

HOW THE TURK FIGHTS

One of the most barbarous methods of warfare that has ever been witnessed was that employed by the Turkish forces in Palestine when they attempted to stop the victorious British drive. Sharpened stakes were stuck in the ground at an angle of 45 degrees, behind which steel hoops were fastened upright. Behind these ditches were dug, more stakes planted, and the whole backed up with barbed wire entanglements.

Hindenburg and Bill Careful For Safety

DEVELOPMENTS SHOW THAT THESE PRETENTIOUS WARRIORS HAD SUNKEN SAFETY VAULTS FAR FROM THE DANGER OF BURSTING SHELLS, WHICH THEY HAUNTED

SPA, Belgium.—(Correspondence Associated Press)—The former headquarters of the Kaiser and his general staff is disclosing some extraordinary queer facts these days about the men who engineered the world war. Take for one, Hindenburg, Germany's superman, about whom reams have been written, disclosing him as a fearless Napoleon. As a matter of fact, he spent a great deal of time in a wonderfully constructed "funk hole" or dugout underneath the grounds of his villa here.

Spa is so far from where battle lines used to be that it was almost a day's journey in a fast motor car to get within sound of the big guns. The Kaiser, too, had a similar living place at Neubois, near a comic opera trench system, about which he is said to have paraded for the benefit of motion pictures. At each of their villas there were delicate electrical instruments which would set up a furious buzzing whenever an airplane was anywhere near. At the first sound from this contrivance Hindenburg and the Kaiser used to run to shelter, it is reported. People who worked about Hindenburg's establishment said that he was continually running for cover.

America's representatives on the International armistice commission are now occupying Hindenburg's headquarters, and they were amazed when they discovered this underground refuge of the great warrior. The entrance was thru the dining room. From there a flight of steps led down to a tiled anteroom which now serves as a very good pantry for the Americans.

From the tiled room there was another flight of steps that led down to the real dugout. This was blocked by a huge iron door about one inch in thickness, which could be looked from the inside only. Within it was fastened by a double bolt which would do credit to an American banking establishment. The dugout itself was luxuriously equipped.

The emperor's dugout was similar except that it was much deeper under ground, and there were two entrances, one thru the villa and the other from the grounds. The main entrance was from the house, and led down a long flight of steps.

Another touch to the picture was added today when a German resident of Aix-la-Chapelle told the correspondent of the Associated Press that the crown prince spent virtually all his time in amusement.

"GOTT MIT UNS" SCRAWLED IN WRECKED HOME BY HUN HORDES BEFORE DRIVEN FROM CAMBRIA

This is the first photograph received in this country showing the effects of the German occupation of Cambria. After wantonly destroying the furniture in the room the Hun wreckers left a sample of their brand of humor by scrawling on the head of the bed, "Gott Mit Uns." The destruction wrought in this house is a fair sample of what occurred all over the city before the invaders were driven out.

OVERMAN FORGOT THE BABIES IN DAYLIGHT BILL

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—Daylight saving while a blessing to most people, was a curse to children. They awoke at the same time, but because the sun was shining at bed time, were allowed to sit up an extra hour, according to Dr. Herbert Young, director of the Baby Hygiene Association.

One or two hours' sleep per day was lost by children during the daylight saving schedule, said Dr. Young in a recent report on child's mental development to Dr. Eugene Kelley, commissioner of the state board of health.

"Sleep is of vital importance in baby's routine, and comes second only to feeding," declares Dr. Young. "The newborn infant sleeps most of the time, 20 out of the 24 hours; at six months, 16 to 20 hours; and at one year, 12 to 16 hours."

"Children should take an afternoon nap until attendance at school makes it impossible. A child may not always sleep, but should have this period of rest and quiet, even though awake. Sleeplessness is usually due to too much physical or mental exercise."

WILLIAM J. BRYAN AGAIN BOBBING UP

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 30.—William Jennings Bryan, here assisting in purging of the Democratic party and the elimination of all Wall street and plutocratic connections, wants the resolutions, adopted at the Baltimore convention, barring Belmont, Ryan and associates from the party, enforced to the letter, and such men as Haruch and similar leaders eliminated in order to end the domination of the solid South and Wall street. He has had many conferences here with congressmen and senators, and is for the nomination of Champ Clark or some other Western man for president in 1920. Many of Bryan's friends were defeated for the next congress, and they are being instructed when they come home, to arrange for an anti-Wall street and anti-South combination of the Democratic party in 1920.

PERSHING GRATEFUL TO THE Y. M. C. A.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—General Pershing has sent the following message to E. C. Carter, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of the American expeditionary forces: "With a deep feeling of gratitude for the enormous contribution which the Y. M. C. A. has made to the moral and physical welfare of the American army, all ranks join me in sending you Christmas greetings and cordial wishes for the new year."

U. S. TRADE IN SOUTH AMERICA IS MULTIPLIED

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—United States manufacturers and exporters have increased their trade in Brazil and other South American countries by more than 160 per cent since the beginning of the war, according to J. W. Sanger, Trade Commissioner of the United States Government Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, who recently returned from a survey of the business opportunities south of the equator.

"Imagine ten large stores in one big city and one of these stores doing more business than all the other nine combined," declared Mr. Sanger, "and that will give you some idea of the position we are in today. It is an amazing record. We are now selling South American countries more than half of everything they import. Our total export trade is now counted in billions of dollars."

The Commissioner said that "with the signing of a peace treaty a practical certainty within six months or a year, it is not a day too soon to begin making definite plans to meet the keen competition in foreign trade that must come almost immediately." The hundreds of millions of dollars invested in new factories and ships, he said, mean that America must find fresh outlets for her enterprise and industry.

"We need more and better direct representation of our manufacturers in the important trade centers of Brazil and other South American countries," he said. "This may come about thru taking the fullest advantage of the new Webb Export Trade Act or in other practical ways."

"We also need a fast and regular freight service to every important port of Latin America," said Mr. Sanger. "Without it we will be as crippled as a department store that depends upon casual messenger boys to make its deliveries. Then again we must be prepared to meet the actual needs of these countries regarding the extension of credits."

"The biggest single incentive to foreign trade is foreign investments. Unfortunately our holdings in South America are practically negligible. In a short time our immense surplus capital will seek investment. Brazil in particular, needs this capital and will pay us handsomely for it."

"How many people in the United States know that Brazil alone is larger than all the United States; yet, except for its thinly settled coast line, is practically untouched? It is one of the richest countries in the world and is destined to develop along similar lines to our own country in the past hundred years. It has every natural resource that we had, and in addition others that nature did not give us. Our talking machines, typewriters, sewing machines, safety razors and a multitude of other American products are standard with Brazilians today. It is up to us to make just as well known the thousands of other products that we make and that they need just as much."

To accomplish this, Mr. Sanger said it was necessary for American manufacturers to advertise their goods "down there." In South America, he said advertising methods are crude and much as they were in the United States 30 or more years ago.

"We have scarcely even begun to use this power, this promoter of sales and good will, in South America," continued Mr. Sanger. "I have unmistakable evidence that the people of that country respond amazingly even to the crude forms of advertising offered them."

"Buenos Aires, the capital of Argentina, has splendid newspapers with circulations ranging around 150,000 daily. Brazilian dailies have proven excellent mediums for advertising."

"The biggest thing that could happen to advertising down there would be for broad-gauged American advertising men, to take more interest in it. These countries await the stimulus of American advertising genius properly adjusted to meet their needs. But let the American advertising men put this in their note books. Spanish is the language of all South America except Brazil, where Portuguese is spoken. Brazilians are offended if you write or speak to them in Spanish."

Says Huns Bombarded Three Hundrey Churches

The Rt. Rev. Eugene Louis Julien, bishop of Arras, now in the United States, says the Huns not only destroyed his cathedral, but bombarded 300 churches in his diocese. In some cases the bombs by which they blew up the churches were so timed that crowds in the edifices were injured.

LAST CHANCE NOW TO BUY W. S. S.

PORTLAND, Dec. 30.—W. S. S. sales were swelled by the suggestion that War Savings Stamps should be substituted for cash as Christmas presents. Reports received at the state W. S. S. headquarters this morning showed that the W. S. S. investments aggregated December 24, $74,731. The average for previous days of the month had been in the neighborhood of $25,000.

The total of reported sales, according to the latest report is $16,008, 963 for the state as a whole. The state's quota is $17,253,749. The shortage, accordingly is $1,244,772. These remain but two days to complete the quota. Thousands of pledges made last June if kept, would put the state over and prevent defeat in the only patriotic cause in which the state has not made to date, a 100 per cent service record.

The purpose of the National War Savings committee is to create an army of savers who will by saving, release labor and materials for the use of the government in the war, and who will lend their savings to the government to prosecute the war.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

SAYS EACHACHE IS SIGN YOU HAVE BEEN EATING TOO MUCH MEAT

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and laggard. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them. Like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

HUNS DREW VICTORY PICTURE TOO SOON

LONDON, (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—One of the treasured possessions of the British Admiralty is a German drawing showing a U-boat in the Thames before London with the famous inscription "Es Kommt ein Tag" (There comes a day). It was obtained by a member of the Admiralty intelligence from a source and by a method which British naval officers are still keeping secret.

The picture shows a London skyline with the houses of Parliament and the dome of St. Paul's cathedral. In the foreground is the German submarine flying a large imperial ensign. On the conning tower are three sailors facing the skyline with their clenched fists menacingly raised above their heads. On the deck is another sailor in the same pose.

One line under the picture is "Unterseeboot vor London" (Submarine before London) to which the officer who got the picture could not refrain from adding "Ich denke nicht" (I don't think). It is announced the picture, inscriptions and all but with the imperial ensign replaced by the British white ensign will be reproduced and furnished to any newspaper that desires to publish it.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

NOBODY CAN TELL WHEN YOU
DARKEN GRAY, FADED HAIR
WITH SAGE TEA

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens hair naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is a guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infects the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply cannot get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.—Adv.
