

Fall Showing of Women's Shoes

STYLE STILL RULES

Women's Fall Shoes more beautiful than ever.

The war-time necessity has made conservation of leather imperative, your shoes for Fall are not one whit less beautiful than in past seasons.

Rather the reverse is true, as you will be quick to realize when you see the charming models now shown at

Van Bellen's

You will see tans, grays and field-mouse brown in abundance, together with some very smart black shoes, military heels or high heels.

Priced $4.85 to $13.00.

Klamath County News

FLYVNA

The recent rains have made the ground in good shape for fall plowing, and some of the farmers have already started.

The rains have delayed haying and threshing in this locality.

Allen Stansbie, who has been thrashing here, has gone on a business trip to Ashland.

H. Van Valkenburg has gone on a business trip to San Francisco.

Everyone was glad to see Jim Adkins come back and start his trapping line for coyotes to save the chickens.

GO QUAIL HUNTING

Lee Bean, Jim Hinton, John Larman, and William Timms went quail hunting this morning in the Bonanza district.
