PORTLAND, Aug. 6.—Arrangements rapidly are being completed for the entertainment of the veterans of the Civil War who will attend the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic for 1918, which will be held here August 19 to 23.

This will be the first time that a National Encampment has been held in the Northwest. Approximately 25,000 men who answered President Lincoln's call to arms are expected to be present. They will come from every section of the country.

First Yankee Tank Battalion Is Ready

With the American Army in England, August 6.—Another contingent of American man power that might be labeled "Made in England," is ready for shipment to the western front. It is the personnel of the first American tank battalion.

Trained by veterans of the British tank service, and equipped with the most modern of land warships, the new force is expected to give an excellent account of itself. The British coaches of the American crews have expressed their approval of the manner in which their pupils have adapted themselves to the operation of the machines and, unless they are mistaken, the men whose training in England is just completed will be given enviable roles. Their machines have the best points of both the British and French tanks and the training of the men has been in the light of experience already gained by the fighters of France and England.

To every man in the American outfit there has been imparted the stories of mistakes made in the early history of tank warfare. Enlisted men and officers have been told what not to do; all their admonitions have been based not on theory but on actual experience, gained in the face of German fire, loosed always upon the slightest intimation that the tanks are lumbering to the front.

But as a reminder, perhaps, that the enemy's fire is seldom effective, is the insignia adopted for the American tank corps—two salamanders, crawling creatures that worm their way unharmed thru the flame and smoke.

It is expected that because of the excellence of the weapon with which it will fight and the training it has

HOOVER GETS HIGH PRAISE FROM FRENCH

Paris, August 6.—"France eats bread by the grace of American wheat and the American spirit," said Vice President Chaume of the Paris council at a reception here today for Herbert C. Hoover, who was hailed as the "Controller of the World's Food."

"America's voluntary reduction of food consumption," continued the speaker, "not only gives France material benefit, but stiffens the morale and shows a true democracy much different from Germany."

Four thousand workmen cheered Mr. Hoover at a luncheon in his honor at a war factory.

"America," said the U. S. food administrator, in responding to the ovation, "will soon send more bread, more soldiers and more munitions."

Suggestions:

Stir your tea, coffee or cocoa well. Don't leave sugar in the bottom of the cup.

Sweeten breakfast cereals with honey, syrup, maple sugar, raisins, or dates.

Substitute molasses, maple syrup, or syrups made from sorghum and corn, for part of sugar used in cooking.

Substitute syrups or honey for part of the sugar in cake. One cup of syrup or honey will take the place of one cup of sugar and one-fourth of a cup of liquid. In almost any cake recipe the syrup or honey may be used for one-half of the sugar.

Make your cakes without frosting.

Use fresh, dried or preserved fruit for dessert in the place of "made dishes" that require sugar. Bake apples or pears with a little water for several hours, until a rich syrup forms. If more sweetening is desired add honey or molasses. Cook dried prunes without sugar in the water in which they were soaked until the liquid is almost boiled away. If more juice is wanted add water to the syrup. The long, slow cooking develops a rich flavor and the addition of sugar is unnecessary.
