IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

EAT LESS MEAT, ALSO TAKE GLASS OF SALTS BEFORE EATING BREAKFAST

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal action; also to neutralize the acids in urines, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus soothing bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent beverage; drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Drug-

Klamath County News
 SHASTA VIEW

The sad news has come to us that Mrs. Fred Gordon of Chiloquin has passed from this life. She leaves a husband and two small children, one a baby of only a few weeks, father, mother and two sisters, besides other relatives. Mrs. Gordon had spent most of her girlhood in this community, and had many friends who extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone of Klamath Falls were guests at J. T. Ward's the last of the week.

Most of the people who had land leased on Tule Lake are well satisfied with the outcome of their crops, some of the barley yielding over 80 bushels per acre, and other grain in proportion. Quite a large amount of hay needs a few days of pleasant weather to insure its being put up in good shape.

Some of the children here were invited to spend Halloween at the home of J. T. Ward and wife. They had much sport building bonfires of Russian thistles. After tiring of this amusement they were treated to dainty refreshments, with suitable decorations for the occasion, all having a jolly time, and pronouncing Mr. and Mrs. Ward fine entertainers.

Quite a number of large bands of sheep are already coming into this valley to spend the winter, where they have been purchased to feed them.

GOVERNOR TO PUNISH HIS ASSAILANTS

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 11.—Governor Withycombe will ascertain whether any law exists in Oregon whereby punishment may be meted out to persons slandering or directing malicious attacks against men in public office. The governor endured much of this kind of abuse during the recent campaign from men who were opposed to his re-election.

"In my opinion," said the governor, "it is time to call a halt to such tactics, and I am determined to see if there is any Oregon law by which a man in public office may be protected from character assassins.

"In return for the large vote given me and the confidence the people have reposed in me, I shall give my very best thought and activity to the upbuilding of the state. I am particularly grateful for the vote accorded me because of the campaign of slander and misrepresentation resorted to by the opposition.

"Twenty-five thousand of my most loyal supporters are now in service in France and my time and energy will be devoted also to working for their welfare at every opportunity."

Governor Withycombe is the first Republican governor of Oregon to succeed himself. Scores of telegrams and telephone messages have reached his desk congratulating him upon his success in the campaign.

TRANS-NATION AERIAL ROUTE NOW PLANNED

PORTLAND, Nov. 11.—Portland may soon become the Pacific coast terminal of a great trans-continental air route. With this view in mind, F. W. Buck, president of the Buck Aircraft & Munition company, of Pueblo, Colo., will arrive within a few days with the assistant manager of the company to consider the purchase of a 100-acre tract of land suitable for a landing place and where a branch factory for the manufacture of airplanes and gas engines may be erected.

The company of which Mr. Buck is president is capitalized for $3,000,000 and it is stated in the purpose of the transportation company that the planes will be equipped to carry passengers, mail and express. It is claimed that the trip across the continent will be made in 26 hours and that branch factories will be established at each station on the way across the United States. The fare charged to take a person across the continent will be $1000, but it is said that this price will be cut after the line has been in operation for a time. Mail and express will be carried at the rate of 25 cents an ounce, and Mr. Buck confidently expects that in the next five years his planes will be doing 200 miles an hour on their trips across the states.

Federal Judge Henry D. Clayton, who hails from Eufaula, Ala., sentenced this Russian eighteen-year-old girl, Mollie Stimer, to fifteen years in prison on charges of being a Bolshevik, an anarchist and a general radical acting in violation of the Espionage Act, after her trial in New York City.

Carrying a Coal Cake, New British Manufacture

Housewives of England are making their own coal now. This little fellow is carrying off a cake to dry in the sun. It was made by his mother, of coal dust, mixed with cinders and a small quantity of sawdust, all held together with ten per cent of cement. The substitute has been found practical and economical.

CHANCES GOOD FOR INCREASED WHEAT RATION

PORTLAND, Nov. 11.—The standard loaf of bread, made with 80 per cent wheat flour and 20 per cent substitutes, may be changed soon to contain more than 80 per cent white wheat flour, according to a telegram from Herbert Hoover to W. B. Ayer, Oregon food administrator.

The new relaxation is merely contemplated, and Mr. Ayer states that the information received by him this morning does not mean that there is any change in the substitute's rules as yet, but it simply follows Mr. Hoover's invariable rule of keeping the American people fully informed as to his plans. The public may be assured that as soon as the situation warrants the food administration will modify the wheat substitute rules, but until this is done the present rules will be followed absolutely.

"In view of the new situation created by the Austrian armistice, greater safety will result on the Mediterranean sea routes, making an increased accessibility for the Indian and Australian food supplies, even if Germany does not quit the war. This should make sufficient wheat from these countries available during the winter to reduce the amount of substitution in bread in the allied countries and to allow the substitutes now being reported to the allies to be used for dairy foods, of which there is a great shortage," says Mr. Ayer.

"This same situation in foods exists in the United States and would also be indirectly relieved by relaxing the substitutes used in wheat bread. The altered war situation would thus enable us to secure a better adjustment between human and animal foods."

HUN BIGGER SAVAGE THAN WILD INDIAN

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Nov. 11.—Compared to the German soldier of today who before the War was supposed to be civilized, the American Indian of frontier days is declared by an American medical officer to have been highly civilized.

The Indian never pretended to be anything but a savage," said the medical officer, "while the Germans have been pretending to be peace loving and human for the past century."

Deliberate killing by German troops of Red Cross workers engaged in their work of mercy on the battlefields has aroused the wrath of American army officers. It is asserted that all during the Marne battle, the German aviators swept low over field crossing stations, pouring machine gun bullets into the medical units as they tended the wounded and dropping bombs on hospitals, altho the Red Cross insignia was in plain view.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning
 Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach liver kidney and bowels drink before breakfast each day a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and refresh the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment, and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast, act on the stomach, liver and bowels.—Adv.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA
 IF MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT DARKENS SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grand-mother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 60 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

The Hun snipers picked off Red Cross stretcher bearers as quickly as combatant soldiers.

"They acted just like cornered rats," declared an American infantry officer, "except that most of them did not have the courage to fight to the death. When they were surrounded and had no chance, they would come out of their machine gun nests with tears in their eyes and cries of 'Kamerad'. The German soldier in a pleading attitude is the most loathsome and despicable imaginable."
