OUR NEW GOVERNOR

Never in Oregon's history was there greater need for a man as governor possessing constructive ability as at the present time, and it is fortunate in having Ben W. Olcott as its chief executive.

Strong men make strong enemies. So it is with Governor Olcott. Throughout the state there has risen up against him political enemies who have plotted for his overthrow.

JIM STEWART OF WHEELER.

One of the big men developed during the last session of the state legislature was Jim Stewart of Wheeler. He was the one strong character of the house of representatives and whenever he espoused a cause he did so with his heart and soul.

Just remember that tomorrow you are asked to go to church. It is not a difficult task. It is one that should be a pleasure, for you are simply offering your tribute, in a quiet, unostentatious way, to Him who bore your burdens to the Mount of Calvary.

Today we print "The Sermon of the Flowers," inspired by our editorial of a day or two ago on "Go to Church."

THIS IS THE WAY THE BOYS FEEL ABOUT IT

The following poem was sent to O. D. Burke, president of Klamath State Bank, by his son, Percy, and was sung at an entertainment given by some Americans "over there." No doubt it expresses their feelings:

"Silver Threads Among the Black" Darling, I am coming back, Silver threads among the black, Now that peace in Europe nears, I'll be home in seven years.

I'll drop in on you some night With my whiskers long and white, Yes, the war is over, dear, And we're going home, I hear; Home again with you once more, Say—by nineteen twenty-four.

Once I thought by now I'd be Sailing back across the sea— Back to where you sit and pine; But I'm stuck here on the Rhine.

You can hear the gang all curse, War is hell—but Peace is worse, When the next war comes around In the front ranks I'll be found; I'll rush in again pell-mell, Yes, I will—I will like hell!

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

PIMPLES ARE IMPURITIES SEEKING AN OUTLET THROUGH SKIN PORES

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities, which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood; and is excellent for the kidneys as well.—Adv.
