EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

YOU CAN BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE WITH SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By recurring all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite, and not a medicine. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv

LUMBER CAMP FILM PICTURE STRONG STORY

Bill Farnum in "The Heart of a Lion," shown at the Ophelus last night, is one of those plays which gets in next to your skin, when it starts, wrinkles up your system with little thrills while the reels are run off, and leaves a pleasant taste in your mouth when you leave.

The story, which is adapted from Ralph Connor's "The Doctor," is a tale well told of the rough lumber camps of the big north woods. The great unselfish love of a strong man for his weaker brother, and how his influence brought the better element of the others characters to the surface, are pictured in a most interesting way. Farnum preaching a sermon in the little log church with the owner of the gambling joint next door, covered with his six shooter, is an interesting feature.

Public Warned Against Trading Liberty Bonds

A very considerable activity by stock salesmen, especially those representing companies, whose securities are utterly worthless, in efforts to exchange the stocks they are issuing for Liberty Bonds, is reported by James K. Lynch, chairman of the Twelfth Federal reserve district. He goes on to say, in a letter just received by Charles J. Ferguson: "This practice is specifically disapproved by the treasury department, and we shall be compelled to characterize any continuance of it as an act unfriendly to the government. If any such cases come to your notice, please write to me promptly, giving name of company issuing the stock which is being offered, its address, name of the salesman, and of the officers of the company if you can get them."

Coast Defense League Meets at Seattle

The officers of the Pacific Coast Defense league meet in Seattle for a two days' session on the 9th and 10th of this month, at which important communications will be received from President Wilson, Commodore Perry, the war department, many senators, and others, who are deeply interested in the organization of the proposed highway system for the Pacific coast, a bill for the survey of which is now before congress. The date for the coast convention will be decided upon at the officers' meeting.

It is the purpose of the local league to be represented in the convention, since Klamath Falls is recognized as an important point on the proposed third line of defense, or El Camina Sierra, the road which is projected from the Canadian line to Los Angeles on the east side of the Cascades and Sierras.

Captain O. C. Applegate has been selected as one of the advisory board on the Pacific coast, as one of the Oregon members.

FIRE DOES DAMAGE SOUTH OF TOWN

A fire started by some of the farmers on the Klamath river, supposedly to rid the country of the grasshoppers, has gotten into the seed and is doing no little damage to the grazing land, besides having burned over a mile of a newly constructed fence on the ranch of J. P. Lee, about seven miles from town.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is a guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infects the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments. People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation. Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.—Adv.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

EAT LESS MEAT IF YOU FEEL BACKACHEY OR HAVE BLADDER TROUBLE. No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.
