WORK OF RED CROSS HERE IS PRAISED

KNITTED GOODS SENT FROM HERE BRINGS LETTER OF COMMENDATION FROM HEADQUARTERS. SUGGESTIONS ARE INCLUDED FOR SHIPPING.

A letter of commendation on the knitted work sent in by the Klamath Red Cross workers has just been received by the ladies in charge of the local work rooms. The sweaters were given especial praise and other features were remarked upon. As there were a number of suggestions made which would be of interest to the many workers in Klamath Falls and Klamath County the letter is quoted in full below.

"We are in receipt of several reports from the knitting inspector at the Red Cross Bureau of Supplies in regard to the knitting sent in by your Chapter. The sweaters were reported as uniformly good, some being even described as beautiful. The socks seemed to vary in the different shipments although the average was very good. In some cases yarn had been used which was almost too heavy for socks at least without considerable change in needles and number of stitches. We are glad to note that many are trying the Kitchener toe and hope that all may soon be successful with this very desirable finish.

"It is a great assistance to us at the warehouse if all articles are securely tied in bunches of five, one color to a bunch and a list included in each box.

"Thanking you for your cooperation, we remain,

Yours very truly,
MRS. JOHN H. POPWELL,
Superintendent Miscellaneous Dept.

At the Theaters

As vast in the scope of scenery offered at Triangle's latest drama, "The Medicine Man," in which Roy Stewart is featured at the Star Theatre tonight.

The story is woven around a Western mining town and on the Hartville ranch lying in the heart of the Santa Monica mountains and embracing eighteen hundred acres. Director CHS Smith found almost everything needed, in the way of atmosphere from the mining camp itself to the adobe residence of the priest, where the villain sought to force a marriage between himself and the beautiful young heiress.

New Liberty Loan Posters Distributed

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—Posters proclaiming the Third Liberty Loan in striking phrases and colorful designs—nine million of them in more than a dozen styles—now are being distributed to every city and hamlet of the United States. They are the silent sales agents of the bonds, and their preparation has taken months of planning and careful choosing. Hardly had the Second Liberty Loan campaign closed before the country's foremost artists and designers were invited to go to work on posters for the Third loan. The result is a collection of striking posters, considered artistically and psychologically better than any yet attempted in the two previous loan drives. Soon they will be familiar sights in store windows, on bill boards, and all public places. In addition, five million window stickers, 50,000,000 poster stamps, and 16,000,000 badges have been ordered and will be ready for the opening day of the campaign. Some of the designers of the Liberty Loan posters are Howard Chandler Christy, Joseph Pennell, J. C. Leyendecker, Sydney Rosenberg, Herbert Paul, Henry Raleigh and Sydney S. Stern. All contributed their work without pay, and scores of other artists submitted designs which were reluctantly rejected.

Nurses in Hospitals Use Masks Like Those Used in Trenches

Nurses of the Memorial Institute, Chicago, have been supplied with masks for their faces when they handle cases of infectious diseases. Dr. George H. Weaver says there have been few cases of nurses contracting disease since these masks have been used. The mask is made of a double thickness of gauze covering the face from the chin to the eyes.

to a speedy close, as I can not help but feel that Germany will not be able to carry the war thru another winter. I also am quite sure that the drive that they now have in contemplation and which no doubt will start before this letter reaches you, is doomed to failure. I can not conceive them being able to undertake another great offensive and I think that they are staking their all on the next drive. It unquestionably will be an awful battle and will probably require the sacrifice of thousands of good American lives, as you know that we now have a large number of men in the front line trenches. I am enclosing a clipping from one of the papers published here, showing the
