SPRING LAKE DRIPPINGS

Mrs. Chas. Mack called on Mrs. E. A. Schreiner Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Folsom's daughter from California is home on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Steeman and daughter Cleo spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart.

CHANGE IN ARRANGEMENTS

Owing to the demand for seats on Saturday and Sunday evenings at the Liberty theater, the management wishes to announce that on these two evenings children cannot be admitted on the parents' tickets, as heretofore, but will have an opportunity at each matinee on Saturday and Sunday to take advantage of this privilege, as a child under 12 years of age will be admitted free with each 20c ticket at all matinees and evening performances except Saturday and Sunday night. Children will see the same show, complete, as would be seen in the evening, and gives the grown-ups a better chance for seats. In addition, a special comedy for children will be shown every Saturday matinee. 12-4t

SPECIFICATIONS FOR PERFECT WOMAN GIVEN

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Here are the specifications for a perfect woman, as agreed upon by Howard Chandler Christie, Penryhn Stanlawa and Harrison Fisher, who pick the prize beauty of New York at the Chu Chin Chew ball.

Nose—A pug nose will ruin the chance of a woman with the body of a Venus Christie declares. The nose may be Roman or Greek or any other accepted style, but it must not be pug or hooked.

Chin—Strength is required in the chin—not masculine strength, but feminine strength. Crown prince chin will not pass muster; the judges agree.

Eyes—They must have the luster of intelligence.

Hair—Thick and lustrous—any shade; natural shade, that is.

Head—It must sit with dignity on her shoulders.

Torso—The artists agreed that facial beauty alone would not make a winner. Every movement, graceful or otherwise will be counted in the score, Stanlawa declared.

Limbs (legs)—They must not be too long nor too short for the body. The same goes for arms.

"A woman's limbs may be too long for her body and her head either too small or large. She won't do," said Christie.

"Her nose may be pug, her hair thick and lustrous, her chin weak, but her body perfect. She won't do."

"We will look for a woman who may be tall or short but whose limbs fit the length of her body, whose head sits with dignity, whose nose fits her facial composition, whose eyes have life and above all, whose face radiates in intelligence."

Penryhn Stanlawa said: "A woman may win the golden apple even if her face is not so beautiful as some other. We will watch for a woman who combines grace and beauty and poise, carriage and movements when walking and dancing."

"There will be many beautiful women at the ball," said Harrison Fisher. "Of course they may be of all sizes and shapes and the selection of a queen of beauty will be difficult. Facial beauty alone does not make a winner."

Shoe Prices and Leather

Why with some commodities falling in price we cannot escape the conclusion that shoe prices will remain at least on the present basis throughout the year.

The supply of cattle in the world, in ratio to population, has greatly decreased during the war. There is no surplus of hides, skins, leather or shoes, and, in fact, a shortage exists in a majority of the European countries.

Packer hides in this country are extremely scarce, and practically the same conditions apply to country hides. Other countries appear willing to pay higher prices for South American and other foreign hides than the United States government has fixed.

There is no surplus of sole leather of good quality, and this also applies to upper leather. Kidskins are in short supply, and evidently are going to advance in price.

Cost of production, including labor, is higher than ever before.

It would therefore seem that footwear being in short supply the world over that the present fair prices would continue. No nation on the face of the globe gives to its people for the equivalent of a day's wage the value in footwear you can get in America. Think this over—and get Shoe Service from

SAFETY ACCURACY

Dearest Public:

Again I take my faithful pen to thank you for the timely aid, infinite small tho it was.

Tomorrow I shall tell you of a girl, her lover and the birth stone.

Say, Wetter, why don't yah get an umbrella? We got a lot of fine ones, and they are cheap, too.

A guy made me laff. He came in and wanted me to pay the rent, and I just luffed and luffed.

Why, it's so quiet in our place that we had to put moccasins on the flies, 'cause if we didn't, and one lit on the show case, it sounded like a thunder storm. Kinda quiet.

Think I care? Not a dambit of it. Money is the root of all evil, and if yer broke yah ain't exposed.

We got too many alarm clocks, so if you want one we'll make you a price. Sometimes clothes are the breath of suspicion. We read from the Hershoes of Reviews: "They will be higher yet" whatever that means.

We got most 200 pairs of spex, and if you can't find a pair out of that bunch, the truth ain't no good to you anyway. We can reset your diamond or put in a new mounting; fix your watch, as we have male and female ticks. If your watch won't run let it walk. If it won't walk, then we use the ticks.

Ignorance is something we all have and don't know it.

We read in Automobiles, 29 chap., 13 verse: "And a little Ford shall lead them." Did you ever play colt for one? Cute pastime. One can think so much of one, one don't dare to say.

Say, Dorothy, we just got so much stuff that I can't mention, you'll have to come in and see it. Don't lose your way, you little "Blue Winter Pearmain." McHATTAN'S, between 6th and 7th. Wrong side.

See Charles S. Hood, Klamath Agency, the real estate agent. He will write your contracts and other legal papers. 12-4t
