Mrs. George Hurn left on the train this morning for Portland where she expects to spend some time visiting her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Will Hurn and Mrs. Ralph Hurn.

Mrs. Guy Manning returned last night from an extended visit with relatives in the east. She left here July 25th and has visited in Kansas, Illinois, Indiana, New York and Michigan. The Mannings reside at the Townsend Flats.

Mrs. W. E. Burkett, postmaster at Dorris, Oregon returned to her home today after two weeks spent in this city caring for her son, Carl Burkett, and family, who have been sick with the influenza. Mrs. Burkett is much pleased with the city and its people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McKay were among the visitors from the outside towns yesterday from Algoma.

and if you like, I'll write her a little note too, telling her how well you're looking."

"That will be nice," said the private.
He counted out the money, a generous amount. Still he hesitated, and it was evident that he had something else on his mind.

"Anything else I can do for you?" asked the woman.

"It's like this," began the private, hesitatingly. He stopped, swallowed, and started all over again. "Please be careful what you say in that note, won't you Ma'am? You see—my girl—she's funny about some things—she might think—well, you know how women are," finished the private wisely.

"I'll tell you what," said the American woman. "I'll tell her I enjoyed meeting you because I have a son in the army myself. Will that do?"

"That will be fine," said the private heartily. "I wouldn't have mentioned it, only you know how women are." He smiled at her understandingly, saluted, turned and went out.

Seven hundred portable houses for various uses were sent to France by the Red Cross.

Paris, (By Mail) He wanted to buy a Christmas present for his girl back home so that she could show it to all the other girls, and destroy their peace of mind because it had come from France. He knew just what he wanted too, but every time he thought of going into the shop and trying to ask in French for the thing he wanted, he got red behind the ears. He had gone over the top in the past, unafraid, but he couldn't do this.

At last, when his leave was all up, he went into the canteen and asked the Y. M. C. A. woman there to make the purchase for him. He gave her the address and hoped it wouldn't be too much trouble to send the package.

"Of course it won't," said the Y. M.
C. A. woman who buys dozens of such gifts each week. "I'll enjoy it. I'll see that the package goes all right."

BURLESON HAS NOT ASSISTED
WIRE ECONOMY

PORTLAND, Dec. 17.—Although Postmaster General Burleson, since assuming control of telephone and telegraph lines, has put into effect tariffs, materially increasing their revenues, he has not inaugurated a single measure tending to reduce their operating expenses, according to admissions drawn from J. C. Nowell, general manager of Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company by Assistant Attorney General Bailey today at the hearing on the company's application before the public service commission for an increase in its Oregon rates.

Assistant Attorney General Bailey elicited the information under cross-examination, after Mr. Nowell had testified the company would sustain a deficit of $18,500 in the state next year, unless its rates were increased, and it came as a surprise, for respected Postmaster General Burleson has asserted in the press that he has inaugurated measures since taking over the telephone and telegraph companies that reduced their expenses, and also increased the efficiency of the service. The cross-examination of the assistant attorney general also developed that the company apparently does not anticipate that any economy steps will be undertaken by the postmaster general for its estimate of next year's operating expenses and expenses does not take them into account.

An Inside Bath
Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

This excellent, common-sense health measure being adopted by millions.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who get up with a bad breath coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store.
This will cost very little, but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.—Adv.

SEVEN BILLION
AND HALF SAID
BILL OF HUNS

LONDON, (correspondence Associated Press)—One London banker estimates that Germany will have to pay to the Allies for reparation and restoration about $7,500,000,000.
Calculated on a 5 per cent basis, with a 1 per cent sinking fund, this would mean an annual charge on the German revenue of $450,000,000. He says there can be no question of Germany's ability to meet this demand.

It is impossible, he says, discussing the subject in a newspaper article, to arrive at any approximate figure as to damages and robberies in the invaded territory. "For Belgium," the article continues, "I would put the amount of indemnity at $1, 400,000,000, of which sum levies on Belgian towns account for something like $500,000,000. I know of another estimate for Belgium which is as high as $2,000,000,000, and a Belgian of some authority estimates the amount at $800,000,000."

With regard to France he says one cannot reckon the loss suffered, "but considering that the war has been waged for the most part on French territory, and in the center of her industrial area, we may put the figure at $2,000,000,000."

Italy's damage is computed at $150,000,000. The same amount is set as Rumania's bill, including the loss of quantities of foodstuffs and damage to all wells and other property. He thinks that $50,000,000 would cover Serbia's loss, and a like sum would probably reimburse England for damages caused by air raids and bombardments.

Shipping losses are then discussed.
"I estimate," he says, "the loss of ships in figures of tonnage at $9,000,- 000, and taking the average value of $200 a ton, this would figure out at $1,800,000,000. Adding the total value of cargoes at, say, $500,000,- 000, we have the total of $2,300,000,- 000 for Great Britain alone. The shipping losses of the Allies' estimate at $500,000,000."

"I have heard an estimate which places the total of the bill against Germany at $10,000,000,000, which, like my own calculation, is of course, to some extent hypothetical. But I would put the figure myself at $7,- 500,000,000, which does not, of course, include any part of the cost of the war."

Regarding Germany's finances, he calls attention to the last pre-war budget presented to the reichstag, which showed a revenue of $875,- 000,000. The estimate for the army was $292,500,000, and for the navy $107,500,000—total $400,000,000.

"Eliminating the expenditure for armaments," the article goes on, this would allow Germany to pay approximately the interest and sinking fund on the $7,500,000,000 compensation, leaving the balance of revenue, whatever it might be, to meet the cost of conducting the empire and paying the interest on her loans, which amounted early in the present year to $27,000,000,000, a sum which has, of course, been substantially increased since."

In order to meet the Allies' bill of damages, the writer says, "it may be that Germany would have to suspend payment of interest on her own war loans—I don't say she would repudiate this obligation."
