WOMEN ENTER
POLITICS NOW
THRU ENGLAND

LONDON, (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The women of about fifteen women candidates for election to the House of Commons impressed a new and interesting phase to the electioneering this month.
Some of the women were running with no party under the nose but with a personal ticket recommendation in the British Parliament gave no signs in the old windsor sandwich days of the pre-war suffrage campaign. One candidate announced that she was seeking a "seat for her body" while another, the widow of an army officer announced as her platform a there and systematic being of the German.

Foremost among the women candidates was Ethelreda Penrhys whose activities as a militant leader before the war have won international acclaim. She was one of the initia-tors of Premier David Lloyd George and ran on a platform of increasing prosperity and the alleviation of poverty by increased production of wealth so that there will be enough wealth enough for all.

Mrs. Horneridow of a British army colonel, as an independent, opposed Henry Asquith, the former premier.
She characterized Mr. Asquith as a "wash-out" whose record was "not good" and announced that she stood for good jobs for soldiers and sailors and for the reconstruction of education.

Mrs. Charlotte Despard who ran as labor candidate for Battersea is a sister of Field Marshal Viscount John French, Viceroys of Ireland. She was twice in prison for her suffrage activities before the war. Many of the boys whom she mothered in her first school club in England returned from the war in khaki to support her candidacy which was based on the labor party's program with special stress on reforms affecting the welfare of mothers and children and the economic, social and professional freedom of women. She believes in state care for children.

SAN FRANCISCO
MAN GAINS

FRED SANDERS SUFFERED THREE DEEDS OF DOLLARS.

"When I began taking Tanlac I only weighed one hundred and thirty-six pounds," said Fred W. Saunders while in the Owl Drug Store at 710 Market St., San Francisco recently.
"I know tip the beam at one hundred and sixty, which gives me an actual gain of twenty-four pounds in two months time."

By agreement the best diet was set aside and the opinion reached on the constitutionality of the ordinance substituted.

"I have suffered with my stomach thirty years now. In fact, almost as far back as I can remember, I have suffered from indigestion and constipation and these troubles have had me down and out many a time, especially during the past fifteen years.
My stomach was so upset that nothing would agree with me and at times I couldn't even retain water on my stomach. I was bloated nearly all the time by the gas which formed after my meals and I simply suffered torture from the pains caused by it. I have tried about every diet a person could be put on. I could eat no fruits or meats and the very sight of eggs would upset my stomach. At one time I had a nervous breakdown caused by these same troubles. I was laid up for six months at this time and spent over seven hundred dollars for treatment and medicines before I could get to work again. Since then I reckon I have spent twice that much more without getting more than a little passing relief. I finally had to give up my trade as boller maker because the constant pounding and jar affected me so I was afraid of another break-down."

Flu Is Reflected
In R. C. Report

The following goods were received from the local chapter from the Red Cross Auxiliary Creston, Iowa, during November 20th to December 20th:

Fort Klamath: Twenty-five blouses size 22; sweaters, 3 pair; stockings Merrill—Eighteen sweaters, 3 pair socks.

By: Thirteen sweaters, 3 pair socks Henderson: Twelve cotton undershirts Mills Addition: Four pajama suits 3 woman's dresses, 3 pajamas, 3 pair socks.

Malin: Five woman's dresses.

got so I couldn't sleep at night and tired off until I weighed only one-half and thirty-six pounds.

"Seeing Tanlac advertised in the papers, and as it was a new name I decided to try it. Now instead of 136 I have 150. It has done no bad work since I've been on it. The other things I have taken have been for the last ten days and together they have not been as effective as Tanlac. I feel much better and my big gain in weight shows how well the food agrees with me. At first all seemed almost perfectly normal and I feel well again. I feel like a log. I sleep well and get up in the mornings bright and ready for a big day's work. Tanlac certainly is some medicine and it may just put me right on the way to the top again. I could have saved me a world of misery and pain I losing both the last three years."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co. and in Lorella by James Mere Co.
