GOOD ROADS

In the very near future—and the Herald will tell you the date in a manner that you will not forget—there is to be launched in this city and county a campaign for members for the Klamath Good Roads Association. Now, don't get the idea into your head that this campaign is for the purpose of raising money. It isn't! True, there will be a charge of one dollar as initiation fee and dues for one year. It is not to get this dollar that the campaign is to be launched. It is to get your interest, which will be worth a thousand times more than any money you may put into the movement.

MANY FEDERAL ROADS PLANNED IN NORTHWEST

PORTLAND, Feb. 15.—Road construction work abandoned during the period of the war will assume greater importance than ever before, according to T. W. Norcross, assistant district engineer from Washington, D. C., in charge of road work who has been here consulting with District Forester George H. Cecil and Engineer P. H. Dater of the forest service regarding various projects to be begun this spring.

Mr. Norcross is visiting all district offices of the forest service and has left for San Francisco. Although a tentative program for road construction in Oregon and Washington has been drawn up, Mr. Norcross declined to make public its nature until it is finally decided upon except to say that deferred construction would be taken up as well as several new projects.

Of the amount of money available for road construction: $130,000 a year comes to Oregon and $2,000 to Washington. Another appropriation from the 10 per cent act brings an additional sum to the state, although somewhat smaller.

Already work has begun on the Canyon-Galesville road which will be the connecting link in the Pacific highway, and on the Flora-Enterprise road in the Willowa country, and the Cooks-Collins road in Washington a link in the North Bank road which will make a continuous route from the eastern to the western side of the state.

Early construction upon the roads will furnish opportunity for labor for those returned soldiers who may care to take advantage of it. The survey and construction work of the different road projects will be handled by the bureau of public roads of the department of agriculture under the direction of E. I. Hughes.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

TELLS RHEUMATISM SUFFERERS TO EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water, and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subjected to rheumatism.—Adv.
