MOVE TO AID NEEDY BAPTIST MINISTERS

PORTLAND, March 21.—Seven hundred Baptist ministers are destitute and without means of support, according to a report by the victory campaign committee of the Northern Baptist Convention, made public here. All these men are said to be old soldiers of the cross who have become incapacitated thru long years of service. It is to remedy this situation that laymen of the Baptist church have organized their $6,000,000 victory campaign, which will be waged thruout the nation March 23 to 30.
The committee has voted to give $669,000 to the ministers and missionaries' board.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON DISCOVERS KLAMATH

The University of Oregon is sending a picked body of its young student manhood to Klamath Falls to stimulate interest in the University. They give glee club concerts at Houston's opera house next Monday and Tuesday evenings.
No citizen of Klamath, young or old, can afford to miss these concerts. Never before has this community been favored by a visit from the University Glee Club.
Our pleasure, our duty and our interest lie in sending these young educational missionaries back with an enthusiastic account of their reception by the people of this city.
First impressions on young minds are lasting. Give Klamath Falls a good name with the rising generation—the future legislators, professional men and business men.
