OREGON MUST FURNISH HELP FOR MUNITIONS

The State Council of Defense is in receipt of the following telegram from Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior and chairman of the Field Division of the Council of National Defense:

A stock of high explosive shells imperatively needed in France has been destroyed and the flow of these supplies has been retarded not only for the present moment but for months to come unless immediate relief is provided. This loss must be made up at once by putting additional burdens on all other American munition plants. Within the next 48 hours the number of men to be supplied from your state will be wired by the U. S. Employment Service to its Federal State Director. This call for men must be met but there should be no difficulties in getting these men. The work is dangerous but that will not deter any one for it is unthinkable that any man in this country should hold back from doing work which the women of England and France have long carried on. When this problem is placed before the American people public opinion will be solidly behind the employment service and the community labor boards in this emergency.

Nathan A. Smyth, Assistant Director General of the United States Employment Service has sent to all Federal Directors thruout the United States a similar message calling attention to a shortage of 139,000 unskilled laborers in the Ordnance Department alone and advising that Oregon within forty-eight hours will be called on for skilled and unskilled labor in munition factories to prevent unknown loss and injury to Pershing's boys.

Many inquiries are received as to whether articles must be of real linen. The word is used in its customary not its technical sense. Such towels, handkerchiefs, and sheets as are regularly used in American homes are what is asked for.

Following is list of articles and approximate dimensions:
Bath Towels, 18 by 18; Handkerchiefs 13 by 13; Hand towels 18 by 30; Sheets, 64 by 102. The napkin quota is filled.

Chicken Feed

Sombody better write a song, called Hello Rhineand, Goodby France.

Piece by piece, we're winning peace.

This is the season when the coat is on the pumpkin and the fodder bill's a shock.

The long range bombardment of Paris was not resumed today.

Rumors of a new candidate for Police Judge are afloat. The question now is, will A. L. Leavitt?

Kaiser Bill thought the Allies would jump at the chance to quit fighting, instead of that they all jumped at his neck.

Are you buying your little green war stamps?
Are you smoothing the path to Berlin?
Have you given today to the Y. M. C. A.?

Are you helping the Yankees to grin?
Are you backing your cheering and shouting?
Are you bearing your share of the fight?

What bonds do you own, printed "Liberty Loan"?
Are you part of America's might?
Have you put any kinks in the Kaiser?

Are you helping to harass the Hun?
Will you land in your which, e'er the laddies come back?
Will your conscience be clear when we're done?

No one ever got rich merely by saving money. You must invest it. A good way to invest it is to buy War Savings and Thrift Stamps.

day, and that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply in the case of drug stores in the filling of prescriptions, sale of medicines or sick room necessities, any or all of which may be sold on any day and at any hour.

Provided that pool rooms, billiard halls and places of like amusement be not permitted to remain open after 11 p. m.

Provided further, that the selling of meals or articles of food in restaurants, hotels, lunch counters and eating rooms, and the dispensing and sale of soft drinks and ice cream shall not be deemed the sale of merchandise under the terms of this request.

Provided further that the sale of gasoline, distillate and lubricating oils at garages and public filling stations, except in the supplying of motor trucks actually engaged directly or indirectly in war industries, shall be deemed the sale of merchandise, and subject to the terms of this request.

Special attention is called to those merchants having various lines of merchandise as well as meals, lunches, soft drinks and ice cream. Customers are apt to request the sale of such merchandise during the prohibited hours. But we believe that an insistent appeal to their patriotic sense of duty will soon bring about a discontinuance of the requests.

We wish to call your attention to the copy of a telegram from Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, and chairman of the field division of the Council of National Defense, that appears in another column. This will assist us in showing you the imperative need of a close compliance with the above.

Very respectfully submitted to your patriotic sense and duty. Klamath County Unit of the State Council of Defense for Oregon—C. D. Chorpening, County Chairman.

Dr. F. R. Goddard will be on his annual vacation from October 1st to October 17.
