

RAILROAD MEN MUST BE CIVIL TO TRAVELERS

Every employee of the railroads should take pride in serving the public courteously and efficiently.

"My attention has been called to the fact that employees have sometimes offered as an excuse for their own shortcomings, or as a justification for delayed trains or other difficulties, the statement that 'Uncle Sam is running the railroads now' or 'these are McAdoo's orders,' etc. Nothing could be more reprehensible and nothing could be more hurtful to the success of the railroad administration or to the welfare of the railroad employees themselves.

"There are many people who for partisan or selfish purposes with government operation of the railroads to be a failure. Every employee who is discourteous to the public or makes excuses or statements of the kind I have described, is helping these partisans of selfish interests to discredit government control of railroads.

"Recently the wages of railroad employees were largely increased. In order to meet this increase the public has been called upon to pay largely increased passenger and freight rates. The people have accepted this new burden cheerfully and patriotically. The least that every employee can do in return is to serve the public courteously, faithfully and efficiently."

TRAINING CORPS STUDENTS IN GOV'T. SERVICE

A student enlisted in the Students' Army Training Corps is in military service of the United States. Because he does not receive pay, he is classified as an inactive service but in a national emergency the President may call him at any time to active service. He is called to active service each summer when he attends camp for six weeks and receives the pay of a private.

His relation to the draft is as follows: Any student so enlisted, tho in the military service of the United States, is technically on inactive duty, and therefore must register after he has reached draft age and upon notice by the President. Upon stating on his questionnaire that he is already in the military service of the United States, he will be placed automatically by his local Draft Board in Class V-D, as provided by the Selective Service regulations. The Draft Board will not call him for induction so long as he remains a member of the Students' Army Training Corps.

In order that the college student may not even appear to enjoy special privileges, it is agreed, however, that when the day arrives on which according to his order number he would have been drafted, had he not already volunteered, the fact is reported to the President of the college and to the commanding officer at the college, who in turn reports it to the Adjutant General. This is the day of reckoning for the college man. The President of the college and the commanding officer will then report to the chairman of the Committee on Education and Special Training of the War Department, for what form of military service the individual is in their judgment best qualified. They will recommend either that the student should continue his studies to prepare for work in medicine, engineering, chemistry, psychology, economics, etc., or that he should go at once to an officers' training camp to prepare for an officers' commission in the ordnance, quartermaster or other Staff Corps or sent immediately to a division at one of the camps. Lieut. Col. Rees, commander of the entire Students' Corps, has authority to dispose his men in the best way suited to meet the emergencies of the military and national situation at the time. The presumption is that, for the next year the largest proportion of the student body reaching twenty-one years will be required to supply a large part of the officers needed for the national army. It is understood that at least four or five times as many officers will be required as the total number of students who will graduate from all American colleges and universities. Enlistment in the Students' Army Training Corps, therefore, while it does not hold out any promise of an officer's commission, is at the present time the plainest road leading in that direction.

The student who shows no ability for special service in his college and military work, will be ordered into active service as a private when his day of reckoning comes. Enlistment is for the duration of the war. If, however, the student fails to improve his college opportunities, he may be dismissed from college by action of the college authorities. He would then be subject to the operation of the draft. His enlistment may be cancelled for other sufficient causes such as sickness, lack of funds, etc., upon recommendation of the President of the college and the military officer in command at the college.

Opportunity will be given for the enlisted student, who so elects, to transfer from army to navy, and vice versa, and to be assigned to active service in one of the various corps of the army upon recommendation of the college president and the proper military authority.

Regular uniforms, including hats, shoes and overcoats, will be furnished all members of the Students' Army Training Corps by the Government.

Should Congress lower the age of liability to immediate military service, men of the new ages not already enlisted may find difficulty in entering the service otherwise than thru the Draft Boards. In view of this possibility, all men expecting to enlist in the Students' Army Training Corps would do well to enter promptly.

At the Theaters

Plenty of real Western atmosphere is shown in "Revenge," the Metro picture of Edward Moffat's novel, "Heart's Steadfast," starring the favorite star, Edith Storey, which will be presented at the Orpheus theater tonight and Friday.

In "Revenge," which was produced at the West Coast studios, the athletic star returns to the "Western" type of role in which she first became famous as a screen star of the first rank. She is also to excellent advantage in her favorite type of role.

Director Browning staged night scenes for this picture on one of the most famous western streets ever erected for the staging of motion picture scenes. This street has been used for hundreds of "Wild and Woolly" pictures, starring many well known players. It is said that this street has been rebuilt innumerable times so as to take on entirely new appearance for each picture.

Many of the important scenes were staged in Antelope Valley, where over 40 players spent some time securing stirring action. Miss Storey and other members of the Metro company went to the Valley prepared to bag the limit of game, each carrying rifle and well loaded cartridge shells.

"Revenge" is the forerunner of a series of Edith Storey All-star series Metro pictures which show the star in stories of the genuine West.

Ministers throughout the country have joined in urging their parishioners to have all children, especially boys, just coming into maturity to see the photoplay "The Marriage Lie" which will open at the Star Theatre tonight. The heroine of the picture is the daughter of a gambler. When her father dies she is left without a cent. Before long she is on the verge of starvation.

According to the clergy the growing boys appear to have the idea that a professional gambler always has

LESS POMP AT ENGLISH FUNERALS

BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND, Aug. 22.—The effect of the war has been noticed even in funerals in England. The four-horse hearse team recently has been abandoned by the Birmingham undertakers. This is due largely to the depletion of undertakers' staffs by the national call for more men for the front in France. The limit in horses for funerals in the future will be two to each hearse. For many years in the manufacturing districts of Birmingham a funeral among the working classes was not regarded as having been properly carried out unless four black Flemish horses, with ornate harness, were attached to the hearse.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Ad.

GERMAN PRISONERS NOW FARMING IN FRANCE

Thousands of German prisoners in France are now engaged in tilling the soil for the benefit of the French army. This photograph was taken on one of the large prison farms over there and shows German prisoners with a cultivator drawn by a pair of oxen. The men look as if they enjoyed their present jobs.
