

WAR PROHIBITION NOT ENFORCEABLE

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—The Senate Judiciary Committee has agreed to take no action on the legislation to enforce the war time prohibition which becomes effective in July.

July. There will be no chance for passing a bill now during this session.

The new Paramount picture, "His Own Home Town," starring Charles Ray, is said to be one of exceptional interest and which affords Mr. Ray one of the best roles he has enacted in many months.

The story deals with the corrupt operations of a political ring in a small town and with the efforts of Jimmy Duncan to rid the city of this degrading incubus. In the development of the story there are many scenes of tremendous interest and it goes without saying that the dramatic action, in which Mr. Ray figures most conspicuously, is tense and nerve-racking. Both the star and his support have been afforded ample opportunity by Larry Evans, the scenarist, for the display of their respective talents.

There is a triumvirate of stars in "Creaking Stairs," the Mary MacLaren-Universal special release, which is to be projected at the Liberty theatre tonight. Mary MacLaren is the featured player in this realistic expose of uneasy ambition, while Rupert Julian, who produced "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," for Universal, directed. Jack Mulhall is the third of the trio. Mulhall starred in "The Dress Bullet" serial with Juanita Hansen, and has costarred with Louise Lovely, Carmel Myers, Ruth Stonehouse and Flora Parker De Haven.

The anonymous player is Miss MacLaren's aide when the star disposes of the body of her former patron, who has expired in her home. So that her husband shall not know and discover how unalterably her past has been linked to the life of the dead man, Miss MacLaren, as "Debbie" Lane, and the negroes, take the corpse out of the house into a rain-washed night and deposit it in a deserted place. Thunder rolls and lightning flashes; the elements frown upon the craven deed, and immediately there descends on "Debbie" Lane, luxury-loving, searcher for the easiest way, a concatenation of events that visits on her the curse of her past. Ultimately the salvific efficiency of Love operates however, and "Debbie" is taken into the shelter of her devoted husband's arms.
