Skilled Labor Needed By Nation At Once

PORTLAND, April 22—The United States army must have immediately, for services in France under General Pershing, 12,000 men skilled in special lines of work.

So great is the emergency, declares a message from the War Department, that there is no time to select the men thru the occupational card system recently put into effect, but not as yet completed in all the states.

Two men are needed so greatly and so quickly that the War Department calls for volunteers from among those qualified in Oregon.

They are urged by the War Department to present themselves voluntarily, and at the earliest moment, to their local exemption boards to be listed as available, preparatory to being voluntarily inducted later into the military service.

This call is described by the War Department as being "urgent." With the allied armies engaged in a death grapple in France, the American troops over there must be kept supplied with the skilled men needed in various lines.

"The military duty and training of these skilled men will be interesting, and the men who succeed in securing induction into the branches of the service to be filled, will receive material personal benefits which will aid them in advancement both in their army career and in after life."

Men are needed in sixty-five skilled occupations. Here is the list of occupations from which immediate volunteers are sought:

Airbrake inspectors, angle-iron smiths, auto mechanics and helpers (general, engine, magneto or ignition), bargemen or boatmen, blacksmiths and helpers (both white and colored), boat builders and helpers, boiler makers and helpers, brakemen, flagmen or conductors (railroad), bricklayers (both white and colored).

Buglers (both white and colored), carpenters and helpers for ship, bridge house and general work, joiners or pattern makers (both white and colored), wood calkers, chauffeurs for auto, truck or tractor (both white and colored).

Chemists, railroad or general clerks (both white and colored), cobblers, commissary storekeepers, concrete foreman or workers, cooks (both white and colored), cranesmen, hoistmen, pile drivers or shovel operators.

Cusher operators, engine dispatchers, draftsmen (general, surveying, marine design or topographical), engineers (civil, electrical, railroad or computing), locomotive engineers and firemen, electricians (general, armature winder or wiremen), floor hands (shipward), construction foremen (bridge, building, earthwork, ship or railroad), foremen (gratory or jaw crusher).

Gas plant workers (acetylene, hydrogen, oxygen, poison, illumination or compressor), gunsmiths or operatives in gun factories, locomotive hostlers, railroad car inspectors, locomotive inspectors, instrument makers and repairmen (engineering optical or electrical), telegraph and telephone linemen, machinists and helpers (general, lathe, bench or railroad), general mechanics.

Meteorologists or physicians, mine or quarry workers and helpers, drill runners, foremen, powdermen or pumpmen, motorcyclists, molders, painters, photographers, plumbers or pipe fitters, forest rangers, car repairmen, bridge building or ship riggers, saddlers or harnessmakers, sailmakers, tent makers or other canvas workers, railroad section hands.

Steersmen, sheetiron workers and helpers, solderers or tinsmiths, stenographers, surveyors, levelmen, transitmen (topographic or railroad), tailors, teamsters, telegraph operators, telephone operators and telephone operators who can speak German.

Timber cruisers, wagon makers, acetylene or oxyacetylene welders, wireless operators, yardmasters or switchmen.

PROMINENT STOCKMAN KILLED IN A QUARREL

doe County, Calif., and was 43 years of age at the time of his death. He is survived by a wife and two children, his mother and two brothers, Creede and Fred.

A warm tribute was paid the deceased by Louis Gerber, a fellow stock man, this morning.

"McKendrie was in many respects a remarkable man," he said. "Altho a man who had enjoyed limited educational privileges, he entered the stock business at an early age, and by indomitable energy and ambition, forced his way into the top rank in this line of business. He was the gamest man and the best loser I have met thus far in my experience. He could take the biggest jolt or set-back in a business way, and emerge with a cheerful whistle. In many years contact with him, we had many tilts and business disagreements, but always ended them in the same warm friendship that has characterized our association."

McKendrie ran in the neighborhood of 20,000 head of sheep here, and bought between 40,000 and 50,000 each year for San Francisco firms. It is reported.

Mrs. McKendrie has arrived from San Francisco, and has requested that the funeral services be conducted by the Elks Lodge, the deceased being a member of this order. The funeral will be held at the Elks Temple at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning.

NOTICE

Eastern Star will meet at Masonic hall tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m. to attend the funeral of our late sister, Miss Lillian Stiltz. It is earnestly requested that all members be on hand at this time, as the order will conduct services at the cemetery.

Hebekahs will meet at hall at 2 p. m. tomorrow to attend funeral of Miss Lillian Stiltz in a body. By request of Noble Grand Alfreda Steinmetz.

Funeral of Miss Lillian Stiltz held at Whitlock's undertaking parlors, at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, under the auspices of the Christian Science Society.

First National Bank

The great Liberty Loan drives conducted in the United States during the past months have demonstrated with great emphasis, the vital part of the Nation's life is played by the banking institutions.

Banks are even more important to the individual. By transacting his daily business thru their channels, a person establishes a record of his dealings, which are brought constantly before the eyes of his bankers, which assists to enable him, when the occasion arises, to secure accommodations impossible under other conditions.

Special attention is called to the necessity of prompt deferred payments on Liberty Bonds, due as follows:

- Five per cent with application on or before May 4, 1918.
- Twenty per cent on May 20, 1918.
- Thirty-five per cent on July 10, 1918.
- Forty per cent on August 15, 1918 (with accrued interest from May 5, 1918, on the three deferred installments)
