Foch Is Man of Wide Experience

By Associated Press

General Ferdinand Foch, the new commander-in-chief of all the allied armies in France, is of Basque origin. He was born at Tarbee in 1851, but was raised at Metz. Rather than become a German after the annexation of Lorraine, Foch preferred to return to France and help to prepare France for the struggle he believed ultimately would take place. He entered the polytechnic school with the number 72. He left it the 45th in his class—a rank that was not considered at justifying hopes of a great future. He never dazzled by his brilliance, but he showed what wonders could be accomplished by application. He never ceased to study, except to teach.

The stars of a general were given Foch in 1907, and the command of the Superior War school, where he left his mark as a professor. Preferring a more active command, he resigned in 1912 and commanded successively the Eighth and Twentieth army corps, and proved that he was one of the few military writers or professors who was also an efficient handler of men in the field.

The war found Foch at Nancy, the headquarters of the Twentieth Corps. His corps was attached to General Castelnau's army, and he was selected to command a new army concentrating behind the center of the forces marching to the Belgian frontier to meet the Germans.

This army was not ready in time to take part in the battle of Charleroi, but it contributed singularly to the victory of the Marne. Foch's 120,000 men holding the center in that struggle. Before them were nearly 200,000 Germans, including the Prussian Guard, and at times the pressure was so great that it seemed the thin line must break.

"They are so frantic in their attacks," said Foch, "it must be that things are going badly with them elsewhere, so let's hold on."

At another stage of the struggle sides came up with the disquieting

VOICE OF MAYOR'S DAUGHTER PRAISED IN LOS ANGELES

Mrs. Vera Berryhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Crisler of this city, receives praise in a late issue of the Los Angeles Examiner, for her work along musical lines. Mrs. Berryhill, who is a pupil of Theophilus Fitz, sang at a recent recital in Los Angeles.

The Examiner, in speaking of Mrs. Berryhill, says:

"Mrs. Vera Berryhill, who possesses a voice of unusual emotional coloring, sang the famous 'Waltz Song' from the comic opera 'Tom Jones,' with splendid effect. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Crisler of Klamath Falls, Oregon, who have been spending the winter months in the South. Mr. Crisler is the mayor and one of the successful business men of Klamath Falls."

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

WHEN MIXED WITH SULPHUR TO BRING BACK ITS BEAUTIFUL LUSTRE AT ONCE

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv news that both the right and left wings had been obliged to give ground.

"In that case," said Foch, "there's nothing to do but smash them in the center. Order up the Moors."

General Dubois, with the Moors on his left, smashed the Germans so hard in the center that the Prussian Guard was thrown back upon and into the Saint Gond marshes. Von Hausen's right wing was obliged to retire in unison, and Foch was able to re-establish his line.

After the Moroccan riflemen, by three furious charges, had captured the chateau of Mondement, report by the aviators showed that in their retirement had left a gap between their wing and von Hausen's right. It was promptly profiting from this situation, in massing his troops against von Hausen's exposed flank, that Foch disengaged General Langle De Cary's troops on his right, and contributed largely to the defeat of the German army.

reported from the ways and means committee, which framed it in accord with recommendations of Secretary McAdoo. It now goes to the senate, which is expected to pass it some time today.

The only action of the bill to which there was serious objection was the one providing that in determining the value of the shares of national or state banks for taxation by state or local authorities, the value of government bonds be deducted. It finally was amended to apply only to bonds issued during the war.

A motion by Representative Dominic of South Carolina to have the section eliminated, was voted down.

The general plan of raising huge sums by bond issues without increasing taxation was attacked by Representatives Keating of Colorado and Huddleston of Alabama, democrats, and Green of Iowa, republican. Answering these arguments, Majority Leader Kitcher said he believed taxes should be increased 20 per cent, and probably would be, but "possibly" not at this session of congress.

The bill as passed gives Secretary McAdoo authority to issue $8,000,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness, to issue $4,500,000,000 more of Liberty Bonds, in addition to the $3,668,000,000 now authorized but unissued, fixes the interest rate on the third bond issue at 4 1/2 per cent, and authorizes the loan of an additional $1,050,000,000 to the allies.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

TAKE A TABLESPOONFUL OF SALTS IF BACK HURTS OR BLADDER IRRITATED

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning, and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST

Says you really feel clean, and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to waking with a coated tongue, feel breath of a dull, dizzy headache; or, if your meals sour and turn into gas and acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

Tomorrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of Ely's phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize and then wash out your stomach, liver, kidneys and the rest of your intestines all the bad and vile waste, poisons, sour bile and acids, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract.

Those subject to sick, headache, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble, are urged to get a quarter pound of Ely's phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning and side bath. It is said that many women who try this become constipated and keep it up daily. It is important to keep clean and pure of the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing disease while the bowel pores do.

The principle of bathing has not new, as millions of people know it. Just as hot water and soap clean and purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspoonful of Ely's phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Ely's phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.—Adv.
