Henry Ford Upsets Politics In Michigan

Detroit, July 10.—Developments that find no precedent in the political history of the state have given Michigan's primary campaign this year an unusual interest which centers largely in the race for the senatorial nomination. The primary election will be held August 27.

The Democrats in state conference precipitated a situation that promises to upset early calculations. The conference endorsed Henry Ford, as Democratic candidate for the senatorial nomination, despite the fact that he had been regarded as a Republican possibility, and invited the Republicans to unite with them in supporting him. Then came Ford's announcement, after a conference with President Wilson, that he would accept the nomination if it were tendered him. He did not specify, however, whether he would make the race as a Republican or Democratic candidate, and the situation was further complicated.

The action of the Democratic state conference has been denounced by Michigan Republicans as an attempt to split their party. Chas. E. Osborn, former governor and a candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination, has declined flatly to accept the Democratic proposal that the with two other Republican candidates, withdraw from the race, and has indicated his intention of making a vigorous campaign. Fred M. Warner, also a former governor, who had announced his candidacy, withdrew from the race, but coupled with his withdrawal a statement supporting Ford as the Republican, but not the Democratic candidate.

Truman H. Newberry, who served in Roosevelt's cabinet, is the other Republican mentioned for the nomination. Mr. Newberry has never made a direct avowal of his candidacy, but the Newberry campaign committee has announced its intention of making a vigorous campaign in his behalf.

Mr. Ford has nothing to say since his statement that he would accept the nomination if tendered him. It is understood he will make no campaign. Should his name go on both Republican and Democratic tickets at the primary, under the law, he must choose within five days after canvass of the ballots the ticket on which he will seek election.

Governor Albert E. Sleeper, Republican, is a candidate for re-election. John W. Bailey, of Battle Creek, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the governorship.

stroyed in the war. That would be permitting the robber to get up business in the store he had ruined."

Mr. Houston, who is a former president of the Associated Clubs, urged the business men of the allied nations to get ready to meet the German commercial drive, which, he declared, would come after the war.

"After the tragedy of being unprepared for Germany's military fist, despite the menacing jabs and thrusts for forty years," he said, "let us not be unprepared for the blow of Germany's commercial fist. They are both warlike fists, right and left arms of Prussia's autocratic and ruthless power."

"When this war for freedom is won, when the great day of reckoning comes, then will come the day when patriotic business in all the free nations must smite the mailed fist. It must be driven home that German business cannot be allowed to rise and prosper on the ruins of industries of Belgium, of France, of Italy, yes, and of Russia—industries ruined by the mailed fist of Germany. The monstrous injustice which such a result would mean for our brave allies must be made so clear that a wayfarer man, the a pro-German, would understand and heed."

"Within a month I have seen an able and exhaustive plan, prepared by a great German engineer and business man and recently published in Germany, in which the most subtle and indirect ways are outlined for gaining a strange hold on the business of the world. And bear in mind that not a German factory has been injured during the war. Every one of them is ready to begin production the minute the war ends and is prepared to push production at top speed in order to get a running start in the world's markets against the countries whose factories have been destroyed by German guns."

Woman Forester Now On Job at La Pine

La Pine, July 10.—For the first time in the history of Oregon, and as far as is known for the first time in the United States, a woman, Mrs. Cora Leland, of LaPine, has been installed as lookout at the Pauline peak station. Mrs. Leland has a shift the same as the male lookouts, extending over a 24-hour period, and occupies the lookout with her only companion, her son, less than 15 years of age.

The appointment of Mrs. Leland to this station is an experiment by the forest service to determine the capabilities of women for this class of work. As in most cases the position is a lonesome one, with little or no rest from their duties, few women are willing to enter into the work. At the Pauline peak station Mrs. Leland has a well equipped and furnished cabin, and is supplied with all the latest improved instruments for fire finding and determining the location of the blaze.

According to the officials of the forest service, she is entering upon the work with enthusiasm and it is expected will fill the position with all the efficiency of a man.

Germany Plans to Corral World's Business

San Francisco, July 10.—"When this war for freedom is won," said Herbert S. Houston, New York publisher, in his address today before the war convention of the Associated

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Sage on inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic looking men, women and girls, with pearly or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "run-downs," "brain fags" and pessimists, we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning before breakfast a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drugstore, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—Adv.

Eat Less Meat If Back Hurts

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe backaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a
