Klamath County News

LORELLA LOCALS

Farmers here are plowing and sowing grain. The cold weather this winter has interfered very little with steady plowing.

"Buster" Thompson, 10-year-old son of Fred Thompson, was thrown from his horse last Thursday and suffered a slight fracture of his skull. He is reported to be improving, but it will be some time before he is over the effects of the accident.

The Women's Club met with Mrs. Conley here for an all day session last Thursday. The ladies spent the day making a quilt which will be donated to the Red Cross and sold in a raffle.

The women of Langell Valley are forming a Red Cross Society auxiliary to the one in Klamath Falls. Mrs. W. D. Campbell has been elected chairman pending the formal organization of the society. The ladies will meet Wednesday afternoons at the home of Mrs. Bessie Campbell to sew.

EACH U. S. BOY IN THE TRENCHES HAS R. C. KIT

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.—Every American woman who has helped to pack a Red Cross comfort kit for our boys "over there" will be interested in a cablegram received at the national headquarters of the American Red Cross from Major Jas. H. Perkins, American Red Cross commissioner to Europe. It is as follows:

"Every American soldier now entering the trenches carries an American Red Cross comfort kit containing towel, shirt, writing paper, pencil, soap, handkerchief, socks, mirror and tobacco. The number of kits can not be stated, but the fact that every soldier has one means that the work done by American women is a big comfort to the soldiers now on the firing line. This fact should be a solace to the American women who have made them as well as to the soldiers. More kits wanted with socks and tobacco."

Splendid Courage Shown By Surgeons at Front

PARIS, March 8.—An eye witness of the events has supplied the Associated Press with the following story of the devoted courage shown by two Belgian army doctors:

German shells had just demolished a dug-out near Caeskerke (facing Dixmude), and a block of concrete had fallen on a Belgian soldier, crushing both his legs. It was impossible to remove the block, so that the only hope of saving the man's life was to operate on the spot.

A surgeon was summoned by telephone, and Dr. Tits hurried to the scene, accompanied by an army nurse.

The regimental doctor, Bastin, with an orderly, followed. The two doctors hurried thru the communication trenches under a heavy bombardment. A fragment from an aerial torpedo struck Dr. Bastin, killing him instantly. Dr. Tits could only assure himself that he could do nothing for his companion, and hurried on. Under incessant shell fire, he amputated both legs of the soldier, and saw him carried thru the communication trenches, still under shell fire, to the rear, where there is every reason to hope that his life will be saved.

Athletics Encouraged At American Lake Camp

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma March 8.—Athletic training of the soldiers at Camp Lewis, providing healthy recreation and physical development of some sort for every man at camp, is one of the big features of military training. The work here is being directed by Captain T. G. Cook, camp athletic director, and a corps of assistants in whose number are some of the best known athletes in the sporting world.

Every recognized branch of athletics is embraced in the field covered by Captain Cook, and every man is able to find some particular branch of athletics for which he is fitted and in which he can find enjoyment and recreation.

Last fall there were between fifty and sixty football teams, fully equipped, and kept in the pink of condition by frequent scrimmages. In the 361st and 62nd infantry there were thirty teams alone, fifteen in each regiment. There was a sixteen-team regimental league in which eight games were played every Wednesday and Sunday. The 316 Sanitary Trains won the championship and trophy which went with it. There are fourteen complete gridirons at camp, and the games were played simultaneously. The 91st division team, composed of the pick of the regimental teams, met outside aggregations, and there was always keen interest.

GREASEWOOD FOUND TO BE VALUABLE

BURN COMMON IN THIS SECTION DECLARED BY A MILITARY CHEMIST TO CONTAIN MEDICAL PROPERTIES

JUAREZ, Mex., March 8.—Greasewood, which grows wild on the deserts of northern Mexico, has been found to contain properties which make it valuable as a war-time drug, according to Major Gomez Tagle, of the Juarez garrison, who is an expert chemist. Major Tagle has been conducting a series of experiments with the greasewood and says he has discovered a substitute for iodoforn which is contained in the plant. It is especially valuable in medicine for treating wounds. A liniment for the relief of rheumatic pains has also been obtained from the desert plant according to the military chemist.

With Fingers! Corns Lift Off

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift any corn or callus right off. Try It!

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug frezone, recently discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of frezone. Apply a few drops on a tender, aching corn or callus and instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it off with the fingers.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying frezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet, shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical.

Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.—Adv.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

EAT LESS MEAT IF YOU FEEL BACKACHE OR HAVE BLADDER TROUBLE

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.
