SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

WE EAT TOO MUCH MEAT WHICH CLOGS KIDNEYS, THEN THE BACK HURTS

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble. Adv.

SHIPBUILDER GIVES PRAISE TO THE PRESS

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—Chas. M. Schwab in retiring recently from the post of Director General of the Emergency Fleet Corporation expressed his appreciation of the co-operation of the press of the country and the newspaper support of his efforts. As host at a luncheon of the heads of departments of the Corporation he said:

"I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the press of Philadelphia and to the press of the entire country for their splendid co-operation. The spontaneity of this co-operation was for me an inspiration which ever served to lighten the great tasks that confronted me during my service as Director General. Newspapers thruout the land worked in concert to give the proper impetus to the shipbuilding program—their work was constructive and American to the core. At all times the newspaper workers, from the managing editor to the reporter, display an intense, patriotic desire to aid in making the work of the Emergency Fleet Corporation a success.

"The splendid work of the newspaper is reflected in the shipyards where hundreds of thousands of employees are turning out our ships. The newspapers did a lion's share in the work of keeping up the morale of the shipbuilders and for this I am a grateful more than words can express. I am proud of the news of my country and of the work that thousands of individual newspapers men everywhere did to mould public opinion in favor of the shipbuilding program."

At the Theaters

Mary Pickford's forthcoming photoplay, "How Could You, Jean?" shows the little star in an entirely new role, that of an almost grown-up society girl who turns cook when fate deals her a blank in the form of a depleted bank account. The story is by Eleanor or Hoyt Hainard and appeared serially in one of the popular magazines. The adaptation was made by Frances Marion, that clever young manipulator of photoplay plots who has to her credit most of the Pickford successes of the last year. The direction was in the hands of William D. Taylor, producer of the Tom Sawyer stories in which Jack Pickford gained added fame.

It is heralded as one of the brightest and cleverest photoplays in which "America's Sweetheart" has ever appeared and it will be presented at the Star Theatre tonight.

Stars and Stripes Most Popular In England

LONDON. (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—If there is not friendly feeling toward the United States in England the flag of London speak untruthfully. There are millions of flags. Where all of them come from is a mystery. They simply appeared from everywhere and nowhere. Like a barrage of color on the day when the armistice was signed. No coronation or royal jubilee has seen such a marvel of cloth.

Hardly a house, however small, and humble, in the whole more than 200 miles radius of the largest city in the world was without its decorations. And the Stars and Stripes were more conspicuous than any flag except the Union Jack.

Wherever two flags hung together the American emblem was one of them. The French flag ranked next but only a respectable third. Waiking thru the streets the American colors saluted the eye everywhere. Big ones, large enough to hide an ordinary house, hung in front of house, apartment stores and factories. Very many people of the hundreds of thousands who tied flags to their hats and coats and umbrellas, even to their dogs, sported the Stars and Stripes. They were particularly popular with the girls but workmen, old ladies and British soldiers wore them. This seems to spell appreciation.

Some of the sadder newspapers which specialize in denouncing mankind lately over the armistice, celebration in Trafalgar Square on Nov. 11, "Property was destroyed." This was the burden of the plaint. It was typical. Revellers, chiefly Australian and Canadian soldiers, with a sprinkling of British and a few American, "bullied" a bonfire. They used whatever came to hand. They smashed around the Nelson Monument, attempting to citizens to buy car-bombs were the first to feed the flames. Then a wooden hut, the property of the V. M. C. A., was trampled to the mire. Next came half a dozen German cannon, compassed with green, purple and yellow ribbons, and shouting from St. James' Park close by.

There were many policemen about but they were helpless. The soldiers picked them up and threw them off the scene. Then the fire engines came out and turned streams on the blaze. The Australians turned the hose on the astonished firemen and sent them off their feet with holes in their ammunition.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin, a natural rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—Adv.

SEATTLE OFFICER TELLS OF TROUBLE

"A medicine that will do as much for suffering people as this Tanlac has done for me is certainly worth recommending to the public and I can't say too much for it," said John W. Collins, 62 1214 East Columbia Street, Seattle, while in a Bartell drug store, recently. Mr. Collins has been a resident of Seattle for the past thirteen years, and is a popular member of the police force.

"When I began taking Tanlac," Mr. Collins continued, "I weighed only one hundred and fifty pounds and was in such a bad condition that I could not patrol my beat. But, I now weigh one hundred and seventy-five pounds—have gained twenty-five pounds—and am feeling fine. I have had trouble with my stomach for several years. Nearly everything I would eat disagreed with me. My food would almost invariably sour and keep me filled with gas and misery most all the time. Then some time ago I had a fall of about thirty feet which came near putting me out of commission. On top of this I had an attack of grippe and I simply got to where I was just about down and out. My whole body seemed full of neuralgia and rheumatism and I ached all over. Every joint in me ached and the pain in the left side of my back, over my kidneys were so severe at times that I could hardly stand it. Nothing did me any good and finally I just had to give up my position, stop working entirely and do nothing but try to find relief. My sleep was very poor and I kept falling off in weight until I got down to one hundred and fifty pounds.

"Then I got uneasy about my condition, went to Colorado and stayed there for a while but never did get any better until I began taking Tanlac and then I commenced climbing right up. I have used six bottles now and have gotten rid of all that neuralgia and rheumatism entirely and now feel an ache or a pain. My appetite is great and my stomach is in such a good shape that I can eat just anything I want without the least trouble afterwards. I now sleep like a log every night and am in splendid condition in every way. I am back to work tomorrow, and I heartily recommend Tanlac to every body."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co. and in Corvallis by James Mery Co.
