Re-establishment of Bulgarian rule in the portion of former Bulgarian territory occupied by troops of the entente, for instance Strumitsa. Consignment to the allied army of the arms, munitions, and war material of the demobilized troops. Capitulation by the Bulgarian units stationed westward by Uskub when the armistice is signed, the troops to remain guarded by the entente until further orders. Departure within a month of German and Austro-Hungarian troops, military agencies, diplomatic and consular representatives and persons of those nationalities. The turks were not mentioned in the armistice, according to the dispatch.

FRENCH PRESS IS LEARY OF PEACE OFFER

ADDRESS OF IMPERIAL CHANCELLOR BEFORE REICHTAG SAID TO CONTRADICT PART OF WILSON'S PRINCIPLES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Comment of the French press on the Teutonic peace proposals is summarized in an official dispatch from France as follows:

The steps taken by Germany, Austria Hungary and Turkey is a collective confession of the extremely serious situation they are now in owing to the allied victories. A month ago Berlin would not have consented to carry so far her peace maneuvers. But this step maintains the confused character that all German proposals have borne. This one evidently shows the inward thought that it might succeed in weakening the allied peoples' will or in setting her enemies against each other. She will see that she is mistaken.

The proposals do not mention acceptance of the 14th of January message fourteen points but only says the central powers would consent to take them as basis. This is openly confessing that the central governments would intend to discuss these points and refuse them in some particular or other pretending to accept them as a starting point. The papers note that the declaration made yesterday at the reichstag by Prince Maximilian of Baden are in some essential points in contradiction of the fourteen clear causes of President Wilson's message.

TIME TO SCRUB

What the city sanitary inspector told the council Monday night regarding existing conditions in this city furnishes much for reflection on the part of the citizens. Whether or not these conditions are directly responsible for the epidemic of contagious diseases spread over the city cannot, of course, be directly proven, but the fact remains that the epidemic here, and that the unsanitary conditions are sufficient to cause it. Klamath Falls has one of the most healthful climates in the world. The air is naturally rare, dry and pure to an extraordinary degree. A large number of diseases afflicting human beings and many livestock ailments, frequent in other sections, are practically unknown here. We have a long handicap on most of the rest of the country for an absolutely pure atmosphere and perfect living conditions. Instead of making the most of these advantages, a bunch of us congregate together, leave our barns filled with stable refuse, allow water to stagnate in cisterns, surround ourselves with various kinds of filth, and then pay for the care of patients in the pest house and shut down our schools to ward off scarlet fever. This is, indeed, a hard condition to face, but these are the facts as submitted by our official inspector. It calls for radical concerted action on the part of every enterprising citizen for a general clean-up, and the most serious kind of co-operation with the efforts of the officers. Do not wait for the inspector to get around before taking action in this matter. Become familiar with the requirements of the city health ordinance No. 236, which is printed in this issue of the Evening Herald for this special purpose, and then live up to them. It is the evident purpose of the city council to create a different atmosphere and to rejoin the inspector until a different situation is effected. But it will be some time before a complete canvass can be made, and every other kind of a plague may be heaped upon us before this can be done. The thing to do is to go right out today and make things look different. When the city has been cleaned, there is just one more thing to do—keep it clean.

INFLUENZA IS STARTED IN KLAMATH

SUGGESTIONS ARE GIVEN FOR PREVENTION AND CARE OF TROUBLE PROVING SO SERIOUS OVER NATION. Although the nature of the trouble has not been definitely announced, there are several cases of illness in and around Klamath Falls which are strongly believed by attending physicians to be the Spanish influenza, which is now spreading over the entire country. In order to guard against this malady the following symptoms and suggestions are quoted from a recent Associated Press dispatch for the benefit of the residents: "Because the last epidemic of influenza occurred more than twenty-five years ago, physicians who began to practice medicine since 1893 have not had personal experience in handling a situation now spreading thru a considerable part of the foreign world, and already appearing to some extent in the United States. For that reason Surgeon General Blue of the public health service is issuing a special bulletin for all medical men who read for it. "In order to reach physicians of the country without a day's delay, however, Dr. Blue has provided for the transmission thru the Associated Press of the following summary of the methods of the control of the disease: "Sources of infection—The secretions from the nose, throat and respiratory passages of cases or of carriers. "Incubation period—One to four days, generally two. "Mode of transmission—By direct contact or indirect contact thru the use of handkerchiefs, common towels, cups, mess gear or other objects contaminated with fresh secretions. Droplet infection plays an important part. "Period of communicability—As long as the person harbors the causative organism in the respiratory tract. "Methods of control—The infected individual and his environment. "Isolation—Bed isolation of infected individuals during the course of the disease. "Concurrent disinfection—The discharges from mouth, throat, nose and other respiratory passages. "Terminal disinfection—Thorough cleansing, airing and sunning. "General measures—The attendant of the case should wear a gauze mask. During epidemics persons should avoid crowded assemblages, street cars, and the like. Education as regards the danger of promiscuous coughing and spitting. Patients, because of the tendency to the development of broncho-pneumonia, should be treated in well ventilated warm rooms."

SURRENDER OF TURKEY BELIEVED IMMINENT

LONDON STATESMEN LOOK FOR SUCH A MOVE NEXT FEW DAYS. DISINTEGRATION REPORTED AT CONSTANTINOPLE

ENTIRE SYSTEM OF MUN DEPENDENT IN WEST NOW THREATENED BY WEDGE OF ALLIES NEAR CAMBRAI, CLIMAX NEAR.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The surrender of Turkey with the next forty eight hours will not surprise well informed quarters in London.

The Standard says that British authorities are in possession of information showing the progress of disintegration which now exists in Constantinople. Dateless Dispatch, By Associated Press. Forced from Cambrai, one of the strong pillars of the Hindenburg system, the Germans are being driven back toward the French frontier. It is apparent that the Germans have now lost the Hindenburg line from Cambrai to St. Quentin. Haig has driven a gigantic salient based on Cambrai, into the enemy lines. Even if it does not grow larger, this is now a great menace to the Loos and Lille positions and it seems possible that the Germans will soon withdraw from the Loos massif as they are being outflanked. The great offensive appears now to have reached a climax and the next few days may witness epochal events in the history of the war. The Allies in the region of Cambrinus have scored another success and captured many prisoners, valuable booty.
