

Preliminary Plan for Final Loan Started

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17.—At a conference here beginning today preliminary plans will be considered for the fifth and final campaign for Liberty Loan bonds and for the current year's drive for War Savings Stamps. Consolidation of the working organizations for war bonds and savings stamps has been determined upon by the treasury department at Washington. The drive to put over the Victory Loan, by which name the final issue of war bonds will be known, will be in April.

Tentatively, it is proposed that the coming loan, exclusive of savings stamps, will be for $3,000,000,000, or one-third greater than the fourth government bond issue last October. On this basis Oregon's quota will be about $45,000,000, or 43 per cent as much as all four war bond issues subscribed for in this state. Similarly Portland individuals and institutions will be required to subscribe for approximately $24,000,000, compared with $57,000,000 of war bonds already bought by them.

The treasury department has fixed $4,000,000,000 as the limit of this year's issue of war savings stamps, double last year's offering. Restriction has been modified as to the limit of "baby war bonds" which may be purchased at one time or in the aggregate, but $1,000 will be the maximum permissible purchase. They may be taken in certificate form, paying 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly for five years to obviate the handling of stamps. They will be in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000.

Eff You Don't Watch Out!

MRS. HATTIE HAMAKER
Guess the Spanish Influenza's come to our house to stay.
At our front door a sign's tacked up to keep our friends away.
We dassn't go off our front porch, ner in the yard, ner street;
Ner go to shows, ner down to skate, fer fear 'at we might meet
A lot of other children 'at's full of germs and bugs.

That won't stay home, ner wear their masks' ner take the Dr.'s drugs,
Ner listen to the tales their parents tells about
An' the Spanish Flu 'at gits you
EF
YOU
WATCH
OUT!

Onct they was a lot of folks that wouldn't mind the rules,
An' when they gaddied out at night, just like a lot of mules,
The mayor heerd 'em braggin', an' the H. O. heerd 'em sneer,
An' when the cop got on his beat, he said "it's mighty queer."
They seeked 'em in the pool room, an' alley ways an' hall,
An' they seeked 'em in the sivers, but they wasn't there at all,
An' all they ever found was thist their masks, an' I've no doubt
The Spanish Flu 'll git 'em
EF
OUT!

An' our family Dr. says when yer head begins to swim,
An' you feel full of aches an' pains, you better send for him,
An' let him fill you up on pills, an' place the quarantine;
An' he will kill the nasty bugs that treats yer system mean;
An' you better mind yer parents, an' yer nurses fond an' sane,
An' take yer pills, an' eat yer soup, an' never once complain;
An' pay no mind to idle tales the neighbors tell about,
Er the Spanish Flu 'll git yer.

GRAIN MEN ASK CHANGE IN LAW

DECLARE THAT PRESENT GOVERNMENT REGULATION REGARDING BUYING OF WHEAT WOULD HARM COUNTRYMAN.

PORTLAND, Jan. 17.—Charging that the present laws and regulations concerning the handling of the 1919 wheat crop would not only ruin the country dealer and perhaps put the country miller out of business, as well as demoralize the general trade, grain men assembled at the annual meeting of the Northwest Grain Dealer's association at the Chamber of Commerce have voiced their protest and demanded a change.

Grain dealers claimed that under the regulations the government purchased wheat at established prices only at certain city terminals and then was authorized to sell these supplies at whatever the world's market basis was at that point.

The country dealer could not purchase wheat in the country because he must pay the government price and then would be forced to resell in the demoralized market at terminals. The country miller would be in a similar position in his wheat purchases but would be forced to sell his flour at terminals on the basis of what would probably be sharply lower wheat values.

RAIN NOW TAKING FROST FROM EARTH

The warm gentle rain which fell in this district last night and this morning is fast taking the frost out of the ground, according to those who have had occasion to dig. The earth has been frozen to a depth of about eighteen inches previous to the present thaw, it is reported.

The farmers especially in the dry land districts will rejoice over the prospect of getting the much needed moisture into the ground which has become very dry during the past two seasons.

Loggers on the other hand will find the present condition much to their disadvantage in working in the woods with their sleds.

SLOGANS OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN BASIS OF 1919 THRIFT CAMPAIGN

San Francisco, January 16.—Tomorrow the 1919 Thrift campaign formally begins throughout the United States, and in every city and hamlet the memory of the world's pioneer exponent of thrift—Benjamin Franklin—will be honored. It will be the 213th anniversary of Franklin's birth and his thrift slogans will have a prominent part in the exercises that are to be held by the more than 150,000 War Savings societies in schools, libraries, theaters and other public places.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

Franklin's photograph appears on every 1919 thrift stamp.

The government plans to make the present year's campaign perpetuate the habit of thrift begun through the pressure of war and thereby preserve one of the greatest benefits that have come to the people of America.

Among the Franklin sayings that have urged thrift since the early days of the republic are the following:

"If you would be wealthy think of saving as well as getting."
"Save and have."
"Look before, or you'll find yourself behind."

"All things are cheap to the saving, dear to the wasteful."
"Beware of small expenses: a small leak will sink a great ship."
"Gain may be temporary and uncertain, but expense is constant and certain."

"It is easier to suppress the first desire than to satisfy all that follow it."

The Famous Clincher Cushion Heel

Makes Top Notch Rubbers Last Longer

Most rubbers usually break through at the heel first. The makers of Top Notch Rubbers have overcome this by inventing and patenting a special method of construction which so strongly reinforces the heel that it will wear as long as the sole. Soles and uppers are pure gum.

Migratory Bird Law Said Still Effective

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The American Game Protective association, the sportsmen's national organization, brands as erroneous a dispatch just sent out to the effect that the supreme court at Washington has declared the federal migratory bird law unconstitutional. The statement of the association continues as follows:

"The fact is that the so-called federal migratory bird law was repealed on July 3, 1917, when the president signed the Canadian treaty enabling act. The new measure which superseded the old one is a better and bigger law with exactly the same object as the former law lacked, an efficient machinery for its enforcement and the governments of this country and Canada, are now squarely united in the protection of all the birds of the continent, north of the Rio Grande.

"What happened at Washington was that the solicitor general asked to have dismissed his own motion before the Supreme court, which was to test the constitutionality of the original migratory bird law. It was no use arguing the case, because there is no longer any Weeks-McLean law. "The federal regulations, therefore which absolutely protect in this country the birds which are available to agriculture and which make open seasons for the migratory birds which are shot for sport, are still in effect, and the federal department of justice will vigorously prosecute any violations of these regulations.

Glorious Enemies—Better Friends

When we think of the inexpressibly glorious achievements of the British Army and Navy in the war for the preservation of the liberties and civilization of mankind, it makes us inexpressibly proud to have been able to put out such a gallant foe in the days we used to scrap. And when we think of the matchless gallantry of the Yankee boys who have fought so wonderfully side by side with Dixie's sons, it makes us proud that we were able to lick their fathers until we were so exhausted that we couldn't proceed with the job.—Houston Post.
