Utter Chaos Reigns Thruout Russia

NEW YORK, June 5.—The distress, hopelessness and chaos which overwhelmed the well-to-do and official classes in the Russian revolution are vividly portrayed from the standpoint of a Russian woman in a letter received by her former classmate in this country. The writer is a daughter of a Russian diplomat who was connected with the Russian embassy in Washington about twenty years ago, and a widow of an officer in the Russian army who was killed early in the war.

"Russia, crushed by exterior and interior enemies, justly despised and abhorred by the great countries that once trusted her, is ruined and disappearing," she wrote. "My country is ceasing to exist. It was bad enough before the March revolution, when our unhappy, half-witted emperor, under the influence of his German wife, seemed to do everything possible to make the people lose patience. We have a thousand anonymous potentates, the top ones paid by Germany, and the lower ones lured into supporting them by money, money and money."

"The present government has abolished all laws, all courts, the police, land ownership, all private real estate in towns, all distinction of castes and grades in the army and navy. They have seized all the banks, are opening all the private safes and confiscating all gold and silver found therein, the only thing that had been said before that it was criminal to have it."

"Of course, everything they 'decree' is no mad that it is quite sure not to last forever, but the chaos they make will take centuries to forget. The country is going back to a savage state. And we will not live to wait for better times."

"All, Russia is suffocating—every day brings new surprises that show that there is but one way out of it—the grave. On the ground of liberty they abolish all laws, judges, attorneys, and substitute for it 'people's courts of justice,' with only soldiers, workmen or peasants, often quite illiterate and always without the slightest knowledge of court proceedings, taking the places of the former judiciary."

"On the same ground they abolish all police, let loose all the criminals from the prisons, arm them, constituting from their number together with workmen, deserters and hooligans, a 'red guard' and all the prisons to their utmost all those who crave for order, and will not work together with them toward the total ruin of the country."

"On the pretense of equality they abolish all grades in the army and navy, and make all posts elective by the simple soldiers. In most places it is understood as complete extermination, lynching of the officers, who, for being better educated, are under suspicion of being 'counter-revolutionists.' The highest posts are occupied by elected soldiers who very often can hardly sign their names, and the former officers are made simple soldiers with a soldier's pay of $3.50 a month, and ordered to the lowest tasks: cleaning of the barracks, cooking food, taking care of the horses."

NOTICE TO RETAIL DEALERS

After a careful inventory of sugar in this county, and taking into consideration the amounts expected to arrive from Cuba, the food administration finds that only by practicing conservation between now and preserving season shall we be able to carry over the requirements of that season.

It is therefore of the utmost importance that conservation be enforced in all states in order that fruits and vegetables that must be preserved be provided for.

It has therefore been suggested to the food administrators that the prescribed limits on sales to consumers residing in towns and cities be kept at not over five pounds, and to consumers residing in rural communities at not over ten pounds.

All dealers are asked to comply with the foregoing rules.

Owing to the shortage of help here the local men are unusually busy, and it has been a difficult matter to get a committee to solicit funds among the different business houses. It is announced by the men forwarding the movement that there will be no second appeal made for funds, and it is asked that each business man decide what he will do financially to help the matter and announce his decision when the committee calls. The extensiveness of the celebration will be contingent upon the support thus indicated.

It is also announced that all cowboys who will help with the show are to have their board and lodging and feed for their horses, taken care of.

Wilson Now Opposes Prohi Legislation

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—The president in a letter to Senator Sheppard of Texas, declared his opposition to further prohibition legislation until the food administration decides it is necessary to conserve foodstuffs. The house amendment of the appropriation bill would prevent the expenditure of $4,000,000,000 unless the president prevents the use of grain for liquors.

Bird Reserve Hay May Be Put Under Permit

All persons interested should take note that haying on the public lands within the Klamath bird reservation is prohibited, except under permit, and trespassing may result in legal action. Permits may be given under the following conditions, for haying after August 1st of this year. Written application for a permit to cut hay after August 1st must be in the hands of Mr. J. J. Furber, warden of Klamath Lake bird reservation, Klamath Falls, previous to July 1st.

Every effort will be made to secure a just allotment of available privileges to all responsible applicants, preference being given to the needs of nearby residents, whenever such privileges do not interfere with the purposes for which the reservation was established.

Applicants must state the specific location desired for cutting. The right to reject any and all applications is reserved.

Fighting In Europe

Self-preservation as well as patriotism demands that our farmers shall plentifully feed our fighters.

When Germany proclaimed the seas closed to American merchant vessels and entered upon her program of wholesale ocean tonnage destruction, she was aiming a blow directly at the American farmer.

For lack of proper marketing and shipping facilities Australia today has three crops unsold and millions of tons of grain spoiled or destroyed either by weather or rodents.

Upon our success in this war depends not only life and liberty, but livelihood.
