

Society Events of the Week

Miss Katherine Holloway and Mr. Guy Batterlee were united in marriage at the home of H. N. Moe at 231 Washington street, at 8 o'clock last night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. O. Oliver of the Methodist Episcopal church before a few intimate friends. The color scheme for the evening was pink and white, with a background of green. Pink and white sweet peas decorated the house most gracefully. The fireplace and mantle were hidden in greenery, and on either side were pedestals decorated with sweet peas. In front of this graceful setting the bride and bridesroom plighted their troth. Miss Helen Whitaker played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride was attired in a wedding suit of navy blue and carried a bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served, and the bride and bridesroom left for the White Pelican hotel, where they will make their home for a few days.

Among the important society events of the week was the reception for the past matrons and past patrons, given by the Eastern Star, in their rooms in the Loomis building, Tuesday evening. The patrons and matrons were lined up by the conductress, Miss Lillian Stills, and the associate conductress, Mrs. O. Peyton, and were each presented with a white carnation. A delightful program followed. Little Katherine and Beatrice Walton gave a duet. Readings were given by Miss Burke, Miss Carrier and Mrs. Bratton. Mrs. Henry delighted the crowd with a solo. Mrs. Momyer read some poems written by her daughter, Miss Ida Momyer. More readings were given by Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Peyton and Mrs. Delsell. Solos were given by Mrs. Stills and Mrs. Van Ripper and a piano solo by Mrs. Ulrich. Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. Roy King and Mrs. Lawrence Phelps, attired in garments made of gunny sacking, gave an ingenious stunt. Following the program delicious refreshments were served at the tables which were arranged in cabaret style.

The Faith Circle of Loyal Women met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bowman last Saturday, with Mrs. George Haydon acting as hostess. After a business session a delightful musicale was given by Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Haydon. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. Ray Anderson, Mrs. J. J. Hales, Mrs. A. B. Lund, Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. C. A. Bowman, Mrs. George Haydon, Miss Rachel Applegate, Miss Norma Barber, Miss Marjorie Delsell and Miss Alice Bowman.

In honor of Miss Katherine Holloway, who was married last night, Mrs. J. C. Goble entertained at her home at 126 Third street, Wednesday evening, in keeping with the occasion, the chief diversion was sewing. When the work was laid aside, the guests enjoyed refreshments. Those present were: Miss Katherine Holloway, Miss Waive Jacobs, Miss Agnes Driscoll, Miss Beatrice Thurston, Miss Mabel Mears, Miss Viola Santimau and Mrs. Lilah Henderson.

The Ladies of Maccabees entertained at the Moose hall Friday night, with a benefit dance for the boys in the service. Music was furnished by Mrs. Ora Fitzpatrick and Harry Borel.

A group of ladies are leaving tonight for Odessa for a Red Cross dance and box social, which will be held there. They have chartered a launch, and will leave here today at 4 o'clock, and expect to be back Sunday afternoon. Those who will make the trip are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Delsell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Driscoll, Miss Marjorie Delsell, Miss Norma Barber, Miss Helen Paxon, Miss Agnes Lee, Miss Agnes Driscoll, Miss Louise Vove, Miss Edna Wells, Miss Alice McCourt, Miss Twila Head, Miss Reich, Miss Whitaker, Mrs. Leslie Olds, Mrs. Hazel Powell, Mrs. Barlow, Mrs. Lund, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Will Adams and Mrs. Rose M. Torrey.

The Guild of the Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. A. D. Miller on Thursday afternoon of this week. A pleasant time was spent in chatting and working. Those present were: Mrs. C. M. Ramsby, Mrs. J. H. Garrett, Mrs. Thos. Martin, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Eason and Mrs. Ed Martin.

Mrs. Lawrence gave a party to her Sunday school class yesterday. Class organization was discussed, and the time was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Bertha Felts, Evelyn Whitmore, Lowe Smith, Gertrude Waldron, Beatrice and Katherine Walton.

Bishop Robert Paddock was at home to his many friends in Klamath Falls at the White Pelican hotel last Monday night. Bishop Paddock is planning to leave for France, to do work among the soldiers, before long, and the reception was somewhat in the form of a farewell to him.

The Loyal Brigade of the Presbyterian church entertained the G. G. class at the church last night. The young people played games, after which refreshments were served. About twenty of the members of the two classes enjoyed the occasion.

A Few Facts

be retained in office, the court house now under construction on the old site will be completed, and the question should be settled for all time without the continuation of expense for lawsuits and controversy. On the other hand, should the judge be removed, the county would again be plunged into a suit against the contractors, with very little chance of winning. The people have a chance to settle this bitter fight, and at the same time save themselves about $100,000 in tax money.

OFFICER FROM KLAMATH WEDES PORTLAND GIRL

Wedding cards announcing the marriage of Sergeant Albert D. McCoy to Miss Ellen Cornelia Croft, at Seaside, Ore., on April 6th, have just been received by the former parents' Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy of this city. The date for the event had been set for July, but was changed probably owing to the uncertainty of war conditions. The bride is a Portland girl. Sergeant McCoy, who is well known here, where he was employed for a number of years on the Herald force, is now identified with the Quartermaster's department of the service, and is stationed at Fort Stevens.
