Put On The Left Shoe First

They all said it—Dough-boy, Polu, and Tommy—and clinging to that bit of trench superstition, they believed it brought good luck for the day—and longer life in the shell-ed raked stretch about them.

But in these fairer, happier days, when peace whirls the wheels of motordom again, we say,

"Put on the right shoe first."

And, of course, the right shoe, is the Goodrich shoe, because it means good luck day and night, and longer life in your tires.

But there's no superstition about it; only the big, husky body, and the wide, thick BLACK SAFETY TREAD, Goodrich builds into tires that—

BUT NOW THAT OUR BOYS, THE YANKS, HAVE BROUGHT VICTORY, LIBERTY AND PEACE, PORTLAND WILL HOLD HER ROSE FEAST,

J. Warren Kerrigan's newest contribution to his series of important screen productions is "Prisoners of the Pines," which will be seen in this city tonight at the Liberty Theatre. "Prisoners of the Pines" offers Kerrigan splendid chances for some of his most effective cinema acting. He has the role of Hillaire Latour, a young French Canadian trapper who, tiring of the unprofitable returns of the woods and traps, ventures into a lumber camp where he is given the lowly position of assistant to the camp cook.

From the moment of his introduction to the rough fellows of the timberland, Hillaire becomes a man of note in more than one way. There is a very delightful love story running through "Prisoners of the Pines", while the comedy element is always well to the fore.

Lois Wilson has the principal feminine part in "Prisoners of the Pines" while Walter Perry, a character actor of high repute has the role of 'Spuds' Laferty, a keen witted camp cook.

The Star Theatre has contracted to show, beginning Sunday, Miss Anita Stewart's initial First National production, "Virtuous Wives," adapted from the two million edition book of the same title by Owen Johnson.

"Virtuous Wives" is described as a truthful story of married life in New York society. According to the author, in the introduction to his story, a virtuous wife is becoming an extinct specie of femininity under present-day conditions. The reasons for this as described in his novel,

Andrew Forrester, and obsessed only with the idea of constant and uninterrupted amusement, she appears in the role of the young society matron who finally is brought to a realization that unbridled pleasure is but the ash of happiness.

The policy of the Liberty Theatre has been always to show only those pictures which stand the acid test of quality. This is most strikingly exemplified in the fact that Sunday and Monday we will present Evelyn Nesbit in her first William Fox photoplay, "The Woman Who Gave."

Evelyn Nesbit has been pre-eminent in the public eye for a number of years. She has made a spectacular success on the stage and comes to the screen under most auspicious circumstances.

"The Woman Who Gave" is an intensely dramatic story of an artist's model in the studios of Paris. She is compelled to marry a Bulgarian Prince and the life he forces her to lead makes her hate her own beauty. How fate intervenes to give her happiness is most graphically shown in this most unique story.

Don't forget that "The Woman Who Gave" will be shown at the Liberty Theatre for two days commencing Sunday, March 2nd. Tell your friends that we consider this the best picture that we have shown this season.

Someone has called "Missing," J. Stuart Blackton's great picture of war times, the story of a woman's heart. It tells what brides have to endure in war times, and while it is free from the gruesome, it presents a simple little story of life that is bound to be loved by women the country over. "Missing," will be shown at the Star Theatre tonight and an interesting presentation is assured.

Thrift Pays the Bills

¶ This world is full of bills. The grocer sends them, the butcher, the baker, the coal man, the ice man and the tailor.

¶ To some people bills mean worry and unhappiness. To others who practice Thrift, who spend less than they earn and regularly save a stated sum, bills have no terror.

¶ Is it not better to have dollar bills in the bank than dunning bills in the mail box?
