Protecting Ear Drums When Big Guns Shoot at Germans

This photograph was taken the sustant one of the largest guns of the French on the western front fired from its railway carriage at the Germans many miles off. Every soldier nearby held his hands to his ears to protect the ear drums, despite the fact that he already had them stuffed for protection.

Precentage Precincts Subscribed Announced Klamath Liberty

That some of the precincts will have to hustle if they are to score 100 per cent in the Liberty Bond campaign is apparent from an examination of the percentage table. While the county as a whole has passed its quota mark and occupies its place in the honor column of counties, there are Pankey, Willus P. many precincts who have not as yet won their honor flag. Of course the are some reports yet to be entered. The following table shows the percent are of the precincts on April 18th:

The state of the s

All of the logging and lumber companies report unofficially that the are over the top, but their cards and subscriptions have not been checke and entered as yet, so this is the reason that no report is shown. Man are holding their lists until they complete the canvas of their employe and intend to send it in on one report.

Precinct captains are urged to keep after those who have not su scribed in their precincts, for it is the desire to have every precinct in the blue column at the close of the campaign.

Proper credit for placing the county in the forefront belongs to the outside companies who have interests in Klamath County, and who have loyally supported and assisted the county in the campaign. The Klamati Indians have also shown their patriotism and loyalty in a substantial manner, over $49,000.00 being reported as having been substantial by them. full list of these subscriptions with names and amounts will be published as soon as the list is checked and completed.
