

GERMANS COUNTER ATTACK IN VAIN

ALLIES HAVE MADE STEADY GAINS DURING PAST TEN DAYS ACTIONS - SIX THOUSAND PRISONERS TAKEN

COUNTER ATTACKS OF ENEMY LAST NIGHT REPULSED WITH BIG LOSSES - JULY 4 CELEBRATED IN SOUTH AMERICA

By Associated Press Harassing of the German lines in the west shows no signs of letting up. The Allies continue to make gains and to bring in prisoners. During the past ten days the Allies have taken positions which are found to be very useful to them in future offensive moves. Nearly 6000 German prisoners have been taken in the past week. Over 4000 have been taken by Diaz.

London, July 5.—The Germans last night repulsed an attack on the new positions gained by the British east of Amiens yesterday, near the village of Hamel. The enemy was repulsed and left many prisoners in the hands of the British.

Over 1000 prisoners were taken by the British in their action on the Somme, together with 100 machine guns and a large number of trench mortars.

Washington, July 5.—The army casualty list issued today contained 23 names. Five were killed in action and seven died of wounds.

Buenos Ayres, July 5.—The Fourth of July was celebrated throughout South America in an unprecedented manner. The day was declared a national holiday in Peru, Brazil and Paraguay. Other countries also celebrated.

MANY FINE FLOATS IN BIG PARADE

ORIGINAL DISPLAYS ARE UNUSUALLY GOOD—UNCLE SAM HONORING KISSER MAKES HIT WITH THE CROWDS

The big Fourth of July parade, held yesterday forenoon, was good in every way, and much credit is due to the enterprise of F. D. Miller who took charge of the arrangements late in the day and worked strenuously to bring about its success.

Following the band and the Redco participants came the beautiful and unique floats, prepared by different residents. Kaiser Bill was given a most unmerciful drubbing during the entire parade at the hands of Uncle Sam in a float arranged by K. S. Sargant. The farmerette at work was brought forth to the attention of the public in another original display by G. M. Coped. The big blue float drew much favorable comment, as did also the decorated auto of Miss Wain Jacobs of the White Palace Garage and Ed. Martin.

The Woman's Relief Corps rode in a body in one of the big Buick passenger trucks.

The Golden Rule Store had a unique display advertising the Smilge Books by a Liberty Theater entrance.

A group of foreign born citizens marched, carrying an immense United States flag.

Marshal Captain O. C. Appelgate was supported by an Indian guard consisting of descendants of one of the Modoc chiefs.

The parade prizes will be announced later.

The line of march concluded at the Underwood pharmacy where a splendid July Fourth oration was delivered by the Rev. W. E. Lowdher of Rose, Nev.

INDIAN WAR DANCE ENTERTAINS BIG CROWD

Perhaps the thing which proved the greatest feature of the big July 4th celebration here yesterday was the Indian war dance, held on the Main street pavement last evening.

You can talk about your fox trots, hesitations and fancy steps of all descriptions, but there has been nothing in the way of exhibition dancing given here which drew the interest of the public to so great an extent. The crowd became so great and hard to manage that it was necessary to hold it back with ropes.

The war dance is a hard thing to describe. It was as if one man was seized suddenly with a violent attack of toothache and would go thru all the suffering usual in such cases. When he had exhausted himself, another would be seized with a paroxysm and proceed with the agony.

NO COMPROMISE ON PEACE WILL BE CONSIDERED

PRESIDENT IN SPEECH AT MOUNT VERNON ANSWERS ALL FEELINGS REGARDING ATTITUDE OF U. S.

Washington, July 5.—President Wilson yesterday answered all feelers for a compromise peace with a new, unqualified concentration of America to the struggle for cleaning military autocracy from the earth.

An Independence day gathering on the gentle slopes of Mount Vernon, home and tomb of George Washington, and surrounded by scenes which looked upon the creation of this nation, the President addressed a small gathering of officials and of diplomats of the allied nations.

But he spoke to the world, and he spoke the logical sequel to his "force without stint or limit" declaration of several weeks ago. Unhesitatingly the President declared that there could be no thought of a peace which did not mean the destruction of military autocracy or its reduction to virtual impotence.

"A reign of law, based on the consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind," was the way he summarized in a single sentence the objects of humanity in the world war.

Whether the President was addressing his remarks directly to the recent speech of German Foreign Secretary Von Kuhlmann, or to the foreboding of a renewed German peace offensive, or whether he merely took the occasion of the celebration of American independence to emphasize to the world the war aims of the nation can only be divined. He did not deal with the progress of the war or any particular phase of it, but he spoke eloquently of America's attitude toward Germany's so-called peace treaties in the East by grouping the people of Russia "for the moment unorganized and helpless" among the peoples of the world standing against the enemies of liberty.

"The past and the present are in deadly grapple and the peoples of the world are being done to death between them," said the President.

"There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise. No half-way decision would be tolerable. No half way decision is conceivable. There are the ends for which the assembled peoples of the world are fighting and which must be conceded them before there can be peace."

"1.—The destruction of every arbitrary power, anywhere that can separately, secretly and of its single choice, disturb the peace of the world; or, if it cannot be presently destroyed, at the least its reduction to virtual impotence.

"2.—By the settlement of every question, whether of territory, of sovereignty, of economic arrangement, or of political relationship, upon the basis of the free acceptance of that settlement by the people immediately concerned, and not upon the basis of the material interest or advantage of any other nation or peoples which may desire a different settlement for the sake of its own material interests or power."

"3.—The consent of all nations to be governed in their conduct towards each other by the same principles of honor and of respect for the com-

LARGE CROWD YESTERDAY AT BUCKING SHOW

MODOC BALL PARK BECOMES AVIATION FIELD—BIG WOL-STEIN BULL PROVES BEST BUCKING HORSE IN BUNCH

What is believed to be the largest crowd ever assembled at the Modoc ball park was in evidence yesterday afternoon to take in the Rodeo put on by Messrs William Sims and Ivan Farnat.

Every seat in the grand stand was filled long before the show commenced and the crowd lined the canal banks, filled the roof of the bath house near by, and were to be found clinging to something in most every direction.

A principal feature of the show was the riding of the big Holstein Bull, "Nero," whose broad and harmonious looking back has for years been such a difficult spot to remain upon for any length of time. Nero's appearance was short, but when he was once turned loose he exhibited all the substance of Douglas Fairbanks, and sent the best riders of the day wallowing in the dust.

The wild horse races afforded considerable amusement for the crowd, especially while the animals were being roped and saddled.

It was difficult to ascertain what course had been mapped out for the race once they were turned loose with their riders.

Following are the prizes awarded and the horses ridden:

Love Chandler on White Cloud, $200.

Coyote Smith on Cotton, $100.

Big Ruddle on Skylight, $50.

Other riders were Ray Wilson on Henry Ford; Jesse Post on Strahorn; Walter Hood on Pappoose; Rowland Jackson on Mrs. Henry Ford; Fannie Wilson on Rocking Chair; Big Schonechla on Borrel Dixie; Jackson Sunlight on Lightfoot; Willard Larch on Baby Pelican; Aron Murdoch on Daisy Queen; Cleveland Hudson on Billy Bowlegs.

AUTHORITIES HOLD ALLEGED BOOTLEGGERS

Fred Miller of Dorris, who was arrested by U. S. Marshal Frank F. Berry and Officer Price Reebok for bringing in a suit case filled with booze from Dorris, has been bound over to the U. S. district grand jury of Portland and has had his bonds increased at $200.

C. C. Sullivan, who, the officers allege, brought the suit case down and placed it on the train at Miller, and who denied any knowledge of it later by an affidavit, has "been charged with perjury, and is under bonds of $1000.

BIG SEASON STARTED AT CRATER LAKE

TWO HUNDRED AND EIGHTY VISITORS AT PARK YESTERDAY - TOURISTS IMPRESSED TO AID PUTTING OUT FIRES

Alex Sparrow, superintendent of Crater Lake National park, is in town today after supplies for the summer.

He reports that the travel is unusually heavy for this time of year. Where two or three cars entered the park last Fourth, this year there were 20 autos and 250 people at the lake yesterday.

They have been troubled with two rather bad forest fires, one on the Modford side and one on this side of the mountain, but they were finally gotten under control before any serious damage was done.

At the time one of the fires was discovered there was not a sufficient number of park employees to handle the work and it was necessary to press a number of tourists into service. Mr. Sparrow says that they entered into the work with a spirit and proved very able fire fighters.

SENATOR'S WIFE MEETS DEATH IN AUTOMOBILE

Portland, July 5.—Mrs. Chas L. McNary, wife of Senator McNary, was killed in an automobile accident near Newburg, Ore., according to advices received here today. Her sister, Mrs. R. P. Boies, of Salem, was injured.

In the party were Mrs. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Boies and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snodaker of Alabama, the latter also a sister of Mrs. McNary.

While crossing a fill the car, driven by Boies, met another automobile and in attempting to give room, plunged off the grade and turned turtle.

Mrs. McNary was pinned beneath the automobile and was instantly killed. All the other members of the party sustained injuries, but only Mrs. Boies was seriously injured. At the hospital at Newburg, where the injured were taken, it was said she would recover.
