POLITICAL PROPAGANDA IN THE SCHOOLS

The following article from the "National Republican" will make interesting reading for many. There is quite a large number of the paper referred to distributed in the schools of this city. The subscriptions thereto were procured and given under the impression that it was a non-partisan publication, devoted to chronicling current events for the information and instruction of the young pupils of the schools. But evidently this was pure fraud, for the article quoted below is not the first, for it has been preceded by many others making bitter attacks on the republican party, and going so far as to accuse some of its greatest leaders as being guilty of near pro-Germanism, among them being Senator Lodge, the late ex-President Roosevelt, and others.

The school authorities should exercise greater care in the introduction into the school rooms of publications about which they are unfamiliar, and even then each issue should be closely censored. The country is filled with schemes for the introduction of all kinds of isms into the public schools, and every precaution should be taken by the authorities to see that some of these are not introduced into the schools under false colors.

The article in question follows: Another evidence of the tendency to introduce political propaganda in the public schools is shown in the issue of "Current Events," a school paper issued from Chicago, Ill., and said to have a larger circulation than any other school paper in the world.
This paper is subscribed for by school boards, teachers and pupils, and distributed in large quantities as a condensed review of public events. Here is what it has to say about the election result of November 5th:

"Everywhere people are asking, 'What did it? Why did the people vote as they did? Why did they sharply rebuke an administration that had done such great things and was just concluding a successful war?
Many explanations were offered, but none seemed completely to fit the facts. Perhaps the most plausible was the theory that great numbers of the people didn't like the peace noises, resented their polite tone and didn't think the time had come to end the war. These people were reinforced by voters at the other extreme—the Germans, pro-Germans and pacifists, all of them voted for the republican congressional candidates as a means of rebuking President Wilson for his anti-Germanism." Tumulty himself couldn't have done a better job of ascribing the democratic defeat to the ignorant and unpatriotic vote. If "Current Events" wants to hand out that sort of stuff to school children, well and good, but if it intends to continue such a policy it should not be distributed under a non-partisan label.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH
Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments.
Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will be open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely.
No more dullness, headache; no hawking, snuffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate thru every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

TALK OF THE TOWN

BY U. NO.

In the early days there were always jolly times. The population was small and the residents of those days looked upon each others more as members of the same family than as neighbors and friends. Of course, they had their quarrels, just like any family, and they had their fun, too.
Whenever any of these old-timers, as we of recent residence here are wont to call them, not in a disparaging sense, but more in the nature of tribute, get together, you can get them started, you are sure to hear some real, good, interesting stories. I was fortunate enough to be present at one of these meetings yesterday between "Dave" Shook of Dairy and "Dick" Hammond of this city. Both are of the very early days of this community, and both have had long and interesting experiences.

Dick, or the "Colonel," as I like to call him, told of a trip he made to the northern end of the county many years ago, and on the way down to the county seat one of his friends asked him to bring him back a bottle of "Oh, be joyful!" Dick, of course agreed, for it was one of the rules of the day that you must supply the needs of your neighbor, whatever they might be.

When the Colonel started home one of the last purchases he made was the bottle of John Barleycorn for his friend. He put it in the breast pocket of his coat, but failed to drive the cork in securely, and in the trip back home on horseback the joggling forced the stopper out of the bottle.
When the Colonel reached Yainax his friend, who by this time had worked up a pretty good thirst, met the Colonel, but he had already reached the dining room, followed by his thirsty friend, who took a seat beside him.

The sub-agent at that time had quite a religious streak in his make-up, and every meal was preceded by prayer, the blessing on this day being unusually long. Finally the meal was over, and both men adjourned to the rear of the building, where the Colonel reached for and brought forth the bottle, the thirsty one in the meantime remarking:

"Lord, Dick, I thought he never would finish that prayer. I'm so thirsty I could die."

By this time the bottle was in plain sight, and the Colonel says he never will forget the look of amazement that came over the face of his friend.
He lived for many years after, but the Colonel could never convince him that the loss of the whiskey was an accident, and even though the Colonel was known as a teetotaler, there was one man who believed to his last day that he drank the whiskey on the way back.

DRESS WARM AND
KEEP FEET DRYTELLS RHEUMATISM SUFFERERS TO TAKE SALTS AND GET RID OF URIC ACID

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating thru the system eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinges of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.
