EPIDEMIC STOPS CATHOLIC FAIR

SMALL SELECTION OF EXCLUSIVE ARTICLES WILL BE PLACED ON SALE BEGINNING TOMORROW.

As a result of the regulations promulgated on account of the epidemic of influenza, the ladies of the Catholic Church postponed the Catholic Fair which was to have been held last month until all danger from the disease has passed. Secured for that event was a large quantity of articles collected from Convents from every part of the United States. In response to many requests, the ladies have decided to place on sale some of these articles and for that purpose have secured accommodations in the store room now occupied by the City Transfer company, 615 Main Street, where some of the choicest creations of embroideries, lingerie and other articles will be offered those seeking exclusiveness and individuality for their Xmas gifts. The sale will continue only long enough to dispose of the few articles selected for the purpose.

Buy your Xmas gifts at the sale of Convent-made articles conducted by the ladies of the Catholic church, 615 Main street. 13-31

STORAGE WAREHOUSE:
The Farmers Warehouse is now under new dispensation. It is on Sixth street, and is cement. No fire; no freeze; no mud. Store anything but livestock. If you want to keep it bring it to me. Winter car storage a specialty. $2 per month. Make reservation now. Box 521. Phone 228W. M. F. PARKER, Lessee. 12-31

Send your mail order to K. K. K. Store for Christmas goods or anything in Clothing and Footwear. They guarantee satisfaction and pay all postage and express charges. 61f

Have you noticed how cheap you can buy a good overcoat at the big sale at the K. K. K. STORE.

Embroidered Articles for Sale—Convent made and exclusive designs at moderate prices. 615 Main. 13-31

CORRECTION

In yesterday's letter the writer inadvertently stated the Team Captains and their workers for Red Cross Christmas Roll Call would meet at the Red Cross office at 11th and Main at 3 o'clock Saturday P. M. This should have read at the Campaign Headquarters in the Loomis Building.

GEO. J. WALTON.

Smart Pumps for Gifts Splendid Surprises

When you think of Christmas, you think of gifts—tokens of holiday sentiments to friends from friends. There are usually hosts of gifts to choose from, but what could be more truly acceptable than a dainty pair of pumps, a pair of shoes, or a nice pair of house slippers.

For ladies, girls, men, boys and the children.
