MEN'S CLOTHES EXPECTED TO GET CHEAPER

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—George Lytton, of Chicago, one of the biggest of the country's retail dealers in men's clothing and furnishings, believes that a recession in prices from the war maximum is already under way.

Mr. Lytton so testified as a witness in the picking house arbitration jobbers of whom he said, are now making voluntary reductions in prices, and in some cases have reduced the price of goods already ordered at stated prices but not yet delivered. Clothing he thought would decrease but little during 1919, as retailers have already paid war prices for such stocks.

The witness said that a suit which sold for $20 in March, 1917 now costs from $22.50 to $25, and a $30 suit $35. Shoes worth $5 in 1917 now bring $7.50.

ARNOTT SUFFERED FOR 30 YEARS

"NOTHING ON EARTH LIKE TANLAC," HE SAYS—TROUBLES OVERCOME.

"Well, sir a neighbor of mine put me onto this Tanlac a few weeks ago, and it's the finest thing I have ever run across in the sixty-seven years of my life," declared Thomas F. Arnott, of 124 South Ray St., Spokane, while in Murgitroy's Drug store recently.

"I have suffered for thirty years," he continued, "with a bad stomach and other troubles and spent a large part of what I made for treatments and medicines, but never did get any better until I began taking Tanlac."

Everything I would eat hurt me and the gas on my stomach would rise up into my chest and cut my breath short. Sometimes my heart would beat so hard and fast that I would just have to cease for breath. I was uneasy all the time for fear of heart trouble. I would have blind dizzy spells when I could hardly stand on my feet. I also suffered with headaches and simply felt played out nearly all the time.

"I can now eat what I want without it hurting me for the first time in thirty years, and since my food digests and the gas has stopped forming on my stomach I don't have any more trouble with palpitation and shortness of breathe. Why, before I took Tanlac the least exercise would completely tire me out, but now I can walk or work all day long and feel none the worse from it. I guess I have taken a barrel of medicines of different kinds and lived on a diet, almost starving myself, trying to get rid of my trouble, but I suffered just the same until I got Tanlac. So I know what Tanlac has done for me and I appreciate it enough to tell everybody about it. In my opinion there's nothing on earth like it."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorella by James Merc. Co.

"Y" HUT NEAR CHATEAU THIERRY

Thirty shrapnel holes in this 'Y' hut near Chateau Thierry testify to the heroism of the Y. M. C. A. workers in France. The building does not look like the picture for this photograph was taken before the German forces approached Chateau Thierry.

Japs Admire Yankee War Accomplishments

TOKIO. (Correspondence of the Associated Press) The rapidity with which the United States prepared for war and the magnitude and success of her military operations continue to draw expressions of admiration from Japanese. Generally speaking, the public in Japan regarded the United States as a peace-loving nation, which having no bent for war, could never do much in the building up of a great army.

The wonderful transformation of America in the war is the subject of many articles by prominent publicists. Thus, Dr. Shigeo Suyehiro, professor of Kyoto University, writes:

"There is no disguising the fact that prior to the war the Japanese did not believe in the military strength of America, but the present titanic struggle has demonstrated beyond all doubt the error of the Japanese estimate. The United States has become a great military power at a bound and her navy is only second to that of Great Britain. The financial resources of America are something tremendous. It is stated that America would be able to keep the war going for a quarter of a century at the rate of expenditure which she spent for the first year. Nor is this all.

"The Americans are as great spiritually as their country is almost limitless in her resources. Just imagine that the Americans—whom some Japanese consider as slavish worshippers of Mammon—working for their country at an allowance of $1 a year, they endured the hardship of meatless and wheatless days in order to obtain a supply of surplus provisions available for the Allies; and no discontent voice was raised against the proposed restriction of the manufacture of liquor.

"The material and spiritual sacrifices made by the Americans in the cause of the war as evidenced in these and other things are really wonderful, showing as they do the greatness of America and her people."

Dr. Suyehiro thought that it would be the height of absurdity for Japan to pick a quarrel with such a great country without a sufficient cause being.

Japan should stand for an open door policy in the Far East, but in return she should receive similar treatment in Indo-China, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. He said that America had been excluding Japanese immigrants but he thought it very doubtful whether she was sufficiently justified in so doing. Japan he said should strive to have the United States correct her attitude not by brute force but by appealing to her sense of justice and humanity, and this he applied with equal force to British and French territory where discrimination against the Japanese is in force.

The Red Cross has sent 2,375 women workers and 2,921 men workers to France for specialized work. Most of them are volunteers, but highly skilled.

GERMANS FLYING WHITE FLAG, TELL WHERE ROADS ARE MINED

On land as at sea every precaution was taken after the signing of the armistice to offset German treachery. This photograph shows Hun officers passing thru the lines held by Canadians. They were sent to point out the location of mines they had laid on the roads over which the allied troops had to pass. At the driver's side is the white flag, which insured the safety of the Kaiser's emissaries while on this duty.

VALE NOW BOOSTING STRAHORN RAILROAD

"It is not too early to begin the Vale Enterprise, the first agitation for the completion of the Central Oregon railroad from Coquille to Bend and Klamath Falls," according to the editor of this issue, "not only is it well-timed, but will be identical with Vale and other contracting work in the town." Oregon Journal.

The American Red Cross provided one out of every ten dollars in France with a Christmas gift.
