WILSON WANTS CHILDRENS' WAR GARDENS RAISED

HOPE EXPRESSED IN LETTER TO SECRETARY LANE THAT WAR GARDEN ARMY WILL BE RAISED IN SCHOOLS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15.—President Wilson has written Secretary Lane, of the Interior Department, expressing the hope that "every school will have a regiment in the volunteer war-garden army" the army of school children that, it is hoped, may raise this year produce amounting to $500,000,000.

"Every boy and girl who really sees what the home garden may mean," writes the President, "will, I am sure, enter into the purpose with high spirits, because I am sure they would all like to feel that they are in fact fighting in France by joining the home-garden army."

In his letter, which follows, the President approves the design of Secretary Lane to arouse "the school children of the United States to an real and patriotic an effort as the building of ships or the firing of a cannon."

Big Treasure Carried Under Difficulties

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Details of the shipment of $500,000 in gold bullion, weighing 2,500 pounds, through tremendous snow barriers from Iditarod, Alaska, to Seattle, a distance of 1045 miles, have been made known by the Alaska Commercial Company officials here.

The shipment was started Dec. 5, 1917, from the Riley placer holdings in the Iditarod district. Dog teams took it to Tacoma, and regular horse drawn stages to Fairbanks and Chitna. It was then loaded on the Copper River Railroad for the seacoast, 131 miles distant.

At Parson's and Yost's stations between Iditarod and Tanana, there was one snowfall of thirty-six inches in twenty-four hours. Because of this it took the dogs twenty-four hours to make twelve miles one day and fifteen hours to make a sixteen miles run the next day. During the battle with the storm R. D. Menzie, who had charge of the shipment, dislocated his shoulder while aiding in shifting the load. He was forced to ride for three and a half hours before he could obtain relief.

While it was being taken on the horse drawn stages the bullion had to be cached in the snow and left alone several times while the drivers went to distant road houses for fresh horses. The shipment reached Seattle February 2, 1918.

The stage between Chitna and Fairbanks, a distance of 310 miles, is drawn by four horses. A single horse stage line operates between Fairbanks and Tanana, a distance of 161 miles.

MILLS ADDITION RESIDENT DIES THIS MORNING

FAMNES JUST AFTER RETURN FROM ARIZONA IN QUEST OF HEALTH. LEAVES WIDOW AND EIGHT CHILDREN. DEATH DUE TO DROPSY.

The death of Wm. Ernest Moore who resided at 144 Vine Street, Mills Addition occurred here this morning brought on by dropsical troubles.

Mr. Moore had just returned from Arizona where he had been with his wife in the hope of benefitting his health. The Moore family came here from Fresno, California, last August. The deceased was fifty-one years of age. There are eight children, four of which are now here. Two boys live in Sacramento and the funeral arrangements will not be announced until they can be heard from.

"WAR CHEST" IN OPERATION IN GRASS VALLEY, CALIF.

GRASS VALLEY, Calif., March 9. A "war chest" has been placed in operation here by an organization called the Grass Valley War Chest Association. Its plans call for the raising and disbursing of approximately $20,000 annually as long as the war lasts in monthly installments of $1,666. The source of revenue is confined entirely to the monthly donation pledges of its members.

The Association was formed to eliminate the waste of effort incident to the drives and appeals for each separate demand, to meet which house to house canvasses, benefits and other expedients are usually resorted to. Under the rules of the Association the quota officially asked for will be taken from the treasury and the incident closed.

BIG RUSH TO JOIN MARSHFIELD HOME GUARD

MARSHFIELD, Or., March 15.—More men than can be received have applied for admission to the Marshfield home guard company, of which Captain Fred Fletcher has command. Only eighty-one can be properly drilled and accommodated, but 105 are on the roll and in good standing.

To meet this situation, Captain Fletcher is making out a waiting list from which vacancies in the company of eighty-one will be filled. Only men able to serve under all conditions will be named for regulars in the outfit.

Seventeen members have signed the roll within three days.

REMEMBER ME

Solled muddy shoes? That's where you lose. Appearances will tell. Here in this chair I'll put a glare upon them something awful. I'll also fix those "yellow kicks," and make them black as night. No acids used, no shoes abused—with black I'll treat you white. Each pair I shine is right in line with patent leathers, pard, selected stock that none can "knock," so get wise to this card.

At the Theaters

Mme. De Berry had been sent to Bob-Cat Gulch, a Western mining town, as agent of Bragdon Brant. She was famed as the cleverest business adventuress in all New York, the woman in whose hands the wolves of Wall Street were mere puppets.

The Bob-Cat mine was a rich prospect, and Brant was determined to gain control of the stock and its spur track railroad. To do this it was necessary to purchase the stock held by Bob Spalding, discoverer of the mine, and his partner and bosom friend, Leonard Durant.

He felt confident that Spalding would be mere putty in the hands of this beautiful and brainy woman, and so Mme. De Berry was in Bob-Cat Gulch. How she met Spalding and succeeded in getting control of the stock are the thrilling episodes of the Triangle play, "Fuel of Life," at the Star Theatre tonight.
