Jack McAuliffe, former lightweight champion; Tom Sharkey, who gave Jim Jeffries his hardest battle for the heavyweight championship, and Sam Fitzpatrick, who managed Peter Jackson in the United States and made Jack Johnson heavyweight champion, are anxious to go to France to help Uncle Sam. Sharkey has already bought his uniform, as shown here.

AIR MAIL SERVICE TO CHICAGO POSSIBLE

Washington, Aug. 5.—Extension of the mail air service from New York to Chicago is being considered by the post office department, according to official announcement today. This route would cut the time between these two cities in half and would bring the Pacific coast 12 hours closer to New York and the Atlantic seaports.

Six additional planes for the air mail service between Washington and New York will be inspected today at the plant of the Standard Aeroplane company, Elizabeth, N. J., by representatives of the postoffice department. The specifications of these planes call for a speed of 100 miles an hour.

Within the next week, possibly August 10, the postoffice department will assume full control of the air mail service, relieving the war department.

LOCAL BILLS COMPLIMENTED

A letter has been received by the local lodge of Elks from the Portland chapter, complimenting the Klamath boys on their interest in the new state organization. The letter did not indicate what attitude would be taken by the lodge regarding the state convention in 1919, which the local chapter is bent on securing, as no official action had been taken.

YANKS TERMED

"SATANS" BY HUNS

Amsterdam, Aug. 5.—"Satans" is the name for American soldiers among the German soldiers, according to a letter written by Lieutenant Ranko, who, as officer-war correspondent writes for German papers. In the Dusseldorf Nachrichten he tells of a skirmish between a patrol of men from that city with an American patrol, who by their "impudent audacity" had been giving the Germans much trouble. Both parties were hidden in shell craters, he says, and stalked each other for 19 hours, with the result that three wounded American "Satans" were brought in. For their work their captors received iron crosses.

FIRST CONVERTED BONDS ARE HERE

The first returned converted Liberty bonds have now been received by the First National Bank. It is the privilege of all those who purchased bonds during the earlier issues and paying interest at 3 1/2 and 4 per cent, to have these converted into 4 1/2 per cent bonds. It is for the best interest of bond holders to have this exchange made as soon as possible, in order to get the increased interest, and will be much more convenient for the banks if the matter is attended to before the rush of business during the coming drive.
