STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffing, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what suffers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.—Adv.

Clever Tricks Used To Trap The Slackers

DETROIT, April 2.—Altho a majority of slackers in Michigan have sought to evade military service by submitting sad stories of physical ailments or helpless dependents, more than a few classical excuses have been heard by local boards and medical examiners.

"I have pricked a good many hot air balloons since the draft law became effective," said one investigator, "and I expect to puncture a good many more. Usually the draft evader who thinks he is clever is pitifully clumsy, and often falls into the most simple sort of a trap." The following little system caught more than one would-be evader:

A youth alleging defective hearing was taken into an examining room. "My hearing is pretty bad," he told the medical officer.

"That so? Let's see," said the doctor, as he stepped close to the young man.

"Put your hand over your right ear," said the doctor, loudly.

The youth did so.

"Can you hear this?" asked the physician, in a low voice.

No response.

"Can you hear me now?" This was spoken in an ordinary tone.

No response.

"Now put your hand over your left ear," said the doctor in a very faint voice.

The order was promptly obeyed; the candidate "saw the light," and meekly submitted to the rest of the examination.

A sweet young woman, employed in one of the Detroit draft board offices, caught several slackers who were clever enough to foil the medical examiners. One instance, which was reported by a member of the local board, concerned a young man who insisted he was deaf, and who evaded the tests and tricks of the examiners. As he left the medical room the smile which the demure miss flashed at him caused him to forget war and home and country.

"Were you accepted?" the young woman asked in a very low tone.

"Now; they turned me down, and, gee, I wanted to—"

"Don't worry, my friend, we made a little mistake, and you're accepted," said a drawing voice behind the slacker.

The youth whirled and faced the medical officer. He blushed and stammered, but finally began to grin.

"That's number six for me," said the girl in the case.

WOUNDED GERMANS SENT TO BELGIUM TO CONCEAL LOSSES

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—The French official statement estimates the German losses to be between 75,000 and 300,000. The Germans are sending their wounded to Belgium so as to conceal the losses from the German people.

LEMONS WHITEN THE COMPLEXION

ANY WOMAN CAN MAKE UP THIS CREAMY LOTION FOR A FEW CENTS

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice thru a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach a darkened skin and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

YOU CAN BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE WITH SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite, and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.
