"We Must Strip for Action" Says the Chief of Staff

Maj. Gen. PEYTON C. MARCH

"We must strip for action," said General March, acting chief of the general staff of the United States army. He said this in connection with the recent order that gifts to soldiers should not be received for transportation abroad unless they had been requested. The unsought gifts take up much more space which could be given to munitions of war.

At the Churches

The movement for organic union of all the churches as proposed by the recent General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church at Columbus, Ohio, will be discussed at the morning service. In the evening the subject will be "Jesus Under the Fires of Temptation." The choir will furnish special music. Newcomers with their children are invited to attend the services. SERVICE

It Cuts a Lot of Ice

Nowadays as to where you buy your clothing, for between actual increased cost and the profiteer's tacked on prices, there's quite a difference to a man's purse.

Ice is nothing but frozen water, and we don't propose to water our stock and get your money by the profiteer's "get rich quick" methods.

We are still doing a legitimate Men's Wear business, and we intend to keep right on serving you on a strictly honest basis, just as long as you approve of our methods by giving us your trade. How about some new clothes now?

Errors In Yellow List Corrected By Chairman

The following errors upon the Liberty Loan Yellow List have been checked and corrections made upon the official program:

N. T. Johnson and Robert Egelino, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Egelino are employees of the Modoc Lumber Co. at Chiloquin. Report was made that they had made their subscription through their banks, but no such subscription came through the banks and their names were therefore put on the Yellow List. They had changed their minds about subscribing direct, and had made subscriptions through their company but no such report reached these headquarters. Information has now been received to this effect, of

Mr. Egelino's subscription of $50 and Mr. Johnson's of $100, and they are therefore removed from the Yellow List and placed on the honor roll.

The Modoc Lumber Co. also reports to these headquarters that the following employees have taken bonds through the company, no previous report of which was made to us: Mrs. R. E. Hutchison, $50; Sylvie Hoffer, $50; F. D. Andrews, $50.

R. L. Lane and A. W. Yordy. These employees of the Modoc Lumber Co. have subscribed through their company, and information to this effect has now reached headquarters. Their names are therefore removed from the yellow list and placed upon the honor roll.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

DRUGGIST SAYS LADIES ARE USING RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

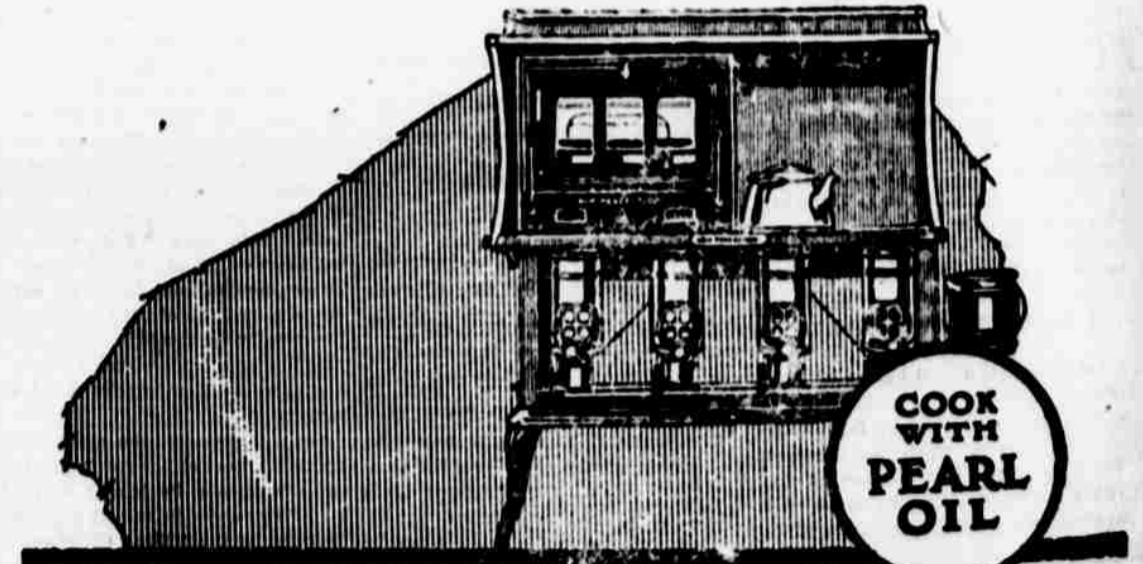

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture, improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advt.

The War Saving Poster That Won $1,000 Prize

"Help Stop This," a War Savings poster by Adolph Treidler, won the first prize of $1,000 in a competition under the New York War Savings Committee and the American Institute of Graphic Arts. No fewer than 2,300 drawings were shown. Treidler's poster shows a great giant German in field gray uniform, dragging his gun through a ruined French village. He carries a knife, red with the gore of his victims and between his feet is the prostrate form of a dead woman. Shells have torn up the ground. In the background is a church, but the figure of the Hun towers over all. The sky is a deep blue.
