

YANKEES WELL CLOTHED FROM GOLD ABROAD

TOERS. (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Mothers, Sisters, and sweethearts in America need not worry about protection of their soldiers in Europe against the rigor of coming winter. The Quartermasters Corps specialists in France declare to The Associated Press that the boys are better equipped than the majority of them ever were in civilian life.

Each soldier has two pairs of heavy nail clinched and dubbed shoes which are impervious to water, five pairs of wool socks, three suits wool underwear, two complete wool uniforms, two wool O. D. flannel shirts, one short but heavy overcoat trench style, and one pair of wool knit spiral puttees ten feet long.

The quartermasters Corps estimates that the average soldier in campaign wears out one pair of trousers every two months and makes provision on this basis altho the normal life of a pair of breeches is six months. Every soldier has also an overseas cap that has a felt protector to pull down over his ears. He is not allowed to wear the old issue of campaign hat that his folks at home are used to seeing. He has wool gloves and one-finger leather mittens over them and each soldier is provided with at least three blankets and a waterproof slicker or raincoat.

In addition to all this, every soldier on outdoor duty has a leather waistcoat to wear beneath his overcoat. This leather waistcoat is newly issued and much admired. Apart from what the men have on them and in their possession, the Quartermasters Corps in France has in well distributed stocks available for issue: Breeches and trousers, 1,504,000 pairs; wool coats, 200,000; underdrawers, 5,000,000; undershirts, 2,714,000; wool gloves, 2,960,000; leather waistcoats or jerkins, 1,068,000; mittens, 746,000; overcoats, 379,500; wool spiral puttees, 1,718,000; field shoes, 1,570,000; wool O. D. flannel shirts, 2,349,000; slickers, 633,000; heavy wool stockings, 7,817,000; blankets, 721,900. This after the Quartermasters Corps in France turned over to the Medical Corps in France turned over to the Medical Corps more than one hundred thousand blankets.

TOKIO. —A Japanese fireworks factory recently received an order from the French government for a million of what are called "pyrotechnic flags" which, it is supposed here, are to be displayed in celebration of the restoration of peace. The French flag is to measure 66 by 88 inches, and will be sent up by a tube 6 inches in diameter.

BUN PROPAGANDA IS STILL AT WORK

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—German propaganda aimed at the United States and conducted by Professor Brinckmann at the Hague still is at work, the state department was informed today in a dispatch from the Netherlands capital.

The report to the department said Professor Brinckmann is being liberally supplied with money and that a vicious anti-American document is being circulated by the Brinckmann bureau. The money to pay the expenses of the propaganda office is being expended thru German official channels, according to the department's statement.
