, which this paper warmly supported. It must be admitted that the president is entirely right in many points of his polemic against Hertling. The latter spoke, but formulated no positive program.

The president places himself on the basis of the reichstag resolution of July, and thus a general peace and reconciliation becomes possible. This newspaper expects the chancellor to build now a binding bridge to America. Prof. Bonn recently, and properly, declared that the possibility of a general peace depends on Germany's attitude toward the American peace principles. The decision will not be difficult for the German government if it still holds to the spirit of the July resolution, and it must then subscribe to Wilson's developed general principles for a general and just peace.

Food Police Force Started In South

LOS ANGELES, March 1.—A "Food Police Force" to serve without pay, and to watch for, guard against and report violations of regulations for the use of food laid down by the state food commissioner and his subordinates, has been organized here and operated daily.

The new force, which is the idea of Louis M. Cole, city food administrator, is headed by a general committee of twelve men, who will be directly responsible to Mr. Cole for the enforcement of all federal regulations regarding food. Each of the twelve men has in turn selected a subcommittee of ten, and these men have certain sections of the city assigned to them for inspection.

The sub-committee men will be required to see that all food dealers in their respective sections are kept posted on the rules and given prompt notice of any changes. They will also be expected to watch for violations, and report them to their committee heads for correction.

A fair price board is also in process of organization here. Women, representing consumers in the households, will have a share in its membership and a voice in its findings.

At the Theaters

Julian Eltinge, the well known professional woman imitator, can boast a popularity far greater than might be expected from the fact that he has never appeared in any except large cities and towns. That is, he is a "big timer," as they put it in the theater.

When your head aches you simply must have relief or you will go wild. It's needless to suffer when you can take a remedy like Dr. James' Headache Powders and relieve the pain and neuralgia at once. DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breat Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of this Hamburg tea put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour thru a sieve and drink a teaspoonful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Adv.

DRINK A GLASS OF REAL HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST. Says we will both look and feel clean, sweet and fresh and avoid illness.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, stomach, liver and bowels the previous sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying hot water and limestone phosphate on your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.
