YANKEE ABROAD WANTS TO SEE HOME PICTURES

PARIS—Correspondence Associated Press—The American soldier wants, more than anything else in the world right now, to go home. For the 500,000 or more who still have weary weeks ahead of them here and with the Army of Occupation, the next best thing is to see pictures of their home towns.

These pictures are being shown to them in the miles and miles of films called "Smiles," distributed to the camps by the Community Motion Picture Bureau of the Young Men's Christian Association. Probably there are a hundred miles of the films.

The movies are taken everywhere, from Times Square to the Cliff House. They show the familiar streets and the familiar landmarks and the familiar faces, and then they are rushed over here to the boys, and to say that they are welcomed is putting it mildly indeed.

The pictures are not shown indiscriminately. When a picture from New York, or Kansas City, or Seattle, or anywhere else, arrives it is sent immediately to the military organizations hailing from that particular locality, and it only needs a simple announcement to the effect that a home town movie will be shown to pick the Y. M. C. A. hut or theater to the limit as many times as it is possible to show the film before taps blows.

Some days ago in Coblenz, while a picture from Chicago was being shown, a soldier rose from his seat and shouted, "There's my dog!" then after a pause he added: "And that's my brother with him."

Many a boy over here has seen some of his relatives in these pictures and they are more successful than the latest humorous film of the newest drama.

A call has been issued from National Headquarters for certain knitted articles for the use of the women and children in the war devastated countries.

The recent request to Chapters to "stack their needles" was based on the fact that all garments necessary for the use of the soldiers and sailors are made and in stock.

We are now faced, however, with another need, that of the destitute women and children. This need is to a degree which few of us at home can possibly realize. Pitiable stories are told of thousands of children who are barefooted and barelegged while snow and ice is upon the ground. To help in this emergency we are asked to knit up the supply of yarn on hand in Chapters and Division Warehouse as soon as possible.

We trust that every knitter will plan to get their yarn and push the work forward as rapidly as possible.

This is an appeal to the women and children of America to assist the women and children of less fortunate countries. The task of knitting articles for the soldiers and sailors has been done and finished. We trust that our knitters will take up this new work with equal enthusiasm.

CLEVER TRICK OF IRISHMAN GETS FREEDOM

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—Simulating the gentle bovine to slip past a line of sentries during the recent quarantine of Fort Stevens, Oregon, was the device successfully employed by Tim Murray, an Irish truck driver for the army, according to a report received yesterday by Alern Department War Activities, Eastern Department War Activities, Knights of Columbus.

The story of the "private who made a noise like a cow" so effectively night after night that he had "leave" when no leave was allowed him, was told to Bagley in a report from Thomas D Ferguson, K. of C. secretary at the northern camp.

Murray, like hundreds of his fellow buck privates, grew weary of the constant confinement to the camp. One day, one of the cows which browsed about the grounds came too close to the truck driver, and in a moment was dispossessed of her bull. Thereafter, the sentries heard nightly a lone bovine plowing thru the underbrush her bell tinkling with regularity and clarity. The very regularity of the performance, however, proved Murray's undoing. A suspicious sentry, lying in wait for the cow, came upon the young Irishman tolling the bell as he slipped through the lines. Thereafter, the two-legged bovine moped no more.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN WOULD AID FRIENDS

SAYS TANLAC DID HIM SO MUCH GOOD HE WANTS TO GIVE
EVERY OLD SOLDIER A BOTTLE

"I wish I could buy every old soldier a bottle of Tanlac, for from the way it has fixed me up I believe it would add years to their lives," said Frank B. Kendrick, a Civil War veteran living at 4800 Charlotte avenue, Nashville Tenn.

"Some time back," he continued, "I had rheumatism so bad, and went down so fast, that it looked like I was on the verge of a general break down and had about despaired of ever walking again. I was fast losing what little flesh and strength I had left and could hardly get from my bed to my chair. I had no appetite, could hardly sleep and suffered constantly with headaches.

"After taking Tanlac a short while I began to improve. I kept it up till I have gained thirteen pounds and feel better and younger than I have in years. Tanlac just filled me with new life and energy and put me on my feet again. I have a fine appetite and can walk anywhere I want to go and hardly feel it at all."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorville by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.

Letters From The People

Los Angeles, Calif.

Editor Herald, Klamath Falls, Ore.

Dear Sir—I notice in your issue of February 25th, where Senator Baldwin and Representative Merryman had introduced in the senate a joint memorial and resolution asking the Oregon delegation in congress to secure the passage of a bill permitting Klamath County to be annexed to and become a part of the state of California.

Now to be sure, a great many people will consider it as a joke, but in my estimation the case is one for very serious thought. The facts are that the state of Oregon seems to have lost sight of her southern counties, and most especially her southeastern ones, except on election or tax times, and I think we are too far away from Portland to ever expect very much relief from that source. It has also occurred to me, although I may be mistaken, that the northern counties of California stand in the same relations with that state, although I am sure California would welcome the annexation of Klamath. However, California is now about 1,000 miles long, with her principal activities in the central and southern part of the state. My ideas may be premature, but in my judgment, the day will come, and it is not very far off, when a part of Southern Oregon and part of Northern California will be united to form another Pacific state, and until such time comes, unless there is some radical change from the past, we cannot hope to develop the great and wonderful resources that lie within the territory of Southern Oregon and Northern California. Now, I am not writing you these lines to start an argument or create a disturbance, but merely as good for thought along the lines of our future welfare. Respectfully yours,

C. B. CRISLER.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

LOOK YOUNG! BRING BACK ITS NATURAL COLOR, GLOSS AND ATTRACTIVENESS

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 5-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

SCENES THAT MAKE "THE RAINBOW TRAIL" A CLASSIC

He was awakened by violence. It was the gray hour before dawn. Dark forms knelt over him. A cloth pressed down hard over his mouth. Strong hands bound it while strong hands held him. He could not cry out. He could not struggle. A heavy weight, evidently a man, held down his feet. Then he rolled over, securely bound, and carried, to be thrown like a sack.

"In an instant he realized his position. He had been dropped intentionally upon an ant heap, which had sunk under his weight, wedging him between the crusts. At the mercy of those terrible desert ants!"—From Zane Grey's novel, "The Rainbow Trail."
