At the Theaters

Artcraft's release of the latest Douglas Fairbanks' production, "A Modern Musketeer," marks the reunion of Allan Dwan as a director with the famous star. Dwan formerly directed Fairbanks when both were with another company. "A Modern Musketeer" tells the story of Ned Thacker, who has the spirit of D'Artagnan, and whose chivalry is not understood by the present generation. Like the Dumas hero, he manages to get into innumerable scrapes, some humorous and others sensational. It will be shown at the Star tonight.

Some exquisite dancing is shown in one of the scenes in "That Sort," an Essanay five-act feature play, at the Temple tonight. This scene represents a play on the stage. The best dancers of "Chin-Chin," playing in a Chicago theater, were engaged for the part. They carry out the action in a way that adds both beauty and realism to the play.

HAS GERMAN MEASLES

Mrs. P. R. Dodge has a slight case of German measles. This variety of measles, in many places, since the outbreak of the war, has been known as Liberty measles.

STORK MAKES VISIT

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchins of 737 Ninth street on Tuesday.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Mahoney of Bonanza yesterday. Dr. George Wright was in attendance in both instances.

INDIANS ARE ARRESTED

LOST RIVER FOR HAVING
BOOZE, AND JOHN STOKES FOR RESISTING POLICE—TRIAL TO BE TOMORROW

John Skellog, an Indian at Lost River, has been found with whiskey and arrested by Assistant Chief Special Officer Flanders and Special Officer Reeb of the Indian service, who have been here for some time, operating in connection with the liquor traffic among Indians. John Stokes was arrested also for resistance to Jim Johnson, the Indian policeman. The Indians were sent to the reservation for confinement.

TELL YOUR WIFE
CORNS LIFT OFF

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift corns or calluses off with fingers

Not a twinge of pain or soreness before applying or afterwards. This may sound like a dream to corn-pestered men and women who have been cutting, filing and wearing torturous plaster. Yes! Corns lift off and calluses peel off as if by magic, says this Cincinnati authority.

A quarter ounce of frezons costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops directly upon your tender corn or callus; and instantly the soreness disappears; then shortly the corn or callus will be so loose that it lifts off.

Frezons dries instantly. It doesn't eat out the corn or callus, but just shrivels it up so it lifts away without even irritating the surrounding skin. Women should keep it on the dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.—Adv.

Grabbing Leather

is a custom much ridiculed by the cow punchers of Klamath County and other portions of the West for many years.

With the soaring prices of this commodity, however, any manner of getting one's hands upon the valued article is now considered good business, and a policy which is recognized as one of economy.

An unusual opportunity of this kind is now afforded at Van Bellen's, where the Men's Lines of Shoes are rapidly being cleared out.
