MT. LAKE'S SOCIAL CENTER.

Out in the neighborhood of Mt. Lake there has been going on a quiet movement that has escaped the attention of the people of the county, and this hiding of their light under a bushel is really unfortunate. Every section of the county should follow in the footsteps of the people of Mt. Lake, for they lead to the higher things of life, those worth living and working for—community interest, intercourse and development. This policy will eventually attract to this neighborhood a better class of residents, people who believe in the great commandment, "Love thy neighbor as thyself," for that is the guiding star of the people of the Mt. Lake district. Not that they are solemn-faced, joyless, narrow, selfish. They are just the reverse. At the social gatherings that have played such an important part in the life of these people, there you will find happiness and laughter, enterprise and co-operation, sympathy and help. And it has all come out of the fact that a few of the more daring ones several years ago conceived the idea that it would be a good thing "if we just got together once in awhile and broke the monotony." The first meeting was such a success that a second, and a third and a fourth were held, the number attending increased and the final decision to make it a permanent thing. It was really the beginning here of what is now nationally known as the "Social Center Movement," only it was started long before that idea was given publicity. These meetings have done much for Mt. Lake and its people. They are going to do more. Next Friday there will be held in the Mt. Lake church a meeting that will have for its purpose the improvement of the center of activities—the grounds surrounding the edifice that has been the home of all of the gatherings of the neighborhood. Other subjects will be discussed, but out of this meeting there are going to grow big things for Mt. Lake, and The Herald hopes that this growth will extend its influence until other neighborhoods throughout the county will be affected by it. We hope to see through Klamath social centers similar to Mt. Lake, where an influence for good, for the uplift of the people, may be inculcated and where will spring up a fountain head of truth and education that will purify, cleanse and drive out some of the vicious doctrines that are stealthily thrusting their heads into the homes of our beloved county.

FARMS AS AN INVESTMENT.

"You newspaper men always talk about timber, timber, timber. Why don't you talk some about our farms? Back east where I came from a farmer pays $20,000 for 160 acres and if he rents it out he will average, year in and year out, for a ten-year period, not over two percent, net, on his investment and be satisfied. How is it here? Down in Malin a man will pay $100 an acre for his land and he will rent it for half. He can raise three tons of hay to the acre and he is sure to sell it for $5 a ton or $24 an acre. That gives him for his share $12. Two dollars an acre will pay taxes and maintenance charge, leaving him $10, or ten percent on his investment. I have earned as high as $100 an acre on my land, and no year less than sixty for the past three years. If you can beat that with timber, show it to me." This is part of the enthusiastic conversation of Mr. F. Zumpf, one of the Bohemian colonists who came to this county ten years ago and located at what is now Malin—recognized as being one of the richest sections of Klamath County. Many were those who shook their heads and said what a shame it was that these poor people were robbed and buncoed in this fashion! Some of these "poor people" thought so, too, and left to their everlasting sorrow and loss. Others stayed and still others came. Today they are recognized as the most prosperous people of the county, due entirely to the returns they have received from their farms. Well may Mr. Zumpf issue the challenge of "show me." What is true of the Malin section of the county is true of other sections. The same story will be told within ten years about Langell Valley and Yonna Valley. Timber land is all right, but the farm will be the stand-by of the county, for like our climate, we can sell the products every year.

ACTION FOR COLLECTION.

In action for the collection of $260 for professional services rendered and $152.50 hospital services, no part of which has yet been paid has been instituted by Dr. E. D. Johnson against Eddie Cookman in the office of the County Clerk, by his attorney R. C. Groesbeck.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY

We have for sale an excellent little business in one of the very best towns in Klamath County. Stock and fixtures will invoice from $800 to $1,000. Two story building with living rooms upstairs and large lot is dirt cheap at $2,000. Building and stock will sell for approximately $3,000, and less than $2,000 will handle it. This is your chance to get a good income from a small investment. Owner will sacrifice at above price if sold within three weeks. Excellent reason for selling. Investigate this. 21-2t CHILCOTE & SMITH.

DID HER A WORLD OF GOOD, SHE SAYS

MRS. MOORE WAS SO WEAK SHE COULD HARDLY GET UP—HEALTH RESTORED BY TAN-LAC.

"I feel so well now that I can hardly realize the awful condition I was in before I took Tanlac," said Mrs. E. L. Moore, of 943 S. Wellington street, Memphis, Tennessee. "I had been in a rundown condition for two years," she continued, "and was so weak I could hardly keep going. I had to force myself to eat, but nothing agreed with me and I got so lifeless and no account that I could hardly get up when I was sitting or lying down, or even do my housework. I suffered with splitting headaches, that would almost drive me distracted. "My appetite picked up on my first bottle of Tanlac and I am now eating three hearty meals a day, those awful headaches are gone and I am feeling just fine. I have gained ten pounds and am strong enough to do all my housework with ease. Tanlac did me a world of good—more than all the other medicines I have taken put together." Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorain by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.
