PRESIDENT IS STILL COOL TO CHAMBERLAIN.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Wilson and Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the senate military committee met here for the first time since their conference of more than a year ago...

Senator Chamberlain called to pay his respects to the President, who was at the Capitol conferring with senators and representatives. The President shook Senator Chamberlain's hand once and the smile on his face disappeared gravely bowing, the President released Chamberlain's hand and without speaking turned to greet another Senator.

THIS TELLS HOW TO FIGURE INCOME TAX

Squarely Up to Every Individual to Get Busy by March 15 or Suffer Penalty.

"Don't wait until the final due date, March 15, for paying your Income Tax and making your return. Avoid the last minute rush. Any person can figure out his liability today as well as he can next week...

Did You Earn This Much? Every unmarried person who received income averaging $19.25 a week during 1918 and every married couple who jointly received income averaging $38.50 a week should secure at once from the nearest Deputy Collector of the nearest bank a blank Form 1010 A.

The law requires that every unmarried person who had a net income of $1,000 or over and every married person whose net income was $2,000 or over (including the income of husband or wife and the earnings of minor children, if any) must make a return on or before March 15th.

Taxable Income. An individual must include under gross income all gains, profits and income derived from salaries, wages or compensation for personal services of whatever kind and in whatever form paid or from professions, vocations, business, sales or dealings in property of all kinds, interest, rent, dividends or profits derived from any source whatever.

Deductions include ordinary and necessary business expenses, interest paid or accrued on indebtedness, taxes of all kinds except Federal income and excess profits taxes and assessments for local benefits, losses actually sustained, debts ascertained to be worthless and depreciation on buildings, machinery, fixtures, etc., used in business.

The taxpayer is not allowed to deduct any personal, living or family expense, any amount spent for improving property or any expense of restoring property for which an allowance is claimed under depreciation.

Figuring the Tax. Before figuring the normal tax the dividends are deducted as credits from net income, together with the personal exemption. As in previous years, dividends of domestic corporations are exempt from normal tax when received by the stockholder.

The normal tax rates for citizens and residents are as follows: On the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the credits the rate is 6 per cent; on any further taxable income the rate is 12 per cent.

The surtax rates apply to net income of each individual in excess of $5,000. The personal exemption and the dividends are not deductible before computing surtax. In the case of returns by husband and wife, the net income of each is considered separately in computing any surtax that may be due.

Business House Returns. Employers and others who paid wages, salaries, rents, interest or similar determinable gains in an amount of $1,000 or over during 1918 to any person must file an information return with the Government. Blanks may be secured from the Collector.

Every partnership must file a return showing its income and deductions and the name and address of each partner, with his share of the profits or losses during the past year.

For several years the good people of Oregon have looked forward with a great deal of pleasure to the June time each year, when Portland welcomed us from all over the state to her

Rose Festival

Owing to the big war in Europe, which had been going on for four years, and in order to win this war and to show the print of Uncle Sam's Big Foot, Our people were all helping conserve in every way they could—Portland wanted to do her part, and she did by not holding her Rose Festival in 1918. BUT NOW THAT OUR BOYS, THE YANKS, HAVE BROUGHT VICTORY, LIBERTY AND PEACE, PORTLAND WILL HOLD HER ROSE FEAST,

June 11-12-13

This is a very busy time of the season for the merchant, so the Winnek Company will not attend the

Victory Rose Festival

We want some one to have this pleasure, and they shall, for somewhere in Klamath County there is a young lady who will go in our stead. Beginning Monday, March 3d, with every 50 cent cash purchase we will give 500 votes, and with every $1.00 cash purchase we will give 1,000 votes. No votes given under 50-cent sales.

The young lady holding the most votes June 7, 11 p. m., will be the one who takes this delightful trip with US.

Evelyn Nesbit gave rich proof that she is a dramatic actress of high ability in her first William Fox photoplay "The Woman Who Gave," which was presented at the Liberty Theatre yesterday.

The story treats in a unique way the problem of a famous beauty who is married by a titled foreigner merely for the enjoyment he finds in her charms. When a little son is born he hates the child for its claims upon the mother's time.

The mother finally rebels at the inhuman treatment to which her husband subjects her and seeks refuge with the artist for whom she had previously posed.

How the mother protects her child against its father is one of the most dramatic scenes that has ever been presented to the public.

"The Woman Who Gave," with Evelyn Nesbit in the title role, will be given its last showing this evening at the Liberty.

This remarkable photoplay with the internationally famous actress and beauty has proven one of the greatest attractions seen this season at this popular house. Miss Nesbit is duplicating the success she has made on the vaudeville stage for the past few years and "The Woman Who Gave," which tells the story of the artist's model who grows to hate her own beauty, gives her amazing opportunities to show her abilities in the most convincing fashion.

Folks who have not been to a circus for so long they have forgotten what one is like, should see "To the Highest Bidder," the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature which will be seen at the Temple theatre tonight. A real old-time circus is screened, with all the tents and animals and cages and popcorn and peanuts and crowds of young and old. "To the Highest Bidder" is a fascinating romance by Florence Morse Kingsley in which Alice Joyce has the leading role, that of Barbara Preston, a beautiful young girl who sells herself at public auction to the highest bidder to save the Preston farm to her younger brother. Walter McGrail plays opposite her, and other in the cast are Percy Standing, Edna Murphy, Jules Cowles, Mary Carr and Stephen Carr. Tom Terris directed the picture.

Coming to the Liberty theatre Tuesday is "Creaking Stairs," Mary MacLaren's newest special release in which she has an excellent story, a brilliant cast and direction of the finest sort, provided by Rupert Julian.

"Creaking Stairs" is a story with a not unusual theme, but with a climax that is terrific and a denouement that is historic in film-making. The personality of Mary MacLaren and the direction of Julian provide the rest.

"Creaking Stairs" is a preachment against "the easiest way," without being in any sense "preachy." The moral is so bound up with the story that it has no entity. In other words, the story itself is the moral. We see the working out of the cycle of life;

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache; no hawking, snuffing, mucous discharges or dizziness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate thru every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

reversion to type, if you will, "Dearie" Lane is, at first, a florist's helper. She is "Dearie" to everyone and anyone—until luxury's lure and the desires of a worldly, ignorant girl are accomplished. "Dearie" becomes the "companion" of a wealthy man. Her transformation is complete. Instead of a hall room, she has a palace; in place of dolls, dogs; the cheap jewelry is cast away for genuine gems. Glorious frocks, sartorial splendors are hers.

And she does not realize her palace is a cage, her dogs a mockery, her jewels unreal, until—there enters The Man.
