At the Theaters

One on the most spontaneous and thrilling fights ever seen on the screen takes place in the Paramount production of "Little Miss Optimist," which will be seen at the Star Sunday. The conflict is between Ernest Joy, Charles West and Charles Gerard in a darkened room. Director Thornby secured the effect without any practice—simply telling the men to go ahead and fight, telling each one secretly that his opponent was supposed to be a German spy. That his instructions were enthusiastically followed will be seen by all who witness the production, which abounds in other incidents of interest.

The story of "A Modern Musketeer" has an unusual theme, presenting dashing incidents of romance in which a young man with the spirit of a gallant and adventuresome knight of old has some sensational experiences. In this play Fairbanks performs amazing feats. Many of the scenes were taken in the Grand Canyon of Arizona, and the work of the acrobatic star on lofty peaks, 8,000 feet above sea level, and along the precipitous canyon will thrill any audience. In one of the scenes he climbs up the side of the canyon on a rope, with Miss Marjorie Daw hanging to his neck. Actual views of the famous Grand Canyon give the film an added value.

Everybody knows the story which has been handed down from the earliest English peoples as a heritage of joy to the present day. "Jack and the Beanstalk," which has delighted the hearts of children all over the world, has now been caught before the all-seeing eye of the camera, caged and made ready to present to the world in a tangible, visible form. The master mind of William Fox, film wizard, now presents to you the Fox kiddie wonder picture. Jack, as you all know, sold his mother's cow for a sack of beans. She was angry with him, and she threw the seeds out of the window. Next morning she found that they had sprouted. An enormous beanstalk reached from the ground to the sky. Jack, filled with the spirit of adventure, climbed it, and landed in a country above the clouds, where dwelt an awful giant and a beautiful princess. After many adventures, Jack killed the giant, married the Princess, and all lived happily ever afterward.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Give glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.
If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, shallow, and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gas and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.
To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.
Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.—Adv.
