GERMAN MILLIONS FACE STARVATION

APPEAL MADE TO PRESIDENT TO HASTEN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS AND STAVE OFF FURTHER DISASTER BY STARVATION

CLAIMED THAT MUTINOUS SAILORS WOULD FIGHT ON RATHER THAN SUBMIT TO "UNHEARD-OF PRESUMPTION"

(Summary by Associated Press)

Defeated on the battlefield, deserted by their emperor, and subjected to terms tantamount to unconditional surrender, the German people have appealed to President Wilson.

Foreign Secretary Sells says that fearful conditions prevail, and the millions face starvation if the Allies do not take steps to overcome the danger.

Mutinous sailors control most units of the navy, and even now would risk a battle against the Allies' fleet rather than surrender the vessels, under the armistice terms.

They have called on the sailors to defend the country against this "unheard of presumption," and asked the units to assemble at Sessnitz harbor off the Prussian coast.

Holland is said to be preparing to intern William Hohenzollern, the former crown prince and other military officers who sought refuge there.

The Allied warships have entered the Dardanelles, and the British naval forces have occupied Alexandretta.

The momentum of the revolution has apparently increased in Germany, and evidences of friction between the military authorities and the soldiers' workmen's council in Northern Germany are numerous.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Germany has requested Wilson to arrange immediately for the opening of peace negotiations, there being a pressing danger of famine, according to a wireless message.

LOCAL PUBLIC COMING THRU FOR SOLDIERS

While no detailed report is yet available by the aggregation of workers who are conducting the United War Work Drive in this city, the leaders of the move feel very much encouraged with the support which has been given thus far.

With the tremendous victory which has been won by the Allied forces and all the principles for which America has been fighting so thoroughly clinched for all time to come, it is to be expected that the public in the fullness of its gratitude will pour out an abundance of funds sufficient to provide all possible comforts for the boys who have offered their lives to make it possible.

The drive workers are all busy men who are giving their time to this work gladly without recompense, but their task will be materially lightened if the public will meet them half way by making it a point to see their precinct workers and turn in their pledges.
