FORMER DISTRICT ATTORNEY IS BACK

Attorney John Irwin, who was formerly District Attorney for Klamath County and who has been for the past several months in Portland and other points in the north has returned to this city with Mrs. Irwin to remain. They will take up their former residence at the Corner of Fourth and Pine Streets. Mrs. Irwin who suffered from ill health for a long period is reported to be much improved now. Their many friends will be glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Irwin back to Klamath Falls.

BACK FROM CALIFORNIA

W. P. Sedge, a well known resident of the Dairy district who has been visiting for some time in California, has returned and left this morning for his home.

VISITOR FROM EUGENE

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dunbar came in on the train last evening from Eugene for a short visit. Mr. Dunbar who is interested in Klamath made a previous trip a few days ago.

MILITARY TRAINING

BILL IS KILLED.

SALEM, Feb. 27.—The bill for military training in the High Schools and colleges was killed in the House. The Governor will sign a bill today to appoint a Commission headed by O. C. Leiter to welcome the returning Oregon Soldiers.

NOTICE

Rebekahs will meet for practice Thursday night. All members of the team are requested to be present. 26-2t

WILL UNCLE SAM PUT KILTIES ON THE LADIES?

Now that the Federal Government has laid down strict regulations for the making of men's clothing—no more double-breasted models, only a minimum number of pockets, etc.—in order to save the wool for the soldiers, it is possible that restrictions will also be placed on feminine fashions.

One of the suggested ways to save cloth is to popularize the wearing of kilties by the fair sex. If you want to know how charming a girl can be in Highland costume, see Peggy Hyland in her latest photodrama "Bonnie Annie Laurie" at the Liberty Theatre tonight only.

PAIN, PAIN, PAIN, STOP NEURALGIA

RUB NERVE TORTURE, PAIN AND ALL MISERY RIGHT OUT WITH "ST. JACOBS LINIMENT"

You are to be pitied—but remember that neuralgia torture and pain is the easiest thing in the world to stop. Please don't continue to suffer; it's so needless. Get from your druggist the small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Liniment;" pour a little in your hand and gently rub the "tender nerve" or sore spot, and instantly—yes, immediately—all pain, ache and soreness is gone. "St. Jacobs Liniment" conquers pain—it is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin. Nothing else gives relief so quickly. It never fails to stop neuralgia pain instantly, whether in the face, head or any part of the body. Don't suffer! —Adv.

NORTH FARMERS LIKE KLAMATH

BIG WHEAT RANCHERS OF CANADA ENTHUSIASTIC OVER COUNTY AND CONSIDER LOCATING IN NEAR FUTURE

H. E. Patterson of the Farmers Implement House here, returned to Calgary, Canada this morning following a short stay here, looking after his business. Mr. Patterson expects to put in about twelve hundred acres of wheat this year. He was accompanied on his trip here by Mrs. Patterson and his friend G. C. Cross, who is an extensive wheat rancher in that district and who feels most enthusiastic over Klamath after his brief visit here. Mr. Cross is now seriously considering closing out his Canadian interests and coming to Klamath County. He has a number of friends there, who are awaiting his report on this district anxiously and who may come with him.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate thru every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every seeker. It's just splendid.—Adv.

SERBIANS PAID HEAVY PRICES FOR IMMUNITY

NISH, SERBIA. (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Bulgaria, during its occupation of Serbia, found the country not only an abundant source of food and material but also of considerable revenue. Bulgarian officers exacted large sums of money from the civilian population for what they considered special privileges. For immunity from deportation, for example, some Serbians were forced to pay the Bulgars as high as 25,000 francs. Other Serbian civilians paid large sums that their daughters might not be molested, say the Serbians.

Seven thousand francs was the price paid by Nake T. Pasitel, wheat merchant in the town of Bel Palanka near here, to prevent the seizure by Bulgarian soldiers of his daughter, twenty years old, Pasitel's son, seventeen years old, had been deported by Bulgars and died of starvation in an internment camp.

Peter Goshitch, a banker of the same town, paid six hundred francs for the release of his daughter who had been taken from her home by Bulgars and held at Nish five days. This young woman's husband, who was a priest, was killed by Bulgarians a short time before, it is charged.

From five hundred to twenty thousand francs was the tax put upon Serbians who desired freedom to move about, and from this source the Bulgars reaped a rich harvest.

In almost every one of the dozen towns visited by the Associated Press correspondent the same story was told. In the town of Pirot, Ivan Starkotiel a rug dealer, gave twenty thousand francs to the Bulgars for permission to carry on his business, but persons not able to purchase immunity from persecution were punished.

In many places the Serbian people were forbidden to speak the Serbian language or sing Serbian songs. In Pirot, part of the old Serbian prefecture building was used as a prison for civilians who revolted at the Bulgars' treatment. In a room visited by the correspondent, the floor was splattered with blood. Local inhabitants testified that Bulgars had slaughtered many Serbian civilians there.

and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.—Adv.

Intelligent Turk.

The recent Turkish armistice led George Cohen to say: "The Turk has well been called unspeakable. I met one once at Pera. 'I have seven wives,' he told me, calmly, blowing perfumed clouds from his hookah. 'Merciful powers,' I exclaimed, 'how do you manage to pay their dressmakers' bills?' 'The unspeakable Turk waved his hand: 'I married dressmakers, son of an infidel,' he said."—Los Angeles Times.
